The Oregon Loganberry company in an interview with a Salem paper announces that they will put out 200 acres on the Thielson place, that they will have their own cannery and evaporator, water system and electric lights. They will do their plowing and cultivating by gasoline power. Britt Aspenwall will be the manager at Derry, which name they expect to change to Loganberry. Do not forget that against intense opposition, the Itemizer brought these people to Polk county.—Dallas Itemizer.

This new fruit farm is but a few miles from Independence, its leading trade center, and the industry will have a tendency to develop a fruit industry around this lively, fast growing town.

Walter Wiles, of Wells, was in Corvallis a few days ago. He is hale and hearty and looking better than he has in ten years. Scarcely more than two months ago he had a complete collapse and was brought to the Corvallis hospital, but he recuperated rapidly and is now none the worse for wear. Connected with the First National Bank so many years, Mr. Wiles is well known to everybody in this section, and to many over the state.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Mrs. Geo. W. Conkey, of Independence, and Miss Opal McDevitt, of Dallas, sisters of C. T. McDevitt, who have been visiting here, left for Newport to spend several weeks at the beach.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

It was reported here this week that the Prairie City Miner had been sold, the new proprietors being Prof. P. F. A. Boche and Jess Allen. Mr. Allen is a practical printer with considerable experience in the newspaper work and the new firm is welcomed into the journalistic field.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

Prof. Boche is a graduate of the O. N. S. and spent several years in Monmouth.

To spend 84th birthday with twin brother—it has been their custom for many years. William Haines left yesterday for Monmouth and Independence, where he will visit relatives and will eat his 84th birthday dinner with his twin brother from Curry county. They have observed this annual custom for many years.—Eugene Register.

Harley L. Hall, a former Corvallisite now traveling for a Portland concern, will arrive here today to join Mrs. Hall and spend several days visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Hall returned at noon today from Buena Vista, where she has been visiting Mr. Hall's parents.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Miss Elsie Thayer went to Monmouth yesterday to make arrangements for attending the Normal school this fall and winter.—Lebanon Express.

Oscar Ingram is at Independence to see about putting on a piano contest in that place.—Lebanon Express.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE
If you have a well selected stock of merchandise, are overstocked in any line, or have something that you wish the public to know, mention it through an ad in the Independence Monitor.
DON'T WHITTLE YOUR LIFE AWAY ON A DRY GOODS BOX
Keep busy by going out after business. Bring in the people to Independence to trade by telling them what you have to sell. A good ad appeals to the farmer, the mechanic, the doctor, lawyer, hop grower, merchant and banker all alike. You read the advertisements and are now reading this one. This ad is proof enough, if you will be honest with yourself, that advertising pays.
We are prepared to take care of your JOB WORK
Care in the selection of our type faces makes this office well equipped to turn out neat work and on short notice. Card work, letter heads, bill heads, posters, note heads, hop tickets, etc., printed and satisfaction guaranteed. We are here to stay and our work speaks for us.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS

Elbert Thompson, of the firm of Thompson Brothers, of Salem, architects and builders, were in Independence Saturday with a view of taking up the contract of building the J. S. Cooper residence. Mr. Thompson is an old acquaintance of the editor, and he told of several fine residences he had built in this county. He stated his firm had built fourteen houses in this county last year and the cheapest of the fourteen was $3450. He also made a contract for a card to run a year in the Monitor for his firm at Salem.

Fred Hooper has the contract for building a new hop house for H. B. Fletcher on his hop yard across the river. Mr. Fletcher has the old Kutch yard and will begin picking this year about September 2. The new hop house will have a 30-foot kin and be a much needed improvement on this yard.

A wagon load of material for the hop picking machine at Horst Bros. yard was brought in town Saturday. The machine is an experiment but the owners claim it will be a great success when one works out as planned.

Mrs. Rachael Humphrey and Saxon, old time residents of Monmouth and Normal sympathizers, Saxon being a graduate, are now located at Vale. Saxon is in the hardware business there.

Verd Hill made a trip to Newport Saturday. He will bask in the sunshine and play in the sea waves and come back feeling like a new man.

W. E. Bevens was transacting business in the town Saturday. He reported everything in good shape on the American Bottom.

Mrs. F. C. Schow left Saturday afternoon for Portland where she will spend several days visiting.

James M. Jones wired the Drexler & Alexander balcony this week for electric lights.

The Independence-Monmouth motor line employs eight men on the train force, four on the section, and several at odd times in the other departments. They use annually about 2000 cords of wood. The Spaulding Logging Co. use ten men in their office and yards and yet someone says there is no pay roll in Independence. The laundry uses from six to twelve girls, the creamery a dozen hands, and the hop yards a big bunch, so why isn't there a payroll in Independence. There is.

J. S. Moore came in the first part of the week with a big load of vegetables for the stores. While in the editor grabbed him for a subscription and has the promise of enough to eat for a month on the strength of it.

C. P. Wells was in from his ranch Friday and had a load of tile aboard. He has a small wet spot in his ten acre orchard he is going to drain, and got his tile from the Monmouth factory.

John Ground, the mill and feed store man on the Lucknamute, was a visitor in Independence the last of last week and passed the time of day with the editor of the paper.

Mrs. Wm. Staiger of Salem arrived Friday for a brief visit with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Paddock during the absence of Mr. Paddock on his farm in Eastern Oregon.

Miss Bertha Collins left on Monday morning's train for Albany where she will again take a position in the telephone service.

C. W. Henkle, C. V. Murphy, Clyde Williams and wife left this week for Yachats to spend a few days rustating.

R. H. McCarter said he was going to dry hops this year. He was in the first of the week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hartman will move this week into the Bayse house near the Christian church.
