Items of Interest Gathered in and About Town

Allen T. Clark is getting samples and buying grain and clover seed. He states there will be a large crop of clover seed raised in Polk county this year. His ad appears in another column of the Monitor this week.

Bryan and Wilson are busy. Trip still sells real estate.

Root and Huntley returned the first of the week from The Dalles, bringing back one hundred sets of skates for the rink. They plan having skating every night during hop picking.

$1.00 buys a good pair of reading glasses at Kreamer's.

Mrs. M. E. Stansbury spent a very pleasant week with friends in and around Lewisville returning home Monday.

Chas. McAuley and George Graves packed up their tent and camping outfit and started Tuesday on their annual hunting trip.

160 acre property at Summer Lake, Oregon, with artesian water, to sell or trade for valley property. Price $3000. R. J. Taylor.

A. Nelson, E. P. Anthony, Allen T. Clark and Art Baker were Dallas visitors Tuesday as witnesses in a damage case in the circuit court.

2 acres in city limits, fruit trees, buildings, berries, etc. Price $1150. R. J. Taylor.

J. S. Cooper and J. G. McIntosh were called to Dallas Saturday as witnesses in a condemnation case in which the Valley and Siletz Railroad was plaintiff.

Abstracts of Title made promptly, carefully and at reasonable prices. Brown & Sibley, Attorneys and Abstractors, 610 Mill St. Dallas, Oregon.

Miss Ella Robinson, sister of Mrs. G. A. Hurly, made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Next Thursday, August 28, Doctor Lowe and Turner will be in the Beaver Hotel parlors. Don't fail to have them test your eyes. The use of glasses—correctly fitted glasses is the only remedy for errors of sight. If you need medicine glasses won't help you. It would be well to learn what you need. They can tell you what you need. Then many years' experience coupled with education in the best school make them safe persons for you to consult. When you patronize them one charge covers the entire cost of examination, glasses, frames. Remember day and date. Scores of Independence references.

Yes, we appreciate your news. If there is a birth, marriage, party, visitor or an accident in your home, we may not know it, and the only way for us to find out is for you to tell us. Others do. Why not you?

H. R. Reynolds, a carpenter working near Independence, Saturday was robbed of a check calling for $45, and several dollars in money, by some unknown party. Mr. Reynolds' overcoat was hanging in a building close to the one he was working on, and when he went to look for his check and money Saturday night, they were gone. The sheriff of the county has been notified, and the culprit will have a difficult time to pass the check here.—Salem Statesman.

Death to headaches—glasses fitted by Drs. Lowe and Turner.

Willis Hartman, who has been living at Vancouver where he was in the employ of the railroad shops there, returned to this city this week, having a ninety days lay off which he will enjoy in this section.

Mid summer millinery sale continues one week longer at Miss Lawrence's. Next door to Post office.

O. A. Floyd, the shoe man, moved his shop from his location on the east side of Main street to the K. of P. building, just south of the Independence National Bank.

LOST—Gold watch—name "Esther" on outside case and full name Esther Muhleman on inside. Finder telephone to owner or to this office. Reward offered. Lost between the Christian church and Mr. Hille's place Sunday evening.

L. H. Kring, representative of the Oregon Home Builders of Portland, came in Monday after a few days absence in Portland and other points.

There will be a cooked food sale Saturday afternoon at the Reeves Grocery Store served by the ladies of the Christian church.

Hart & DeArmond started Monday with their threshing outfit for the DeArmond farm where they had about 60 acres of clover seed to thresh; from here they will go to Wm. Addison's place to thresh his clover. They have several weeks threshing ahead and will handle clover seed exclusively.

Cooked food sale by the Christian ladies at Reeves Grocery Store, next Saturday.

Dr. Hewitt Sundayed with his family at the coast.

You and your children are safe if you wear Drs. Lowe and Turner's superior glasses—eye safe and price safe—they cost no more than the inferior kinds usually sold and you have the benefit of their skill, years of experience and professional guidance. Their glasses are guaranteed to give entire satisfaction whether they cost $2.00 or more. Consult them in Beaver Hotel, Thursday, Aug. 28. Call in forenoon if possible and avoid the afternoon rush. Dozens of Polk county references.

Mrs. Abby Travis is visiting her son and family in Portland for a few weeks.

Visiting cards—none better than those printed by the Monitor.

On Friday Mrs. Ingram served icecream and cake to her Sunday School class. Those of the class who were "enjoying" the whooping cough were left at Mrs. Fuller's and all report a fine time.

Mrs. C. C. Wilson and little daughter who have been spending several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Baker, left for her home in Salem, Thursday.

The Monitor prints hop checks. Leave your order now.

Dr. Foster of Corvallis was in our city Sunday on professional business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan and daughter of Suver were the guests of Mrs. E. L. Baker last Sunday.

Mrs. Lester Neal and Mrs. H. Ingram went to Bay View Saturday returning Monday eve and report a lovely trip.

Miss Beulah Howard is spending the week at Hopville, the guest of Mrs. Dave Haley.

Hop tickets printed at the Monitor office.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Clark spent the past week at Idlebrook.

The many friends of Howard Heath will be pleased to learn that he is able to be about, after his recent severe illness.

Fred Howard and family Sundayed at John Compton's in American Bottom.

E. L. Baker is looking after his farming interests in Suver this week.

Durrell Davis has been trying his hand as boss carpenter, thus putting to practice some of the technical knowledge he has been gaining at the O. A. C. He has been helping build a barn for his father.

Some people have erroneously reported that the ladies of the Christian church were going to discontinue giving their Saturday cooked food sales. This is erroneous. Saturday, August 23, will be their last sale, until after the hop picking season, and they will again be regular, commencing some time in October.

"Chic" Collins returned home for a few weeks visit, after having disposed of his drug business in California. He may stay several months while here this time.

WANTED, Spencer Carbine. Inquire at this office.

W. H. Patterson of the big Eola hop and poultry ranch was an Independence visitor Saturday. The Monitor had a pleasant visit from Mr. Patterson and in a short interview was told their hops were looking fine and that everything on the ranch was progressing nicely.

WANTED, Spencer Carbine. Inquire at this office.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Ketchum and family have been having a several weeks vacation at the coast.

Ted Irvine has secured the privilege of the Walker Bros. hop yard store and is making arrangements to put in a good stock for the hop pickers.

From reliable sources we're informed that Pearl Alexander wore a bright colored hat on his outing trip and was mistaken for a rhododendrum by a bevy of humming birds that came pouncing down around him.

F. E. Ryder and family and Mrs. J. S. Moore were over Sunday visitors at Tillamook, leaving here Saturday in their auto.

The Misses Ivy and Florence Burton, Mrs. M. Merwin, and Chet Henkle returned the first of the week from Tillamook where they had a short sea shore outing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Moore and Mr. Brooks left Sunday for LaFayette to get benefit of the sulphur springs at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud J. Hubbard came up from Portland, Saturday remaining over Sunday, visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hubbard.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Henkle returned from their summer outing at Newport this week and report an interesting chicken story. On February 14 they had eight chickens to hatch out—the fowl being a cross between the Orpington and white Leghorn. They got their first egg when the chickens were 5 months old, and since that date these chickens have laid 123 eggs. The chickens were taken to the coast with Mr. and Mrs. Henkle on their trip.

Ed Wallace who is now practicing law in New York City, arrived in Independence Tuesday from a trip across the continent, coming by the way of Los Angeles,

Oakland and San Francisco. He had expected to remain in Independence several days, but a death message awaited him here on his arrival—his grandmother having died in New York the day before he reached here and so he left Wednesday for New York to be present at her funeral.

Miss Elva Taylor arrived in Independence Wednesday for a two weeks vacation, visiting her parents.

This was the decision of the democratic caucus of the senate which adopted a resolution declaring "that congress should proceed to consider and determine legislation concerning currency and banking immediately following the passage of the pending tariff bill."
