SO THE PEOPLE MAY KNOW

Great things happened in the Monitor office last week. G. A. Hurley sold a third interest to Clyde T. Ecker, recently of Denver, Colo., a writer of experience and ability, and another third to George O. Dodge, a newspaper man of much worth, who came to Oregon about a year ago from Wisconsin.

Mr. Hurley will remain actively in the business and the three will commence the publication of the best newspaper that Independence ever had; as a matter of fact it will be better than any two newspapers Independence ever had.

From this very issue the Monitor is to be greatly improved. It will be bigger, better and more pleasing. We also have several surprises in store which will be heralded at the proper time.

Independence deserves just such a newspaper as we are going to publish and it is going to be appreciated too. Without any announcement being made and relying only in what they had heard, many have called and extended congratulations and well wishes. Quite a number of new subscribers have been added to the list also. Take it from us the circulation of the Monitor will be the greatest growing thing in the town and there are some mighty good growers in Independence right now.

Independence is going to march forward at a good lively pace from now on and the Monitor will keep right up in front and be the leading factor in tooting for the good old town. As the official tooter it will make you, Mr. and Mrs. Everybody, just that much better off.

The business man who wants your trade, has something to sell you or something to tell you, will have to place his ad in the Monitor so as to get the best results and reach all of you. This will help us and we are willing to divide profits with you. That is, the more patronage we get will enable us to give you a better paper and better service.

Talking of better service leads us to say that with the force we now have, you will get not only better service but quicker service. Our job department is already reporting an increase of business but can handle considerable more. From the order book to the finished product is a very short distance now and it is good and guaranteed work too.

And here is one thing that the Monitor desires that you do. We earnestly invite you to come in very, very often and tell us about yourself, family or neighbors. It will be news to others and that's what we are looking for all the time. Phone us if you wish. We will not publish anonymous communications.

We almost forgot to say that you will enjoy the writings of Virginia Southern. She not only covers all social happenings but often beats us men reporters out of a "write-up."

So we thank you very much for reading this announcement and you have the privilege of telling what the Monitor is going to do and be to everybody you know.

We are for you all the time and hope you will be for us at least more than most of the time.

THE PILL BOX

WHO CAN TELL?

Did Boss Woodrow Wilson of the U. S. A. take the job, (wise old head), so his old maid girls could find them men, who would fall for the honor of a White House wed.

We absolutely refuse to get excited about this canal toll controversy. We cannot help thinking that the fruit trees will keep on blooming, the frogs keep on croaking, and the hops keep on hopping whether Yanks pay toll or Yanks do not.

LETS SWAP THE CANNERY FOR THE COURTHOUSE

Dallas is still without a cannery—the one thing she needs most to build up this section.—Itemizer.

And Independence having a cannery she apparently has no use for, an even swap for the courthouse will be pleasingly considered.

A very pretty girl came into this office one day last week and attempted to kiss Mr. Hurley "goodbye" we suppose. Now our wife hangs around all the time for fear that some pretty girl will kiss us "hello." The better half knowing us so well will take no chances.

LIBEL SUIT IN EMBRYO

We forgot that Mrs. Hurley is a constant and valued reader of the Monitor.

"T. R. Will Run Again." We see no reason why he shouldn't. He has to have some excitement when he isn't hunting for hippopotamuses and rhinoceroses.

EXTRA! EXTRA! AN EDITOR GETS SOMETHING TO EAT!

The editor hereof dined with Mr. and Mrs. Singleton, Mrs. J. P. Newkirk and Miss Hammond at the Singleton residence yesterday.—Falls City News.

The Monitor now has more owners than most people have hay but no hired men or devils to pay.

GIRL STRIKES DUDE

A peach of a girl in Corvallis, Showing much anger and malice, Hit in the head,

A dude who said:

"Let's see, you live at Dallas?"

Lawyer Jerome asks forty-four thousand dollars for trying to chase Harry Crazy Thaw back to the asylum. Now if you were the state of New York, would you pay it?

Neither would we.
