

THE OLD TAR EXPLAINS TO THE GOOD JUDGE

IT'S just as natural for a man to sing the praises of the Real Tobacco Chew as it is to look at a beautiful woman.

"Right-Cut" is made from the finest mellow, rich leaf tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough.

New cut, short shred, so that you can get all the good of it.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and berries. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

Independence, Oregon, Friday, June 25, 1915

Begins to look as though the Oregonian would go democratic. —Falls City News.

Only perhaps because the Oregonian believes it can praise Woodrow into a fight.

The Dallas Observer last week buried William Jennings Bryan and laid him away in the political graveyard forever. The editor of the Observer is yet a young man, he has many years yet to labor, and during the coming period of strenuous effort, he will bury the same gentleman again and again. It is not a virtue, nor a fault, but a cross between a habit and a disease which has fastened itself upon numerous writers, many brilliant and learned. Apparently there is no cure.

THE CHERRY FAIR

Salem, Ore., June 22—A bigger, brighter and better Cherry Fair than ever is the aim of the Salem Commercial Club which this year has charge of the Capital City's annual mid-summer festival. The Cherry Fair is to be combined with the Fourth of July Celebration and many new features are included in this year's program. It is to be held on July 2 and 3. Chief among these is the big basket picnic for the farmers of the surrounding communities to be held in Willson Park on Saturday July 3. Governor Withycombe is slated for an address on this occasion.

The Cherry Exhibit will be spread on the Court House lawn together with a display of other fruits and flowers. The exhibits will be up to the usual standard of the Willamette Valley, it is promised by those in charge.

NATIONAL HONOR

If some snob of a ruler feels that other nations are not sufficiently appreciative of his greatness, or have failed to properly salute him he promptly declares war and dags his unfortunate subjects from peaceful pursuits to defend the "national honor." —Falls City News.

THE INSIGNIFICANT THING

Naturally one hears nothing about the husband of that Washington woman who killed thirteen wild cats. —Brownsville Times.
