

ADVICE FOR WILLARD

Willard gets the money; and he has an opportunity. But he is only a white hope—even with the championship. If he will stay by his Kansas training, omit whiskey and remember the wife of his youth, he may become a real gladiator—like John L. Sullivan, before he begins to moisten up. But if Jess is a wise boy, he will take $100,000 gate receipts, come home, put it in land in central Kansas, and count that day lost whose low descending sun doesn't show him a new litter of pigs, or a little stranger in the cow barn.—Wm. Allen White.

HELPS SOME

"When the whole blamed world seems gone to pot, and business is on the bum, a two-cent grin and a lifted chin, helps some, my boy, helps some."

"BUY IT NOW"

"Cast your bread upon the waters by buying now those things you've postponed purchasing—and the needs of the near future—you will speed up the wheels of progress and your service to the commercial nation will return to you with increment. The more you tighten up the more everyone else tightens up—and the more we all suffer. Start today to do your share—buy now—don't wait for the other fellow to start first, for that's chiefly what's the matter with business today. 'Buy It Now.'"

BILLY SUNDAY ATTENDS A DANCE

Ma and I stopt in to look at a ball at an inauguration ceremony. Well, I will be horn swoggled if I didn't see a woman there dancing with all the men, and she wore a collar of her gown around her waist and she had a little corset on.—Billy Sunday.

Paint Keeps the Home Bright

A LITTLE paint here, a touch of enamel there, a brushful of varnish yonder—everyone can see a dozen or more such opportunities for brightening and beautifying the home.

Perhaps it's the outside of the house that needs protection from the ravages of the weather; perhaps it's a chair, or dresser, the floor or wood-work that has become worn and shabby, or perhaps it's the family carriage, the farm wagon or the lawn swing that has ceased to be a source of pride.

HAVE WE LIFE PRESERVERS ON BOARD? WE HAVE THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW IF THAT'S WHAT YOU MEAN

THE CAPTAIN CALMS THE GOOD JUDGE'S FEARS

SWITCH over to "Right-Cut"—the Real Tobacco Chew.

A new blend of rich, sappy, mellow leaf—seasoned and sweetened just enough to give you all the rich satisfying taste.

Cut right, it gives you its substance steady, without grinding.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and berries. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

We often what the Canadians blame their "hard times" on. They have no tariffs or democrats.

Senator Poindexter of Washington, after being a democrat, republican and bull mooser in turn, has announced that he is now a republican. The republicans of Washington, however, now that he has returned to their port, will intern him next year and take no more chances.

Elbert Hubbard suggests that the great Powers of the world "agree to reduce their standing armies to a certain unit per capita, say to that which the United States possesses." In that case there might be trouble in the Swiss Army; both of them might want to be the general.—Wall Street Journal.
