

Your Last Chance to take advantage of the Big

Bankrupt Sale

Thousands of Dollars' Worth of the markets' best merchandise are being slaughtered at prices that will bewilder the shrewdest and most economical buyers. There is only a short time left, so do not delay. If you need a good Easter Suit and wish to save from $7.00 to $15.00 NOW IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY.

WM. HERZOG

2 Doors South of Postoffice, INDEPENDENCE

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

W. E. Williams was in the city from Airlie Friday.

H. L. Bush of Hoskins spent Friday in this city.

M. A. Winn was a business visitor from Albany Friday.

Frank Kerlake was in from Suver Saturday on business.

W. R. Bevans of Buena Vista was in the city Friday on business.

John H. Moran was over from Monmouth Monday for a few hours.

J. H. Collins spent a few days in Portland during the week on business.

One of the finest lawns is that surrounding the Presbyterian church and manse.

Miss Grace Duvall was a morning passenger to Corvallis Monday to visit relatives.

A letter from Bert Marble says, send my paper to Naches, Wash., in place of North Yakima.

Mrs. T. R. Nunn, who has been visiting in Portland for the past week, returned home on Tuesday.

Hop men can get their machinery repaired at the Independence garage and machine shops.

Have your automobile tire filled with "essenkay" the new non-puncture tire filler at Edwards and Ball's.

Lester Neal and Mr. McCready left Tuesday for Rosslyn, Wash. where they will make their future home.

J. C. Talbott, formerly of Independence, has purchased the Dutch Creek saw mill, says the Falls City News.

Mrs. A. Nelson and Mrs. W. H. Walker made a trip to Philomoth and Corvallis visiting relatives and friends.

You are invited to the Easter services at Calvary Presbyterian church next Sunday evening, commencing at 7.30.

Maurice Butler, who is attending dental college at Portland, is expected home Saturday to remain over Easter.

J. E. Hubbard and wife made a ten days visit in Portland, Centralia and other points returning the first of the week.

Mrs. Harrison Brant, daughter of Wm. Addison and wife, came in Monday from Los Angeles to visit a few weeks with her parents.

Mrs. G. W. Conkey was a guest Monday at Corvallis with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Travis McDovitt, where she attended the meeting of the 500 club.

Roy B. McFadden spent Saturday and Sunday in Independence, visiting his mother Mrs. Sherman Hayes while here.

Mrs. Sherman Hayes was an afternoon passenger to McMinnville Monday where she visited with her parents, P. R. Burnett and wife.

Chet Long sold two Ford cars this week, one to C. W. Cooper, the other to Frank Turner. He ordered a third car for himself.

The editor of the Monitor read in a paper from Vale this week that a little boy has come to grace the home of Lela Herrow Oaks, a former Independence girl.

Art Baker, who had one eye put out while blasting with gun powder, a few years ago, had the eye taken out at Salem a few days ago. He is home again and feels much better.

Miss Jean Sharmon, graduate of Monmouth Normal and formerly teacher in Toledo school, has gone to Salem where she has accepted a position in the city schools, states the Newport News.

L. T. L. Easter services at the M.E. Church March 23rd at 3 P. M. All children are requested to be present and see what the workers have planned for them.

Mrs. S. H. Cuthbert,

S. Edwards was a business visitor to Portland, Tuesday morning, going down for the purpose of purchasing machinery for their garage and machine shops. A new power drill and power saw are among the new machinery to be secured.

The Rebekahs held a convention at Monmouth Friday and the state president was in attendance. It had been planned to have a crowd go over from this place but as the number to go was not sufficient to pay the expense asked for a special motor, no train ran from here.

Dave Hodge and wife, old time Independence people, were over from Salem Monday and attended the special meeting of the Rebekahs.

It will pay you to look over my samples first before ordering your spring suit or overcoat. All work guaranteed as to style and workmanship. Dietz, the tailor.

J. S. Bohannon has been appointed as deputy assessor, and Thursday made a trip to the American Bottom section interviewing the hop men and farmers.

Zed Mulkey, son of Dr. S. A. Mulkey, is now clerking in a large department store in California. He just recently graduated from his high school work.

Thursday morning fire broke out in Mr. Dawes residence in the west part of town from a defective flue. The alarm was turned in and the fire was put out with but little damage resulting.

Mrs. S. A. Mulkey and daughter Zelda were visiting in Independence and Monmouth during the week, spending the evening here Monday at the big meeting of the Rebekahs. Dr. Mulkey is now practicing dentistry at Sheridan.

To all members of Independence Lodge No. 212 Fraternal Union of America. By order of the Worthv President, Stella Calbreath you are requested to be present at the next regular meeting, Wednesday, March 26. A business of importance is to be brought before the meeting. Ella Hart, Secretary.

Regular services will be held at Calvary Presbyterian church next Sunday, both morning and evening. It being the annual Easter anniversary, the occasion will be observed by an appropriate Easter sermon by the pastor in the evening, with special music by the choir. The public are cordially invited to the services.

The faculty of the high schools gave a reception and banquet at the high school Thursday evening for the basket ball team and their lady friends. The entertainment was one of the nicest ever given in the city, the banquet being prepared through the domestic science department of the school.

Mrs. Harriet Osborne passed away at Greenwood, Thursday morning of la grippe. Deceased was staying with her son-in-law, J. T. Huntley, at whose home she died. She was about 70 years old. The funeral will be in Salem. Mrs. Osborne was well known in and about Independence, leaving many friends here.

At the annual congregational meeting of Calvary Presbyterian church held on the evening of March 13th, Dr. Dunsmore presented his resignation as pastor to take effect March 31st. This will complete exactly four years of the present pastorage. Although giving up the pastorage Dr. Dunsmore expects to remain in Independence, and will continue to occupy the manse at least until the end of the summer.

More than 500 samples of cloth to select from. Dietz, the tailor.

Overcoats or suits made to your measure for $15. by Dietz, the tailor.

Wm. Addison and A. L. Sperling returned Wednesday from a short trip north.

W. H. and S. B. Walker came in Wednesday from a short trip on the Oregon Electric.

We noticed this week the announcement of the marriage of the daughter of J. A. Vaness and wife.

Columbus Tethrow and wife of the Luckiamute were in Independence Thursday visiting and trading.

Babe Damon Eals came up from Salem Thursday, her sister Mrs. Grace Hussey accompanied her. They will stay here for several weeks.

An electrician from Albany, by the name of Martin while standing on the ground with the intention of mending a wire on the Oregon Electric received about 380 volts of electricity through his body and died in about seven minutes after the accident. The ground was wet where he was standing and thus the circuit was formed. It is thought his heart was weak as the voltage at that time was low. The accident happened at about 12:30 Wednesday afternoon.

An Easter program will be rendered at 10 o'clock instead of the regular Sunday School session. At 11 o'clock an Easter sermon. Theme—The miracle of miracles. Epworth League 6:20 P. M. Topic—The birth of a great hope. Leader, Mrs. Mary Smiley. Evening sermon 7:30 P. M. Theme, with what manner of body shall we come forth? Everyone should attend divine services somewhere on Easter Sunday. A most cordial welcome is extended to any and all who have not some other church home. Appropriate Easter music will be rendered. F. N. Sandifur, pastor

The remains of Robert Orr who died in Portland, Friday, March 15, were brought to Derry on Sunday morning for interment in the Burch Cemetery.

STANDING OF CANDIDATES MARCH 21

AT 2 P. M.

DISTRICT NUMBER ONE

Mrs. Elwood Hartman	Independence	212,315
Miss Grace Laliberte	"	139,460
Mrs. J. R. Simonton	"	126,730
Mrs. Homer Wood	"	85,485
Miss Nona Saunders	"	74,680
Lola Morgan	"	71,320
Mrs. D. O. Taylor	"	70,910
Mrs. Robt. Mills	"	59,875
Mrs. I. E. Hooker	"	56,480
Miss Grace Girard	"	52,860
Miss Gaye Buchanan	"	48,260
Retta Cuthbert	"	48,110
Miss Florence Sawyers	"	41,680
Miss Emma Montgomery	"	39,405
Miss Elsie Lamaster	"	34,890
Mrs. E. L. Baker	"	18,460
Vivian Whitaker	"	12,680
Mrs. Clint Moore	"	12,140
Lavilla Cooper	"	10,480
Vale Hiltbrand	"	9,505

DISTRICT NUMBER TWO

Tennie Chaney	Monmouth	83,260
Miss Francis Quisenberry	Monmouth	81,170
Tera Brown	Monmouth	78,960
Bertha Hamann	R. F. D. No. 2	60,480
Miss Francis Harrington	Monmouth	48,265
Nellie Keyt	Perrydale	46,380
Winnie Ballard	R. F. D. No. 2	38,760
Bernice Wells	Buena Vista	37,820
Edna Conn	Airlie	36,210
Etta Edgar	"	28,615
Mrs. J. O. Anderson	R. F. D. No. 1	27,680
Ruby Fream	Monmouth	24,710
Mrs. B. I. Ferguson	Eola	23,170
Lela Erickson	"	22,480
Leonilla Smith	Buena Vista	22,435
Miss Mable Johnston	Monmouth	20,715
Ina Fishback	Monmouth	18,365
Addie Riggs	Rickreall	17,635
Bertha Stapleton	R. F. D. No. 2	13,325
Mamie Atwater	Airlie	10,755
Flora Grace	Mountain View	10,360
Gladys Hatcher	Suver	10,340
Buella Smith	Rickreall	10,100
Katheryn Fox	"	9,230
Blanch Fawk	"	8,100
Mrs. L. L. Buckner	Wigrich Ranch	6,830

A brief but impressive service was conducted at the grave by Rev. Edgar Miles of Dallas. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Mr. Orr made Rickreall his home for several years and he leaves many sorrowing friends to mourn his demise.

SUBSCRIBERS REMEDY

Mrs. A. H. Cuthbert gives for publication a remedy for small pox which she testifies is a sure and rapid cure. It is sulphate of zinc, one grain, fox glove (digitatis) one grain and a half, tablespoon sugar, mix with two table spoonful of water. When thoroughly mixed add 4 ounces of water. Take one teaspoonful every hour. For children small doses.

WE ARE PREPARED

To repair Gasoline Engines for hop men and have the machinery on hand for repairing all kinds of farm tools and hop men's needs.

WE HAVE THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT

And the machinery necessary for fitting your auto tires with "essenkay," the tire fiber, which absolutely prevents punctures in automobile tires. We guarantee this filler to make your tires puncture proof.

AUTOMOBILE SUPPLIES HERE

We carry the very best grades of automobile tires and a complete line of automobile extras. We are prepared to fix up your machine, and besides knowing how we have the tools necessary to do the work.

CALL AND SEE US WHEN YOU NEED ANYTHING

The Independence Garage & Machine Shop

EDWARDS & BALL, Managers

INDEPENDENCE, OREGON