The Thoroughbred Stallion TONY FAUST

By Imported Sain-Dam, St. Rose
16 1-2 hands high, weight 1150, one of the grandest thoroughbreds this side of the Rocky Mountains

Winner of the California Cup at three years old—2 1-4 miles, in the month of April—defeating aged horse, Red Leaf, one of King Brothers' handicap mares. A one-half interest in this horse was sold to Sam Hildreth, a week before the cup race was run, for $15,000. He was taken to New York, where he was a winner, and was called around New York "The Pace Maker."

Tony Faust is now at the Independence Race Track and his headquarters will be at this place until he goes out of our possession.

Any one wishing to breed to this kind of a horse, call at the track, see him and get the particulars. Tony Faust has served mares in British Columbia this season and has also had high-class Kentucky saddle mares bred to him. He has served good standard bred mares this season and has served some of the best thoroughbred mares on the Pacific coast this season. This horse has nice manners and a good head.
