THE SOCIAL WORLD BY VIRGINIA SOUTHERN

JOLLY SURPRISE

The biggest word in Independence is sometimes surprised, tho' not often—he is usually the one to perpetrate the surprises on his neighbor; however, Monday night was an exception to the accustomed rule, for when Mr. and Mrs. Word Butler had returned from the Whist Club Monday evening and had quietly rehearsed the evening's pleasure, and then were safely held in the arms of Orpheus—there came a gentle(?) tapping at their door, so gentle that Mrs. Butler thought it was a slight Frisco quake—then weird music, the kind that makes the whole world kin, began and well as aroused couple knew that something stealthy had been going on during the whist game, and while the tables had not talked the ever alert Word had failed to read the numerous telepaths that had been passing and for once his friends had indeed surprised him—for the secret of Mr. and Mrs. Butler's 21st anniversary had been revealed and their friends were there to make merry with them in the wee small hours of the morning.

Not the least chagrined the couple came forth from their boudoir and smiled, meekly taking all that was meted out to them.

"CHILDREN AGAIN"

"Make me a child again just for to-night."

This thrilling sensation was, as it were, realized by the Eastern Star members Tuesday night when their meeting was converted into a laughable "Deestriet Skule."

The girls of the school were "togged" in rainbow colored pinafores, displaying cunning little lace frilled "pantalets", Mrs. J. E. Hubbard probably wearing the most modish of this certain style of frock, a pink pinafore under which lace frilled panalets peeped sunningly out, one of the bifurcated garments cut to display longer lines than its mate.

The little male urchins sported knee trousers, field hats and hose that produced plenty of racket.

Mrs. G. W. Conkey, the dignified "school marm", was splendid in her role and displayed her pupils' "speaking" and "singing" ability in a wonderful manner. The teacher had the support of a "doting" school board and visitors also came to hear the children speak. The "kids" took their "dinners" in baskets and divided with those who only took their appetites.

The evening was most unique and proved a splendid "get-together" event.

BIG SURPRISE TO MANY IN THIS TOWN

Local people are surprised at the QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ka, the German remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. This simple remedy draws off such a surprising amount of old food matter from the body that A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY. It is the best remedy we have ever sold.

Going to Church Alone Is Good; Going With Family and Friends Better

YOU, we take it, are a sincere believer in churchgoing. You know that NOWHERE ELSE CAN YOU FIND "THE PEACE THAT PASSETH ALL UNDERSTANDING;" that nowhere else are you so sure of meeting with God fearing folks; that nowhere else should you be so proud to be seen; that church membership is a MARK OF HONOR and evidence that a man or woman is a worth while member of the community.

BUT DO YOU DO YOUR BEST TO INDUCE OTHERS TO GO TO CHURCH?

As you and others need the comfort and the help which the church and the church alone can give, so does the church need your help.

GO YOURSELF; TAKE YOUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS; PERSUADE OTHERS TO GO.

Share with them the joy and contentment you feel when, leaving God's house, you meditate upon the heartening sermon you have heard, telling you that "God's in his heaven; all's right with the world;" upon the uplifting music, elevating and refining the spirit; upon the recital of the spiritual experiences of others, each bearing upon your own soul problems.

It is selfish to keep these good things to yourself; therefore SHARE THEM.

Having heard the call to higher, purer, more satisfying life, pass it on to others.

In no other way can you earn so well the heartfelt gratitude of your fellow man or woman as by bringing the glorious message of religion. And in no other way can you satisfy so completely your conscience, which tells you that you must DO SOMETHING FOR GOD AND FOR MAN.

GO TO CHURCH YOURSELF AND TRY TO TAKE OTHERS WITH YOU.
