FLUKE & JOHNSON, Distributers

FROM THE MONMOUTH HERALD
The library will be ready for circulation about the first of next month. Members of the Christian church are the force behind the library movement.

V. O. Boots, insurance agent, was plying his profession for a couple of days down the valley this week and brought back the information that the business pulse was showing signs of renewed vitality. He not only did a good business himself but different men he came in touch with claimed that money matters were loosening up and that prospects were brightening.

Thomas Strain and son, Walter, have sold their interest in the Star Theater to J. C. O'Rielly of Salem, who takes charge at once.

Sunny Slope
