It ought to be arranged so the candidates could work some on the roads.

Of the bunch of candidates for attorney general, George M. Brown, of Roseburg, is far the best.

We have not yet found out the name of the river that General Funston will swim in Vera Cruz.

The republican party in Oregon is showing symptoms of coming back.—Falls City News. Where's it been?

If Bryan or any other man thinks he can prevent a war with Mexico, let him try it but keep the powder dry.

More democrats have registered in Oregon this year than ever before. Too many in fact for each to get a post-office.

The democrats of Colorado ought to be kicked out of office and kept out for ten years for electing Elias M. Ammons governor.

A lot of newspapers who were yelling for war for partisan purposes had to reverse rather quickly but they accomplished the feat.

We have been expecting Huerta to give orders for the seizure of Trinidad and Boulder, Colorado, in the interests of peace and the protection of Mexican citizens.

We must not permit a Dallas correspondent of the Portland dailies to destroy our prospective fruit crop even if he gets paid at the rate of four dollars a column for doing it.

Poindester of Washington, the lone progressive U. S. Senator, has espoused the cause of Doc Cook, the Arctic explorer. Maybe, Doc wants to run for president on the progressive ticket.

The three South American peacemakers ought to be experienced hands at settling the Mexican fracas. There has been 2,345,678 rebellions and revolutions in South America within the last fifty years.

Rockefeller owns the mines in the Colorado strike district and when wealth is used to the detriment of humanity as it is in this particular case, confiscation is the only remedy and should be adopted.

The lawyers who are running for governor for advertising purposes are establishing a bad precedent. What if the dentists, doctors, veterinary surgeons, mediums and hypnotists should conclude to do the same.

A magazine has been started in the east for the protection of flies. If this freak isn't swatted before its second issue, some other insane person will bob up a publication in defense of the devil and allege that he ought to be encouraged.

Fred Hollister, who is a clean and able man, will undoubtedly be the democratic candidate for congress and if Mr Hawley is renominated, Mr. Hollister will no doubt commence to arrange his business affairs in anticipation of spending most of his time in Washington after next March.

THE PILL BOX

THE PESKY CANDIDATES

Candidates are here and there, men from every party, he comes a smiling round, appearing very smart, shakes your hand like he's known you all his life, and since women vote, wants to meet your wife; says he will go see her, after he's talked with Bill, and you have to hike for home for fear the darn cuss will.

For a preacher, Dr. Dunsmore is doing real well as a politician and looks like a winner. While it is said that politics and religion don't mix, if more of the spirit of religion was injected into politics and less politics and divisions into the churches, both would be better off.

ALAS! POOR MAN

A Methodist preacher was once elected to office, the job was easy pickin', but after he drew his first month's pay, he died "a eatin'" chicken.

Yesterday's White House wedding took place in the blue room, and if we remember rightly the first one occurred in the red room. Now when the other gets married if she uses the white room, the three degrees of the star spangled banner will be exemplified.

JUNE BRIDES ABOUT RIPE

June brides will soon be here, toggled swell for the hitchin', then after a honeymoony sugary oo, you'll find her in the kitchen.

L. W. W.s have surrounded John D. Rockefeller's house in New York. Jack ought to throw all his money away and be happy.

WHAT A KISS WILL DO

There was a girl in Airlie Who was cross, crabbed and snarly Till an Independence boy kissed her (It wasn't his sister) Then she was cured entirely.

Would you trade jobs with Huerta?

Neither would we.
