

THE GOOD JUDGE MEETS THE SUCCESSFUL DETECTIVE

AFTER you use a pouch, you too will know you have found tobacco satisfaction.

Just tuck it away and let the rich, satisfying tobacco taste come to you steady and naturally.

"Right-Cut" is the Real Tobacco Chew and you'll know it all right and like it better than the old kind. Pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short ahead so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary coarsely cut tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with gaudiness and flattery. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

GUESS WHO HE MEANS

"It we had a jingo in the white house the country would be plunged into war."—Former President Taft.

A REPUBLICAN PAPER OFF TRACK.

The Withycombe administration will go down in history as the weakest administration this state has ever had. West's record as governor, at any stage, was 100 percent better than the present. The Morning Astorian is a republican paper and we gave Withycombe loyal support. We are sorry. We offer a sincere apology to the voters of the state for having helped to bunco them.

We recognize now that the people took too big a job on their hands when they tried to make a statesman out of a "hoss doctor." It can't be done. It follows as a mere matter of course that we are to have a "hoss doctor" administration; and a dotting "hoss doctor" administration at that.—Astoria Astorian.

FOOLED THE DOG

D. E. Gilman lost his Ford car while on a trip to Lone the other day and the circumstances are said to have been very peculiar. He left the car standing in front of a business house while he went in to transact some business. In the meantime a farmer came along and tied his dog to the machine. The dog thought some one had tied a can to his tail and started home with the car on the run. The car was finally located and except for a sore spot on the dog's tail everything appears to be all right.—Heppner Times.

The caller didn't look it, but she declared to little Clorinda that she dearly loved children. It may be that she said so because she heard the distant swish of the skirts of Clorinda's mamma; but, whatever the cause, she repeated it urgently. Then, as the small lady with the pet cat made no move to answer her invitation to come and make friends, she asked, "Why is it that you love your kitty better than me, dearie?"

And Clorinda's mamma entered the room with an ill concealed smile as she heard her daughter answer, "Cause she purrs as if she meant it."

"Gee, but that feels good!"

Saved by His Wits.
The Duke of Wellington once met by accident an officer in a state of inebriety.

"Look here, sir," said the iron duke. "What would you do if you met one of your men in the condition in which I find you?"

The officer drew himself up, gave the military salute and replied with great gravity, "I would not condescend to speak to the brute." His wit saved him his commission.
