

THE large number of pretty women who have dealt at this store has taught us what is positively the best for the toilet table. Consequently we are able to give you all the articles that other women are using successfully.

SOME OF OUR SPECIALTIES:

Violet Dulce Powder	50c	Robertine	50c
Almarosa Cream	35c	Hazeline Snow	35c
Rosa Vitae	27c	Witch Hazel Cream	25c

Williams Drug Store

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Floyd Brown was a Salem visitor Monday.

F. C. Schow was laid up Monday with a bad cold.

J. W. Wiltse and family visited in Salem Sunday.

Miss Bessie Hartman is visiting in Dallas this week.

Mr. Hartman and wife were in Salem for Sunday.

W. F. McAdams made a business trip to Salem Monday.

Mr. Compton and wife visited relatives Sunday at Albany.

Elmer Davis and Miss Eva Collins spent Sunday at Albany.

Mrs. M. W. Wallace went to Portland Monday for a few days on business.

W. H. Bise, the cement contract man, spent Sunday in Portland on business.

Frank Maxfield of Kings Valley was among the visitors in this city Monday.

The Geo. F. Rogers Paper Company had a representative in the city this week.

Tom and Bill had a big chicken dinner at the Farmers Cafe Sunday. Ask them.

George Girard and family, Mary and Clara Ireland were passengers to Newport Monday.

Jas. Jones completed wiring the Asa Taylor store this week and it is now ready for the lights.

Mrs. Gertie Adkins came in Monday evening to make a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Pluke.

Mrs. Edith Owen Davidson came up from Portland the first part of the week to visit her parents.

Peter Kurre and family who have been at the coast are back again. They came in Tuesday evening.

Mr. Weatherbee of the firm of Jones and Weatherbee made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.

Moss Walker and Al Whitney were autoists to Albany, Sunday, where they spent the day with Mr. Walker's parents.

Henry Brinkley who was in the city a week visiting his son, left for Airlie Monday to look after his farm interests there.

Supt. J. H. Ackerman, President of the Normal at Monmouth, was a Salem visitor the first of the week, returning Monday evening.

Every one is asking Homer Link the particulars about a bottle that was poisoned, or at least did not taste just right. One of the cigar merchants on C street is reported to have used syrup and water as a tonic and the same was a new deal. Dick Gaines carried the suit case and had "one cent" in it. Tom Brinkley and George Crowley went along to keep the crowd straight.

Mrs. Ed Haggerly and daughter of Horst ranch, spent Saturday with Mrs. C. E. Howard of this place. Mrs. Harriet Miller, an artist from Long Beach accompanied them. Mrs. Miller recently returned from Europe where she has been studying art and is on her way to Long Beach where she will reopen her studio.

Ben Whiteaker was taken with a kind of paralytic stroke Monday in front of the Jones property, near the Hotel Lerona. He fell in a kind of a faint and was carried to the home of Mrs. Jones where medical assistance was given him. After an auto took him to his home.

Grover Mattison has graduated as a jack knife carpenter and is to take up the profession of a hop yard merchant. He learned the carpenter trade with Homer Woods where he has been building a new wood shed according to blue prints, plans and specifications.

Misses Grace and Cora Walker of Portland returned to Portland, by the way of Amity, Saturday, after spending several days visiting with Mrs. Nellie Graves and other friends in Independence. The Walker sisters formerly lived in this place.

Jones & Weatherbee have their goods at the warehouse here and have been busy for several weeks packing and pricing so as to have everything in readiness to place on the shelves as soon as the store is opened up.

A copy of the "Taken Blade" came to our exchange table this week. It is published by Ray C. Irvine, a former Independence boy, and is a fine, up-to-date, well edited paper. We are glad to see Ray succeeding.

Miss Fern Seaman, who has been entertaining the Misses Wiltse of Salem, returned to that city with her guests Sunday morning.

W. W. Newton made a trip to Newport this week.

Geo. Krebs was an incoming passenger from Salem Monday.

Verd Hill returned from Newport Friday. He reported a fine time.

The W. R. C. served refreshments to the G. A. R. in their hall Saturday.

Mrs. Sherman Hayes returned from the coast Monday after spending several days at Newport.

Frank Cox, after visiting his parents opposite Independence, left Friday for Oregon City where he makes his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Neeley of Eugene landed in this city Saturday for a few days visit with Mr. Neeley's brother in this city.

Mr. Constance of Kan-ling, Minnesota visited last week with R. G. Simons, south of Monmouth. He left Friday for Portland.

Geo. Wilson had the misfortune to lose his first finger in a wood saw Saturday. The finger was taken off at the first joint.

Hop tickets have commenced to roll into the Monitor office for printing. If you wish to have tickets printed, come early.

Dick Gaines is in Portland this week purchasing fixtures for the new pool and billiard hall to be placed in the Asa Taylor property on C street.

Oliver Smith made a pleasant call at the Monitor office Wednesday. He has decided to have a public sale at his place September 21st.

Mrs. Sarah Young came up from Portland the middle of last week for a several days visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. I. Claggett in Independence.

S. H. McElmurry, democratic candidate for County commissioner, with his family returned Saturday from the Yachats, where he has been outing.

Married at Dallas, Oregon, Friday, August 16, Miss Byri Orr to Henry Hogan, both of Independence. The wedding was a quiet one and the parties will make their home in this city.

Walter Kurr, Joe James, and Wiley Williams will give a dance at Suver Sept 20th and preparations are being made for a big crowd. They will have good music and a fine time.

Mrs. Al Whitney accompanied Mrs. C. G. Long to her home in Albany Sunday where she will visit for a few weeks. Mrs. Long visited Mrs. Whitney and friends here last week.

WE ARE STRONG
on fulfillment of our promises and obligations to our customers are these:
To sell only fresh good meat, give perfect service and make prices reasonable. Our promise to you is this:
That we will give you our best quality of meats, our best service and our lowest prices.

Block's Meat Market
Independence, Oregon

C. W. Butler and family left for the bay Friday. They expect to teach the Newport people some new outing stunts as Word is reported to be an expert water man being about as lively in the surf as a good sized flounder and far ahead of a jelly fish.

Miss Grace Damon came up from Salem Saturday to visit over Sunday with her parents. Mrs. Nellie Damon Eales also visited over Sunday with her parents. Mrs. Eales and husband are spending the summer at Newport.

J. R. Cooper placed his new bar fixtures last week and had an opening of the place Friday evening. He undoubtedly has the finest bar in this section of the state.

The carpenters commenced bearing out the front of the Herzog store the first of the week and putting in a fine modern front.

Rev. Lawrence of Salem will supply the Baptist pulpit at the Baptist Church next Sunday morning and evening.

W. H. Block Sundayed in Portland visiting his wife who is under the physician's care there.

P. H. Drexler and family returned from their outing to the coast Tuesday, reporting an enjoyable vacation.

Dr. H. Chas. Dunsmore returned Saturday from a trip to Portland Thursday.

Frank Gray and wife returned Monday from a vacation at Wilhoit.

Mrs. B. F. Swope returned Saturday after a ten days outing to Wilhoit Springs.

Charles Bilyeu of Dallas was autoing around the streets of Independence Monday in his fine new auto.

Mrs. Job who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Gaines, in company with Mrs. Gaines visited Sunday in Salem.

Dr. Allin returned from Portland Saturday, after accompanying the remains of Mrs. Allin to that city for interment.

The Baptist Ladies Aid Society have on sale ready made aprons at the Variety store on the corner of C and railroad street.

Mrs. Sadie Rawson Apperson was in the city during the funeral of Mrs. Dr. Allin. Mrs. Apperson is now living in McMinnville.

Mrs. J. E. Jamieson and Miss Leslie Clay of Portland visited a week in Monmouth and Independence, returning to Portland Monday.

Mrs. Mata Kinney Hendricks was an Independence visitor Thursday. She came up from McMinnville to attend the funeral of Mrs. Allin.

Mr. Durreli, who fell injuring himself badly a few weeks ago, as reported in the Monitor, was taken to the hospital at Salem and is reported improving rapidly.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Having purchased the Drug Store of P. M. Kirkland, known as Kirkland's Pharmacy, I will be pleased to have the friends of Mr. Kirkland continue their patronage and I am also anxious to make new friends for myself and store and I assure both old and new that I will endeavor to merit your good will and patronage by giving you first quality goods and then Honest, Courteous treatment and Honest Prices.

VERNON BROWN, Ph. G.

Mr. Rowe is building a woodhouse joining his residence in the south part of town. In the wee small hours of the morning you can hear Harry hammering away as a sort of an alarm clock for the neighbors of his part of town. It is reported he starts the roosters up early in the morning.

Miss Maud Hiff, who is in charge of a Ceramic studio in Portland, after visiting ten days with her brother, Harry, at their fine country homesouth of town, returned home Monday.

At The M. E. Church
Sunday School at 10 A. M.
Preaching at 11: A. M.
Theme—A Hand Shaking Church.

Epworth League at 7: P. M.
Leader, Mrs. Skinner.
Topic: Self Renunciation.

Evening Service, 8: P. M.
Theme—An Unwelcome Caller.

Everybody is cordially welcomed at these services.
Good singing and special music by the choir.

Frank Sandifur,
Preacher.

There is no better land on Earth than that around Independence

There are no better towns in which to invest in real estate than Monmouth and Independence, the former the home of the State Normal school, the latter a railroad and river transportation, hop and dairy center. A live community bound to grow continually for years.

Hill and Harriman are both making Independence a railroad center, two electric lines will go to the coast, one to Salem, and one to Buena Vista besides the electrification of the main line together with the motors

I HAVE SOME GOOD LAND FOR SALE HERE

20 Acres about four miles from Independence, cleared and in cultivation, at $2000. Ten acres of bottom land $2200. 125 acres improved, well located, price on inquiry. 90 acres, a large part in fruit, fine building, all cultivated $8500. 162 acres all in cultivation $2000. 110 acres at $95 per acre, near town.

Many other farms, small acreage, hop ranches, and some very desirable city property cheap.

I HAVE BUYERS FOR THESE BARGAINS

Two to fifteen acres near town so as to secure modern conveniences $500 cash or trade $900 Portland property in on it. One or two good lots reasonable.

2 1-2 Acres, improved, in Corvallis, $3000, trade

R. J. TAYLOR CO.