The big social affair of the year will be held on Friday evening, Nov. 26, by the Tuesday Evening Club of the Baptist Church. The young people are planning a Thanksgiving Banquet. This will be a very elaborate affair. The general committee on the banquet are Mrs. Barnett, chairman, Miss Bramberg, Neil McKinsey, Georgia Sayres and W. S. Stewart. Committees have also been appointed to arrange the games to decorate, to write parodies on the modern songs, to make up new songs, to solicit the feed, in fact every member of the Club is on some committee and they are all working towards the banquet. The toastmaster for the evening will be W. S. Stewart, the pastor of the church and teacher of the Club. Prof. S. Sherman Wallace, who teaches Public Speaking and Bible Study in McMinnville College, is to be the principal speaker of the evening. Many of the young people will make short speeches. The game committee promises to keep the company busy the rest of the evening. This Club has been meeting every Tuesday evening for almost six months, and this is the first large celebration they have had.

Chicago Junk.
Although there is no written history of the earliest link oil carrier, the Chicago News-Chicago Junk, originally built for the carriage of water in bulk and afterward used for oil, must be among the earliest examples of this class of vessel.—Exchange.

Thank you for the stars and moon,
For the great wide ocean, too,
Thank you for the birds' sweet tune,
Laughing brooks and sparkling dew,
Oh, so many thanks we need
For your kindness, and I say,
Thank you very much indeed,
For the gift—Thanksgiving Day.
—Cocke.

As Thanksgiving-tide approaches matrons and maids are as busy as the proverbial bee, lending assistance to bazaars and cooked food sales which several organizations will soon be holding.

Church societies have been diligently at work for some weeks past on pretty and dainty articles for their various bazaars, when it is expected that special features will attract many each day.

School girls and boys, too, will soon be arriving for the Thanksgiving season, their presence always adding much merriment.

WHIST CLUB

This evening Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Craven will entertain the members of their Whist Club.
Mrs. Craven will be assisted by her sister, Miss Robertson, and a delightful evening is assured.

WEDNESDAY CLUB

Shuttles, hooks, needles and thread are flying about with dexterous skill among the members of this club.

This week's meeting was held with Mrs. M. Merwin who furnished a delightful afternoon for her guests.

WHIST CLUB

A delightful club event of the week was the session of the Monday Night Whist Club when Mr. and Mrs. Claudé Skinner were pleasant hosts.

Enthusiastic games, a dainty collation and merry conversation furnished variety to the evenings pleasure.

LARGE PARTIES

Two most interesting functions of the week were the Taylor-Hibbs-Fitchard card parties last Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. A detailed account will appear later.

RECITAL

This evening attention will be turned to the recital at the Methodist church when Mrs. Lottie Hedges McIntosh will present her piano and voice pupils before an enthusiastic audience.

STEPPING PARTY

The Wacontas Dancing Club has issued invitations for a Thanksgiving Stepping party Thursday evening, Nov. 25.

Shoes Which Please Particular Women

There are no more particular or discriminating women anywhere than those who come to this store for their shoes. We have always catered to those who make their selections carefully. We have learned that the usual choice of particular women is

UTZ & DUNN CO.

Style Shoes of Quality

And there is a good reason why this is so: They are artistically designed by stylists who make a thorough study of harmonious blending of shoes and dress. And, while they are smart and dressy, they are also dignified and genteel.

Allow us to point out the difference to you.
