The L. S. Robbins Co. poultry plant is among the best in the northwest. They have in one house 500 laying hens at the present time and about 1500 pullets besides. Mr. Robbins markets his eggs in cartons and is at the present time receiving a fancy price as every egg he sells is sold under a guarantee to be strictly fresh. They are at the present time installing their five mammoth incubators which will have a capacity of 6000 eggs or 1200 eggs each.

The workmanship is being done by J. W. Gorr an expert in that line under the able supervision of Mr. Robbins, Mgr. Mr. Robbins main stock are white leghorns.

T. L. Acuff is going into the winter with about 100 white leghorns, he is an amateur and you will hear from him later.

N. Mitty has a fine flock of utility fowls mostly white leghorns, and under his personal supervision they are a paying proposition the year round.

Miss Eunace May Elkins To W. R. Bevens

A g est wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Elkins at Marion, Oregon on Nov. 14, at high noon when, in the presence of a few friends and relatives their daughter, Eunace May was united in marriage to W. R. Bevens, a well known young man of Buena Vista. Rev. C. O. Heath officiating. After a short honeymoon in Eastern Oregon, they will be at home to their friends at Buena Vista after Nov. 24.

Think it over. Twenty-one and thirty-one cents for Edison Records, call and play them over.

Craven & Moore.

A PROUD FATHER

Kirk Scrafford, who lives on Luckiamute was wildly telephoning to Independence Sunday morning, announcing that a new heir had been born to the Luckiamute Scrafford family. The boy arrived about 6:00 A. M. weighed nine pounds, is a fine looker, and mother and babe are reported doing nicely. Dr. R. T. McIntire officiated.

R. J. Taylor has three good hotels for sale or trade and will consider farm property on each.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS

In order to insure the publication of the correspondents the week mailed, please try to mail it to us so that we can have it for publication not later than Tuesday morning.

When special news come to your notice, mail it separately as soon as it may occur.

We would suggest that the Buena Vista Hop correspondent dwell more extensively on farm and home work north of Buena Vista so as not to have news conflict with the town correspondent.

That .98 acres at Luckiamute is worth inquiring about. House, barn, 18 acres cultivated. $50 an acre. Will trade for good town property. See R. J. Taylor.
