PLUG CHEWING A WHOLESOME HABIT

In No Other Way Can You Get All the Richness and Flavor of the Leaf

"SPEAR HEAD" BEST CHEW

Many prominent physicians declare chewing to be the most wholesome way of enjoying tobacco.

"I began chewing some years ago," said one, "and I soon found that it is the only way to get the benefit of all the rich juices stored up by nature in the tobacco leaf. I refer, of course, to the plug form of tobacco, which is the most natural and the cleanest form.

"Chewing good tobacco like Spear Head makes the salivary glands more active, which in turn has a beneficial effect on the whole system. Add to this the sweet, mellow, delicious flavor of a chew of Spear Head, and you have the highest possible degree of tobacco satisfaction.

"I mention Spear Head because I have found that this brand is exceptionally pure, being made in a factory that's run strictly according to pure-food rules."

Spear Head is made of sun-ripened Burley, which is acknowledged to be the richest, mildest, finest flavored tobacco leaf in the world. And it is produced by the latest processes, which develop the quality and luscious flavor of the choice Burley to the supreme degree.

A chew of Spear Head has a wholesome richness that is not found in any other chewing tobacco. In 10c cuts, wrapped in wax paper.

Editorial

An admirer sends The Pill Box a picture card on which is printed: "As the head is, so is the heart." In the opinion of the entire editorial staff of this great family necessity, this statement is only partly true. Its author has evidently forgotten the liver. If a person's liver is backfiring, has lost a burr or needs oiling, regardless of the condition of the head and heart, he looks sour, kicks dogs and unprobates if on probation. Right here, the medical profession is deficient. Its ethics are to feel of the pulse. This is no doubt necessary but in numberless cases it would be far more precautionary to give the liver a good swift kick and wake it up. But, the golden text of this editorial is that a bum liver has sent many a man to the recording angel for commitment papers before he had time to arrange his deportment.

An Old Woman's Opinion

One of the curious developments of the war is the half serious argument for the revival of polygamy. The world will probably answer like the old woman when asked her opinion of the custom. "I am ag'in it. Goodness knows that a woman doesn't get much when she gets a whole man."---Portland Journal.

Society Section

The first leap year marriage of the year occurred Sunday night when Mr. Horace Halter became the husband of Miss Bridie Bridle, Judge E. E. Paddock officiating. Before the arrival of the wedding party, Miss Susie Snott sang, "When Your Golden Hair Has Turned To Silvery Gray" in her sweet canary voice. To the strains of Ben Hur's "Chariot Race", the groom entered leaning upon his mother, who gave him away. He wore a blue serge cutaway coat, light gray trousers, tan shoes, black silk socks, green and blue bow tie, white gloves, black derby hat, union underwear and a diamond stud in his shirt bosom, the gift of the bride. They were quickly followed by the bride, who was unattended, dressed in the conventional white. The marriage vows were soon said and after a few moments spent in congratulations, during which time the groom was smothered in kisses by the feminine guests, the happy young couple departed for the postoffice to see if they had any mail.
