Off for the Round Up, Hundred Thousand Club, Back to Texas, Special Trains, Etc.

J. L. Linn of Graybull, Wyoming, wrote President Fenton that he had just sold about 25 car loads of mutton sheep from his ranch, would be ready to leave for his home in Independence about the 15th of October. Mr. Linn while out here a short time ago, purchased the Tom Fennell property on third street. He has disposed of his personal property and the farm in Wyoming will be taken over by his son, who will stay at the old home place.

Mr. Anderson of Buena Vista came into town Monday with five teams loaded with hay, he unloaded it at the Independence Feed and Seed Company's warehouse. Mr. Anderson reported that he had raised on forty five acres of his land 100 tons of hay, wheat and timothy, mostly timothy this year.

Jack Rue, a former Independence boy, who is now in Corvallis came into town Monday. He has been in the employ of the saw mill company at Corvallis, and is enjoying an enforced absence owing to several broked ribs, etc.

H. C. Hannon and family will leave this week for Texas to visit with Mr. Hannon's parents and other relatives and friends. It has been twenty-nine years since Mr. Hannon has had the pleasure of a visit to his old home and this is his first trip back. He may be gone a month or more.

The public sale, at Van Walters, while not largely attended was a decided success in every respect, everything selling and bringing fair prices. About twenty people attended the sale.

Miss Florence Tate, one of the Monmouth Normal students, who finishes her course next February, spent Sunday in this city visiting with her aunt, Mrs. W. A. Leonard and family.

Mrs. Elsworth Van Wert and Mrs. Robert Sperling of McCook county, South Dakota, visited a day last week with the family of John Dickinson.

Two special trains have gone out of Independence in the last week taking home the hop pickers who have been in the Independence district this year.

Mrs. W. T. Hoffman took the morning train out of Independence for Salem Friday morning and will be absent for several days visiting

Elennor Zrilaskowski, while running, fell through a bridge at Greenwood north of town, breaking her leg. Dr. Butler reduced the fracture.

Mr. Johnson of the Pantorium had a few days outing last week.

Mrs. M. A. Carter of Wells was a visitor for several days this week and last with her daughter Mrs. R. J. Taylor.

An elderly Albany lady had her pockets picked while at the depot Monday morning of about ten dollars. She was just leaving for home and the light fingered party relieved her of most of her ready money.

Mr. Warren who formerly owned the ten acre farm between Independence and Monmouth, was a Monitor visitor Monday enroute to the mountains beyond Philomoth where he expects to get some big fish while gone. He makes his home in Marion county at the present time.

John K. Johnson is going to knock off for a few days and go to the Pendleton Round Up. John has been reading about the "Let her buck capers" and has decided he wants to be there to watch the game. While on the trip John will pose as a young bachelor. Pendleton papers will please copy.

Independence is to have new coal bunkers and coal for market purposes. The Spaulding Lumber Company is building a set of bins just south of the Independence Flooring Mills and will have several cars of coal brought in to fill them as soon as they get the building in shape to hold them.

A few days ago the Monitor stated that the largest load of hops which had been brought into town in one load was 29 bales. This statement was corrected by Ralph Morrison of the Horst Bros. Hop Co. who stated that they had brought in 31 in one load and also challenged any one to bring in 45 bales if they wanted to be beaten by themselves.

The Great West Lumber Company of Black Rock, Polk County, shipped out through Independence Monday two cars of bridge timber. The interesting part of the load was two big timbers that were extending most of the length of both cars. The editor, to satisfy his morbid curiosity measured these two timbers and one was 18 by 18 and 60 feet long, the other 24 by 24 and 60 feet long. They make the Roosevelt stick look like a nickle and are going to California where Johnson reigns supreme.

C. W. Butler commonly and generally known as Word, the insurance man, left Monday for Newark, on the Atlantic coast, where he meets with the 100,000 club of the New York Life Insurance Company. Word states there are but eight of the class with him in Oregon, and that in another year or two he expects to be one of the 200,000 club. He has written his insurance to this amount in a little over seven months which is a good record.

John Nelson, living about three miles east of Independence, brought in some fine samples of tobacco this week, grown on his farm. He has only a small tract, which he devotes to tobacco raising for his own use.

Harry Herzog left last week for Portland where he has entered an architects office, and will take up draughting and architectural work for about two years, after which he intends to enter the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mrs. Ellen Hunnicutt filed a complaint against Everett Carden September 21st, charging him with assault and battery committed on the person of Mr. Hunnicutt. Carden plead guilty and was fined $20 and costs.

A bad check artist passed $5 on C. M. Mc Reynolds about a week ago. The party passing the check gave the name of A. R. Wynne and hasn't been located up to date.

John Malony, who was charged with larceny of a suit of clothes from a picker at the hop yards of C. A. McLaughlin was arrested and sentenced Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hughes left Thursday for Salem to take the train to California after a weeks visit with Mrs. Stansberry.

Guy Walker is going to watch them buck at Pendleton. He is planning on having a fine time in the Eastern Oregon metropolis.

Mrs. Herzog was taken suddenly ill in Portland Sunday. Mr. Wm. Herzog was in Portland at the time.

Edith Holverson who formerly lived in Independence was married in Portland a few days ago.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson returned last week from a trip to Newport.
