THE LANDLORD IS GLAD TO WELCOME THE GOOD JUDGE.

YOU know, all tobacco users know that men want a real tobacco chew.

Everywhere men are saying to their friends that the Real Tobacco Chew is the goods.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough—cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

Take less than one-quarter the old size chew. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just take a nibble of it until you find the strength chew that suits you, then see how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end. The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up. An excess of licorice and sweetening makes you spit too much.

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

CARD OF THANKS

I desire to thank the friends and neighbors most heartily in this manner for their co-operation during the illness and death of my late husband, who escaped from me by the hand of death last Saturday. To my friends and all who contributed toward making the last minutes comfortable and the funeral a success I desire to remember most kindly, hoping that these few lines will find them enjoying the same blessing. I have also a good milk cow and a roan gelding horse, eight years old, which I will sell cheap. God moves in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform. He plants his footsteps on the sea and rides upon the storm. Also black and white shoat cheap.—Mrs. R. C. in Lapeer County (Mich.) Clarion.

TEST OF YOUR "SMARTNESS"

You may be smart and learned but how much of the higher intelligence have you? Just how much you have is determined by the number of the ten following ordinary words you know the meaning of: Limn, hithe, pule, hodiernal, hirsute, hippled, pyx, hortulan, bouge and potable.

NEW SCHOOL OF CROAKERS

There is a new school of croakers. Well meaning people they are, no doubt, but there is much question about the wisdom and the effect of their croaking. They are the people who are at pains to explain how defenseless this country is. They are ready to tell you that our war fleet could not stop a flotilla of fishing smacks; that we have no coast defense worthy of the name; and that such as we have are but poorly supplied with ammunition. In their pessimism on the subject of the army they grow positively and gloomily enthusiastic. We have not the men, the organization, the equipment. According to these people, we are simply defenseless; and if by any chance the war in Europe should end suddenly, and there should survive a casus belli between this country and the victorious belligerents, we would have nothing to expect invasion, punishment and subjugation.—Portland Telegram.

REVIVAL MEETINGS

Crowds are still attending the meeting. Last Sunday was a big day. Two were baptized. The congregation voted to disband and reorganize. Next Sunday the invitation will be given to all who wish to form a new congregation. The Evangelist is preaching the "truth of God" and a sw et spirit is being manifested in all the services. At the close of the meeting, officers will be elected, Elders and Deacons ordained and a pastor hired. The Evangelist has not said when the meetings will close. All are welcome. 8 p. m. each evening.
