

HOP PICKING = SALE! =

One-fourth off on everything in stock
For Two Weeks Only
A good time to buy Xmas Gifts. : : : : :

Rowe's Jewelry Store
"Goods of Quality"

POPULAR GROCERY CHANGES OWNERS

WE have purchased the grocery store of L. G. Reeves and will continue the business in the same place.

It will be our aim to please as far as possible the people of Independence and vicinity, by fair and courteous treatment and by selling a good quality of goods at moderate prices.

CALBREATH & JONES.

We have
HEATERS
that suit you in price

Our Stoves are Fuel Savers

See our line
before you buy

Craven & Huff

School Supplies
See North Window

THE FAIR

MAIN ST. NEAR BEAVER HOTEL

The Place Of
Many Bargains

Everything
5c, 10c or 15c

LOCAL NEWS

Phone in the news.
Tripp and real estate go hand-in-hand.

Only four more days of the Monitor Bargain Week.

Dr. K. E. Duganne, dentist, National Bank Building.

The Ketchum's have moved to their country home.

Miss Cora Browne was in Independence for a few days this week.

Conkey & Walker have received an excellent line of fall goods.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Patton were Portland visitors
this week.

C. W. Irvine and family motored to McMinville last Sunday to visit relatives.

A Crackerjack Suit to measure at $15. Can't be beat. Fit or no sale.

Miller The Tailor

Miss Adona Cockran of Salem was a visitor at the David Boydston home this week.

Mr and Mrs. Pearl Hedges and Mr. and Mrs. E. E.
Cook autoed to Portland Sunday.

C. H. Parker and J. W.
White are two more farmers who have added silos to their equipment.

A number of Independence Elks attended the funeral of Harry Minto in Salem Wednesday.

E. Dietz and family were Independence visitors this week. They now live on a farm near Norton.

S. H. McElmurry has been summoned to appear in Portland next week as a member of the federal grand jury.

A fire in an office in the Cooper block yesterday morning was extinguished before the fire boys got there.

Among those who missed last week who attended the Pendalton Round-Up, were Mrs. O. D. Butler and Ross Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Shafer are moving to the "Firs" this week, the beautiful country home of Mrs. Mc-Gowan-Park.

Miss Elda McDaniels, well known in Independence, died in Portland last Sunday.
She was a student at the Normal for some time.

Cyril Richardson has secured a position with a traveling show as an actor and is now on the road. Cyril has considerable ability and his work in Independence last winter showed it.

Miss Bertha Potter has resigned her position in the Independence schools. Miss Crislie Bramburg will teach the Sixth grade instead of the Fourth and another teacher will be secured for the Fourth.

Rev. W. C. Stewart returned from conference at Rossburg Tuesday. He has been returned to the Independence charge for another year. Rev. S. H. Bennett was also returned to Dallas and Rev. O. Wall to Buena Vista.

The special sale at Rowe's Jewelry store ends tomorrow.

A good pair of reading glasses for $1.00 at O. A.
Kreamer's.

H. J. Rowe spent considerable of his valuable time in Dallas this week.

A. O. Yates of Sellwood was visiting friends in this section this week.

Dr. J. B. Grider, dentist, successor to Dr. Allin, Cooper Bldg. Phone Main 1021.

Call J. N. Ellsworth the Veterinary, corner of 4th and D Sts. Phone 3122. 3tf

The pheasant hunting season opened this morning. A large number of shooters are out.

A Nelson has just completed a new slaughter house to replace the one burned some time ago.

In order to continue reading the Monitor, you must "fix" your subscription if it needs "fixin'."

Miller The Tailor has his new fall line of samples in.
Come and see them. The best in the market at lowest prices. Fit or no sale.

Supt. J. W. Richardson sent out invitation this week to the Bible School rally at the Christian church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

The Monitor is told that "Tom Thumb's Wedding" is to be staged in Independence within the next ten days for the benefit of the Civic Improvement league.

The American restaurant is being re-papered and will receive a general cleaning up and improved under the new management. The proprietor, Mrs. Ida Zerr seems to thoroughly understand the business and will ask for a share of your patronage through the Monitor next week.

In "Yourex" you get a Silver plated knife that will not rust or wear black, that can be sharpened the same as a steel knife without showing black around the edges and guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction. Let O.
A. Kreamer show you this knife. $5.00 per set.

For Sale—7-year-old mare, good driver and gentle in every respect. Weight 1150.
This mare will be guaranteed. P. Seymour,
R 2.

For Trade

Good House and Lot in Santa Rosa, Cal., for Independence town property or farm. Good chance for saloon man. Inquire, B. A., Monitor.

Good ash, fir and maple wood for sale.
49tf Homer Hill.

Wood, Gravel and Sediment, delivered.
13tf F. E. Rider.

PAY UP

Having sold my grocery, all parties owing me are requested to call at the store and settle.

L. G. Reeves.

A WOMAN'S WAY OF REASONING

Story of a Maiden Who Jumped at Conclusions.

They met at a farmhouse as summer boarders. He was what women call cynical. She thought him indifferent. He was certainly a cool chap, and the three traits combined attracted her.

Several weeks passed, and there was no mention between them of their growing intimacy. He spoke of returning to his work in the city without mentioning any regret at the discontinuance of their walks or their sittings in the moonlight on the porch. She dared not mention the parting for fear her voice would tremble.

One morning after they had come in from a walk they went to the mantel in the living room, where the mail was deposited, and she, taking up a letter addressed to him in a woman's hand, gave it to him. He simply said, "Thank you." She spent the afternoon wondering who was his correspondent and surmising his action at receiving a letter from a mother, a sister, a girl friend or a sweetheart. If it were from either of the first three he would have said something to denote the fact; if from a sweetheart, he would have said no more than "thank you." This was her reasoning.

The next morning instead of waiting for him to go to work she went alone.
That is what a girl in love would usually do under the circumstances.
She assumed on evidence that would have no weight with twelve jurymen—mind you, I say jurymen, not jury women—that his correspondent was his fiancee.

When she returned a "depot hack" was being driven up to the door, and who should get out of it but the companion of her former walks, whose companionship she had taken pains to show she did not longer care for, but whose absence had made her miserable. That was not all; he handed out a very attractive looking girl, whom he led into the house. He reappeared just as the girl who had witnessed the arrival was approaching the porch.
He went to meet her pleasantly; but, noticing a severe expression on her face, his own assumed a serious cast.
Evidently there was a change. He had been intending to explain his not joining in her walk by telling her that he had gone to the station, but he concluded to await developments.

"Pleasant walk?" he asked.
"Very."
"I didn't see you when you started."
"It is not to be expected that you should go to work with me every morning."
"Certainly not. That would be very selfish of me. Suppose we go into the summer house."
"Thank you; I'm tired. I shall rest awhile before dinner."
"As you like. I'll stroll down to the river bank. Good morning." This was not to her purpose. She changed her mind and said she would go into the summer house.

"Why did you deliberately go off to walk without me this morning?" he asked when they were seated.
"I don't care to attract the attention of those in the house by these walks, especially—"
"Well?"
"The young lady who has just arrived might not like it."
"I hadn't thought of that."
"You should have thought of it."
"We men are methodical, fellows.
We take up matters as they come along, while your sex is prone to take them up as fancy dictates."
"As principle dictates."
"That word principle has many conditions. Sometimes it is rigid, sometimes elastic."
"I should think in this case it must be elastic."
"You must remember that what we call principle pertakes of education.
The Greeks—"
"Bother the Greeks. What had they to do with us?"
There was a brief silence. Evidently the hair splitting was over. Presently he said:
"We shall not hereafter be quite so free to enjoy these walks together, for—"
"Evidently not."
"My mother will be up on Saturday, and—"
"Oh, your mother?"
"Yes. She is an invalid, and I shall need to devote a good deal of time to her."
"And the rest will belong to another?"
"What other?"
"The young lady who has already arrived."
"She will help me in the care of my mother."
"That will be her duty."
"And her pleasure."
"Certainly; of course."
"I shall be here only a few days after mother comes; then the care of her will devolve entirely on my sister."
"Your sister?"
"Yes. It is she who arrived just now."
There was another brief silence. The girl looked up at the sky, then down at the floor.
"Why didn't you tell me that before?"
"You didn't ask."
She sat silent for a moment, then rose and was about to start for the house, but he seized her hand and detained her. The fencing was over. For the first time since he had met her he asked what he meant, and she replied in kind.

GLOBE THEATER, ALBANY
Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 4, 5

MADAME JEANNE JOMELLI
IN CONCERT

PRICES: 35c to $1.00
Seat Sale at Woodworth Drug Co., Albany.

Mail orders filled in order received.

SIRES AND SONS.

Paderewski could play the piano when he was three years old.

General August von Mackensen of the German army was born in 1849 in Saxony.

Antonio Salandra, Italy's premier of war, was not so long ago professor of public law in the University of Rome and is described as simple, modest and domestic in his tastes.

James Ford Bell, the Minneapolis miller, whose ancestry goes back to England through Philadelphia, is the sixth of his name in direct descent to be engaged in the milling business, and he proposes bringing up his infant son to be a miller.

Henry Suzzallo, professor of philosophy in the Teachers' college of Columbia university, who has been elected president of the University of Washington, is well known as a public lecturer, author and contributor to educational magazines.

Professor W. G. Foye of the Harvard division of geology has been sent by the Sheldon fund to study the coral reefs, the uplifted limestone and the volcanic rocks in the Fiji islands. His investigations will occupy the better part of a year and are expected to add materially to the scientific knowledge of the regions covered.

Echoes of the War.

A year of war has ended and a century of regret begins.—Chicago Herald.

Would it be a surprise if the war should stop as quickly as it began?— Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Write on the credit side of the war ledger: An increased knowledge of the proper care of wounds.—Chicago News.

The war is in its second year, and there never was a more terrible youngster of its age.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

One drawback to cutting war melons in Europe is that each slice has to come out of some other fellow's melon.— Washington Post.

When the number of trading ships that have been sunk is considered it is clear that the United States is not the only country that is going to need a new merchant marine when the war is over.—Indianapolis News.

Train and Track.

The Erie Railroad company has put up signs telling the names of the rivers it crosses and of the railways that it intersects.

The Southern Pacific company now has on its veteran corps' roll between 600 and 700 and has paid out in pensions over $2,000,000.

The value of railroads and their equipment in the United States is placed by the federal census bureau at $10,148,000,000; of street railways, $4-500,000,000.

So that baggage cannot fall out on passengers' heads a new rack for railroad cars is almost completely inclosed, access being provided by sliding doors.

SHORT AND SHARP.

It seldom pays to think unless you intend to act.

The man looking for trouble can close his eyes and find it.

Nobody can know how many lives that new sea wall saved Galveston.

A self made man generally thinks that he has accomplished a real work of art.

In the confusion of greater clashes the dum-dum bullet seems to have been lost sight of.

It is an easy thing for a man to resist temptation if he has something better in sight.

Some people never put off till tomorrow what they can get somebody else to do for them today.

When a man is old enough to know better doing a foolish thing won't make him look young.

Do not blame the ass for being stubborn. He would not be a perfect ass if he were otherwise.

When you have to take back things that you have said you are likely to find the goods somewhat damaged.

Our system of education makes children wiser than their parents. But the children are no wiser than their parents were at their age.

PRAISED

The McMinville News-Reporter has the following to say regarding Mrs. Hugh Harrison who is to coach the "Tom Thumb Wedding" in Independence soon: "She is particularly adapted to direct juvenile performances and her work showed to advantage in the efforts of the children. Mrs. Harrison has a winning personality and understands the handling of child performers."

Barber Harris, who occupied the Spelling residence, has moved to Salem.

Flippant Flings.

International law is like Colonel Sellers' eyewater. The more you take the more you need.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Favorite sons in the different states are beginning to be as virtuous as the small boy just before Christmas.—Chicago News.

The frequency of Culebra cut alides suggests that its name originally should have been "Kelly."—Albany Knickerbocker Press.

A St. Paul man announces that he will not have his hair cut until the European war ends. Barber shop war-pieces must be awful in Minnesota.— Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A man seldom knows what he doesn't want until after he acquires it.

It is hard for a talkative person to understand that another may be silent for no other reason than that he has nothing to say.

FUEL

Mill Wood in 16 inch lengths. This wood is partly kiln dried and is excellent fuel. Delivered to you at $2.65 per load.

G. K. SPAULDING LOGGING CO.

BUTTER WRAPPERS

The Law Says
They Must Be Printed or—So Stamped as to Conform to Law

$1.00 per Hundred

At

Monitor Office

Says I
To myself
Says I
The Monitor
Is the paper
To Buy.