The wind storm last night damaged telephone and electric light line in Falls City; reported that a bunk house blew down at Black Rock and injured the occupants.

Asa B. Robinson Jr., Democratic candidate for clerk, was in Falls City Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Robinson is creating a very favorable impression among all classes of voters.

The "Out to Win" candidates made a visit to Falls City last week, and besides having a regular campaign rally, they had a get-acquainted meeting. Peter Kurr, of this city, A. G. Rempel of Dallas, O. E. Dennis of Oakdale, J. R. Fawk of Rickreall and C. P. Gates of Dallas were among the candidates in attendance.

E. E. Krengle who formerly lived in this city, died at Twin Falls, Idaho, September 20, of typhoid fever. Mr. Krengle was well known to the older residents of the city and the family will have the sympathy of their many friends.

Lost—an overcoat between McKee's ranch and town Oct. 12th. Leave at this office or with owner, W. L. Bush.

Italy to Pay Indemnity.

Lausanne, Switzerland.—The Turco-Italian peace treaty awaiting ratification provides for Turkish recognition of Italian sovereignty in Tripoli, according to the Lausanne Gazette. The Italian government, it is said, is to pay an indemnity to Turkey and is also to recognize the religious authority of the Khalif over the Mussulmans of Tripoli.

The Telephone Register—McMinnville

There is more of interest at the city park since McMinnville has added two deer and another bear to her animal equipment. Companionship is properly manifest between the deer, but the feminine bear has not as yet become reconciled to her new quarters and company, and persists in sulking and attempted escape.

The Dallas Itemizer

Hon. N. L. Butler and Mrs. Butler were up from Portland for an over Sunday visit with their sons here.

On last Sunday afternoon Mrs. Tracy Staats presented the county treasurer with his first daughter, weighing 912 pounds, and he is so overjoyed that he has hardly been able to attend to business all week.

The Dallas Observer.

The new Carnegie Library at Dallas will soon be ready for occupancy.

Frank Collins, son of J. L. Collins, was married at Farmington, Missouri, Oct. 6th.

Corvallis Gazette

M. S. Woodcock, A. J. Johnson and Judge Moses, representing the Commercial Club, will go to Portland shortly to confer with President Strahorn in reference to the P. E. & E. street railway and interurban franchise. The city officials have ever been and are now willing to meet the company in a generous way, with proper consideration of the city's interests, but it is said there is some misapprehension on the part of the railroad people.

Roseburg Review

One hundred sixty-nine have entered Normal to date, of which there are '20' boys. Douglas county teachers are few in quantity but make up in quality. Misses Maud R. Hedrick and Mildred Francis, Drain; Miss Bell Sawyers, of Elkton, and Earl Parker, of Roseburg, form the Douglas County quartette. The faculty is as good a team as could be found any where, considered from any point of view, whether for good looks, ability to talk, or educational qualifications. None excepted. Miss Parrot our own representative in the faculty, and head of the department of English, was unable to attend to her classes several days last week, on account of a bad cold. During that time she was with her sister, Mrs. Casey at Dallas. We are glad to report that she is able to be on duty again.
