

DIG SURPRISE TO MANY IN THIS TOWN

Local people are surprised at the QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler's-ka, the German remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. This simple remedy draws off such a surprising amount of old foul matter from the body that A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY. It is the best remedy we have ever sold.

ing Nile green bolero. Decorations were in charming harmony with the handsomely furnished home, which is one of the prettiest and most modern in the city.

The entire lower suite was converted into card room and filled with merry players during the card season which was followed by a vocal solo, "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling," rendered by Mrs. E. E. Paddock. She was insistently applauded and responded with "Sunshine," by Carrie Jacobs Bond.

At tea time, the guests, about 60 in number, were seated at daintily set small tables for a most appetizing and very choice luncheon which concluded an event that leaves many delightful memories.

LADIES' CIRCLE

The Ladies' Circle of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Quasdorf last Thursday afternoon and enjoyed a very pleasant and profitable session, concluding with light refreshments.

BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. P. H. Drexler pleasantly entertained her Bridge Club last Tuesday afternoon.

Several hands of auction were played, followed with a delicious luncheon.

Besides the club members, Mrs. E. E. Paddock and Miss Thomas, from Jefferson, were invited.

THE SOCIAL WORLD
BY VIRGINIA SOUTHERN

"When daisies pied, and violets blue
And lady-smocks all silver white,
And cuckoo buds of yellow hue,
Do paint the meadows with delight."
Shakespeare.

Then it is that Spring is with us, and well we know it is coming and the joy of anticipation reigns supreme.

Hiking parties are seen returning with branches of pussy willow, buds of various kinds are swelling and already some have reached the bursting point, and coming rose petals are almost impatient to scatter their fragrance over the gardens.

The past week brought forth a deluge of valentine events both large and small, which were keenly enjoyed, all club hostesses observing the delightful season in their pretty decorations, etc.

The near approach of Washington's birthday holds many interesting features, and the flower of "Knighthood" is expected to be full blown before this week end or early the coming week.

SUCCESSFUL ARRIVAL
"The Podunk Limited" scheduled to arrive at the Independence Opera House, Friday evening, Feb. 12, has come and gone, leaving behind many laughs and comical scenes as a result of the extravagant costumes, etc.—in fact all that was attempted, an evening of superb fun—was more than realized. People thronged to the "Station" and many turned away at the door finding that seats were unavailable.

The committee having charge included Mesdames Guy Knapp, E. E. Paddock and Sara Young. Mrs. Knapp assuming direct management, and to her untiring efforts the success of the evening is largely due.

Readers in general will be interested to know that nearly $50 was cleared and turned over to the Civic League, the beneficiary.

This being the first of a series of entertainments, which will embrace a variety of styles and be given for the same cause, others will eagerly be watched for.

ELABORATE VALENTINE 500

With streamers, trellices and festoons of red hearts, Kewpies and Cupids delightfully betokening the pretty Valentine season, and clusters of Spring cut flowers and masses of potted palms and delicate fernery to gently suggest the merging of Winter into Spring, the setting for the smartest event in Independence social world for some time, was formed when Mesdames C. A. McLaughlin, Sara Young, J. N. Jones and L. Smith entertained at a Valentine 500 at the handsome C. A. McLaughlin home, Thursday afternoon of last week. The afternoon being ideal brought out many elaborate dresses, making a handsomely gowned assemblage.

The hostesses too received their guests in smart frocks. Mrs. McLaughlin wore an adaptation of new brown pompadour silk adorned with ecru trimmings. Mrs. Young received in a black charmeuse, with a perky flare skirt and empire belt, the bodice being of pastel yellow tulle. Mrs. Jones appeared in a smart old-rose crepe meteor frock, embellished with roses and loops of velvet ribbons, while Mrs. Smith wore a filmy embroidery gown, tier effect skirt, the costume being completed with a becoming

Go to Church Because:

It May Aid In the Movement to Establish Peace In Europe -- --

HUNDREDS of thousands of people heeded the GO TO CHURCH slogan on Sunday, Oct. 4, when they filled the houses of God throughout the country and prayed for the peace of Europe. The proclamation of President Wilson was one of the most powerful and popular ever written by any president.

IN TIMES OF SORROW, IN TIMES OF GREAT MENTAL SUFFERING, IN TIMES OF GREAT JOY AND THANKSGIVING, OUR THOUGHTS TURN TO THE ALMIGHTY. WE FORGET HIM UNTIL THEN. WE ARE STRANGERS TO HIS HOUSE UNTIL SOME POWERFUL EMOTION SWAYS US. ONE DOESN'T HAVE TO BE TOLD THAT THIS IS WRONG. IT WOULD SEEM ENTIRELY JUST THAT GOD IN HIS ANGER AT OUR NEGLECT OF HIM SHOULD REMAIN DEAF TO OUR APPEALS. WE IGNORE HIM UNTIL WE ARE IN TROUBLE. THEN WE EXPECT HIM IMMEDIATELY TO COME TO OUR ASSISTANCE. IF WE EXPECT GOOD FORTUNE IN THIS WORLD AND THE WORLD TO COME WE MUST GO TO CHURCH. NOT SPASMODICALLY OR IN TIMES OF STRESS AND SORROW, BUT CONSISTENTLY.

There is no denying that the proclamation of President Wilson was all powerful in aiding the GO TO CHURCH movement throughout the land. It was a DISTINCT BLOW TO THE NONBELIEVERS AND SNEERERS AT RELIGION.

THERE ARE ADDED REASONS WHY THE PEOPLE OF THIS MAGNIFICENT COUNTRY SHOULD GO TO CHURCH. THIS LAND HAS BEEN PARTICULARLY FAVORED BY THE ALMIGHTY. WAR RACKED EUROPE WILL LOOK TO THIS SPLENDID COUNTRY OF OURS TO HELP IT BRING ABOUT A SETTLEMENT OF THE AWFUL STRIFE. EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD WHO WENT TO CHURCH ON SUNDAY, OCT. 4, TO PRAY FOR PEACE SHOULD GO TO CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY. GO TO CHURCH yourself. GET OTHERS TO GO.

WHERE TO GO

METHODIST
W. C. STEWART, Pastor.
The Methodist Episcopal church will hold its services next Sunday as follows:
Morning, 10 a. m.—Sunday School. Great day last Sunday but we must make it better next Sunday. 11 a. m. Mr. Baker of Portland, Asst. Supt. of the Anti-Saloon League, will preach.
