

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Elkins of Albany are visiting friends and relatives in the city.

Mrs. F. H. Drexler entertained the Bridge Club on Friday afternoon of last week.

Miss Kora Browne visited in Lebanon the latter part of last week.

St. Patrick's dance by the orchestra, Tuesday night, March 17.

Clarence Ireland of Nimrod was in town several days this week.

Lymon Damon was in Portland on business several days of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, former proprietors of the Gail in Dallas are visiting Mrs. Thompson's brother, Moss Walker this week.

Plenty of Lime and Sulphur Solution at Williams Drug Co.

Mrs. Guy Walker was a Corvallis visitor the last of the week.

The Misses Jean and Beth Ketchum of O. A. C. visited their parents here over Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Butler were Portland visitors over Sunday. They report Will Walker improving rapidly.

For healthy fruit trees use one part Dependable Lime & Sulphur Solution to ten parts water. Williams Drug Co.

Get your visiting cards and business cards printed at the Monitor office where you get satisfactory service.

Mr. Gromewold and Mr. Hann who recently purchased a large acreage of land west of Monmouth were in the city on business Monday. They state they are getting their land well under cultivation and will have a fine piece of property in a short time.

H. Wunder made the editor of the Monitor a visit the first of the week, and reports everything in first class shape in the neighborhood west of Monmouth.

Fred Wiltshire left Tuesday morning for his farm home near Cottage Grove. His wife and family went a day ahead.

Lieutenant Geo. Parker of Vancouver was a guest of J. S. Cooper's family over Sunday.

J. S. Cooper returned from Portland Saturday evening.

STATE NEWS INDUSTRIALLY

The Wilbur woolen mills at

Stayton will be enlarged and a warehouse and mattress factory added.

The Everfresh Food Products Co. at Sutherlin will enlarge its plant to double capacity.

The Rainier Mineral soap factory at St. Helens has made arrangements to operate this year, starting this month.

The Boeker basket factory at Hillsboro will be enlarged and add a line of wicker chairs.

Kimball cultivators manufactured at The Dallas are shipped east by the carload.

The people of Turner voted to install a supply of pure spring water.

The striking operatives in shingle mills in Oregon and Washington are being replaced by non-union men.

The state and federal commissioners on development of The Dallas water power project visited the grounds the past week to select a site.

The Eugene Excelsior plant will double its plant and in a new fire proof building hopes to have a payroll of $10,000 within a year.

There is general sentiment growing that Oregon has gone too far in progressive legislation that handicaps industries.

Lane county manufacturers meet Tuesday, March 10th, to consider a state industrial convention and county exhibit.

A $20,000 office building will be erected at Baker City for Louis Sommers of Portland.

The Swedish Lutheran church of Portland will erect a hospital.

The Eugene Iron Works is planning to begin the manufacture of a portable range for mountain and military purposes.

O. L. Clark of Marshfield will erect a three story apartment 50 by 100 feet.

Among new brick buildings for 1914 are a school house at Silverton and a city hall at Woodburn.

Corvallis Odd Fellows plan the erection of a three story temple.

Molalla is to have a $25,000 electric power plant.

Two concrete business buildings are going to be built at once in Eugene.

Veatch Brothers of Cottage Grove will erect a new store building.

The Attorney General sustains the injunction suit of the Employers Association against running the state printing office as a closed shop, but holds the state can pay the Union scale of wages.

All subcontractors on the Willamette Pacific are preparing to start work at once.

Woolen manufacturers at Cologne, Germany, are seeking to contract for the Oregon grown teasel and that industry is reviving.

Catholic people at La Grande are planning a $30,000 cathedral.

The Milton box factory is being enlarged to 500,000 capacity.

The new Southern Pacific bridge over Coos Bay will cost $800,000.

A logging company at Knappa will extend its railroad three miles.

Eugene Fruit Growers Association has orders for $10,000 of their 1914 product.

West Linn, Clackamas county, will erect a $15,000 city hall.

North Bend school board is

The Public Expects It The Public Gets It

The public has a perfect right to expect polite attention at our store, and that is exactly what the public gets

Don't hesitate to come in. It makes no difference even if you only want to inquire the name of a street, we are glad to give assistance to you

The public expects to get the 'purest and best drugs at' our store, never are they disappointed.

On account of our exceptionally large stock the public expects to find things here which are not obtainable elsewhere; in this too, we cause no disappointment.

Our stock is always complete with everything to be found in a first-class drug store.

THE RED CROSS PHARMACY

V. J. BROWN, Propr., Independence, Oregon

planning a new high school.

Sherwood is to have a $10,000 hotel and bank building.

Springfield and Hood River have stock subscribed for canneries.

DRIVING CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

The Independence Driving Club at their annual election chose officers for the ensuing year as follows:

P. M. Kirkland, President; J. S. Cooper, Jr., Secretary; R. R. DeArmond, Treasurer; W. L. Bice, Oscar Dixon and Ross H. Nelson, Board of Directors.

A race meet will be held on their track this year again and a number of fine horses have already been assured for the races.

Printing that pleases at the Monitor office. We can order what you want.

PATENTS

Trade marks and copyrights secured for you. Best method, cheapest and promptest. For FREE SEARCH and report on patentability. Send references.

PATENTS BUILD FORTUNES. For proof, clip free booklet full of facts, what to invent and how to succeed. Write today.

D. SWIFT & CO.

PATENT LAWYERS,
303 Seventh St., Washington, D. C.

THE INDEPENDENCE NATIONAL BANK

Established - - - - - 1889

A Successful Business Career of Twenty Three Years

INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

H. Hirschberg, Pres. D. W. Sears, V. P.
R. R. DeArmond, Cashier
W. H. Walker, B. F. Smith, O. D. Butler

The Best Is Good Enough and You get only the best when you buy meat from us

A new refrigerating plant keeps the meat cool and fresh, and when you once buy from us you buy again, because our meats give satisfaction.

We have just added new rendering vats and sausage machinery thus being able to supply you with lard and sausage, at all times.

We have our own smoke houses and give you country cured hams and bacon.

NELSON'S MARKET

C Street, Independence, Ore.