THE SOCIAL WORLD

BY VIRGINIA SOUTHERN

Contributions to this Department Gladly Received.

Oh, that we two were Maying,
Down the stream of the soft spring breeze,
Like children with violets playing,
In the shade of the whispering trees.
Charles Kingsley.

The past week brought forth lovers of various amusements and the entire town seemed all astir with something. If the "movie" man had been on C street with his camera last Friday afternoon he might have landed a good film for "The man with the hoe" was not a man at all but a woman and not only one woman but a half dozen women.

Dorothy Cooper, of Independence, fiancée of Lieutenant Parker, was entertained at the post on Wednesday with Mrs. Ireland and Katherine Therkelsen, of Portland, by Mrs. Ruth-erford Hartz.

Needle Craft Club

A most delightful gathering of last week was at the home of Mrs. Cyrus Purvine when she entertained the members of the Needle Craft Club Thursday afternoon. The hours were spent in playing the needle and in social converse after which the hostess served a splendid luncheon.

Wednesday Afternoon Club

Mrs. O. A. Kreamer was hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Club last week. Her pretty home on Fifth street was further enhanced by a profusion of spring flowers. The members of this club devote their hours to dainty needle work. Among the assemblage of ladies there was almost a draw as to which they could use most dextrously, their needles or tongues. The afternoon passed most pleasantly and to top off the pleasure, the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Gretchen, served a most delicious two course luncheon, favoring each guest with a pink rose. The guests aside from the members that were present were: Mesdames Richardson, Girard, Hayes, Hooper, and Irvine.

Civic Improvement Club

The members of the C. I. C. Club have been combining their enthusiastic plans for beautifying with some real substantial features of last week, for after "Good Roads Day," the men, all tired out, returned to the parlors of the M. E. church, where the C. I. C. ladies were in waiting with a mirthful greeting and a splendid repast. Very soon the men were practising the poetry of motion from the hand to the mouth and the way they consumed the food was very gratifying to the ladies.

Last Saturday afternoon found a good attendance at their regular business meeting. Nothing of special importance was brought before the house with the exception that the committee on beautifying the City Park was authorized to confer with the city council in regard to the lighting system for the park.

THE WHY OF THE HOBBLE SKIRT
It was a rule among the tribes of Indians that made up the "Six Nations" for a young brave, when convinced that a certain mahala was the one he wanted, to arm himself with a big stick, take after that mahala and if he overtook her give her a tap behind the right ear with the stick. This constituted the marriage ceremony. The speed of the squaw was regulated by her feelings toward the brave. If fond of him the chase was a short one; so the length of the race was in truth the measure of the mahala's affections for her pursuer. Either through heredity or an instinct that obsessed her lady who evolved the latest fashion for young ladies' dresses must have been influenced. With the skirts so close about the ankles, she must have reasoned that no long race would be possible, and maybe that is the way she wanted it. Some one on her trail may have gotten cold feet.—Goodwin Weekly.

NEW MUSICAL CLUB ORGANIZED

Another addition has been made to the labyrinth of clubs in the city. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. J. G. McIntosh called together the representative vocal talent of Independence, and completed the organization of a club to be known as the Wednesday Music Club. The following officers were elected: Mrs. J. G. McIntosh, accompanist; Miss Gretchen Kreamer, assistant accompanist; Mrs. E. E. Paddock, secretary; Miss Gladys Irvine, treasurer; Mrs. Conkey, director. This is a splendid step to culture and with such voices as the charter members and those who have been asked to swell the membership have. The public will wait with great anxiety to hear the first efforts of the newly organized club, the entire chorus will consist of about twenty-five voices. The following ladies were present at the initial meeting at the home of Mrs. McIntosh: Mesdames Kreamer, Richardson, Paddock, Will Craven, Gillispie, Hibbs, Sandifur, Hayes, Misses Gladys Irvine, Eva Shaffer and Vera McCaulay.

MRS. WILTSE "GIVEN FAREWELL"

Mrs. Wiltse, who has arrangements completed to leave for Canada where she will join her husband in his new location, was the inspiration for a going away party last Wednesday evening, given by the members of the W. C. T. U. at the Methodist church. Mrs. Wiltse has been an enthusiastic worker and her going away is a source of regret to a large circle of friends. A course luncheon of cream and cake was served and the company lingered long at the table, each expressing many parting good wishes to the guest of honor.

BEN C. CROW, Pastor.

"Great Ideals of Character" will be the subject of Mr. Crow's sermon at the Christian church this Sunday morning. The choir will also render special music. In the evening an opening to the evangelistic song service, the choir will render another one of the Easter anthems, which is Escham's "Death is Swallowed up in Victory." They will also render "Present Your Bodies a Living Sacrifice," by Addison Andrews, just preceding the sermon. The usual hymn service will also be sung. The subject for the evening discourse is, "The Authority of Jesus Christ."

Our services were well attended again last Sunday and the choir rendered the best music since the Easter program at the evening service. We cordially invite you to meet with us.
The regular Cooked Food Sale by the ladies of the Christian church will be held this Saturday at Reeves' grocery store. Go early and avoid the rush.

JUDGE GRANT B. DIMICK

Republican Candidate For Governor of Oregon

To the Legal Voters of Oregon:

I have filed my declaration with the Secretary of State as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, and as the law limits the expenditure of each candidate for this office to 15 per cent of one year's salary, I am compelled in order to abide by the spirit and letter of the law to avoid making an expensive campaign and in order to reach the voters whom I will not be able to meet in person I here-with submit through the press for your consideration the following:

First—I stand for a strict and rigid enforcement of every criminal statute.

Second—I favor equitable labor laws giving to the laborer just consideration.

Third—I am opposed to high and extravagant legislative appropriations and the constant creation of salaried boards and commissions which carry with them an army of employees to be paid by the taxpayers of the state.

Fourth—I stand for the constant improvement of our public school system free from extravagance, and should the Supreme Court of the United States declare a forfeiture of the lands now held by the Oregon & California Railroad Company, then and in that event I favor urging Congress to place those lands at the disposal of the irreducible state school fund of Oregon.

Fifth—I stand for the permanent improvement of the public roads from the market centers into the agricultural districts, the same to be built under skilled management, so as to get full value for the money expended.

Sixth—I favor a constitutional amendment allowing the Governor to veto any one or more items in any appropriation measure without vetoing the entire measure.

High tax levies are usually the result of excessive appropriations and experimental legislation, and the most effective cure for that abuse is to be more careful in the selection of your legislative members.

I was born in Marion County, Oregon March 4, 1869, and was educated in the public schools, McMinnville College and the State Normal School at Monmouth, Oregon; admitted to the bar by the Supreme Court in 1895; served five terms as Mayor of Oregon City, three terms as Deputy District Attorney; elected Presidential Elector on the Republican ticket in 1904; and County Judge of Clackamas County in 1906. I am deeply interested in agriculture, own and manage the Daniel Stock Farm at Hubbard, Oregon, and publish the Western Stock Journal at Oregon City.

I respectfully submit my candidacy to the consideration of the Republican voters of Oregon.

JONES FOR CONGRESS

To the Electors of the Congressional District:

I am a candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket at the primary election to be held May 15th. Briefly, first I stand for the improvement of our rivers and harbors. For the enactment of new or the amending of the present homestead laws to cut out the cultivation clause, and make it possible for the wilds of Oregon to be settled.

For the surveying and classifying of the 16,000,000 acres of land in our Forest Reserves, that the agricultural and grazing land may be opened to settlement. For free tolls on American bottoms. For government aid for good roads. For just and liberal compensation for all labor, and for national suffrage for women.

If the Government shall finally win the suit now pending against the Oregon & California Railroad Company, I will do all in my power to keep these lands from being placed in the forest reserves, and will work to the end that the grazing and agricultural lands therein be opened to settlement under the homestead laws.

BEN JONES.
