

MELLOW-SWEET IS TASTE OF "SPEAR HEAD"

Most Richly-Flavored Chew That Was Ever Pressed Into Plugs

FAVORITE FOR A GENERATION

Red-blooded men with real tobacco hunger find that they can satisfy it only by chewing, and the most wholesome and satisfying tobacco to chew is that made in plug form.

The limit of luxury in tobacco chewing is the rich, sweet, juicy flavor that trickles through your system when you chew Spear Head.

No other chewing tobacco is so mellow, so luscious and so satisfying. No other equals Spear Head for putting a keen edge on your appetite.

Spear Head is made of the world's best tobacco leaf—the choicest of red Kentucky Burley. This leaf is selected for its full, juicy richness with the most painstaking care, is stemmed by hand, is pressed into Spear Head plugs so slowly that not a drop of the rich, natural juice escapes.

Your first chew of Spear Head will open your eyes to the genuine enjoyment there is in chewing.

Chew the rich and mellow tobacco that has been the favorite for a third of a century—that's Spear Head, in 10c cuts, wrapped in wax paper.

"SCAREDNESS"

Of course it is hard to tell just how much earnestness and how much political bunk there is in all this "preparedness" talk. A good deal of it reminds me of the old story of the splinter who, while sitting before an open fire, suddenly burst into tears. When asked the cause of her grief, she said that she was afraid she might get married and might have a little baby and the little chap might be playing near an open fire and fall in

THE PILL BOX

Editorial

The entire editorial staff of The Pill Box regrets that the Monitor in its current issue on page two says that Kornerupine resembles Andalusite. Many men in this city have found in Kornerupine that for which they crave. To even hint that it is related to Andalusite is to cast a shadow of gloom. In these days its a long ways to the state line. The Pill Box does not know that Kornerupine resembles Andalusite and unless a quantity is left in our laboratory for analysis we will be that it resembles ginger ale and will continue to convey that impression.

Great Act Of Charity

Editors as a rule are kindhearted. That explains why when one of our subscribers died recently owing us for 14 years subscription, we appeared as the lid of the coffin was being screwed down and put in a linen duster, a thermometer, a palm leaf fan and a recipe for making ice. --Lamont, Alberta, Tribune.

Society Section

With the advent of the balmy days of Spring, the Poison Oak Club, which has been dormant for several months, revives not only in spirit but in action. It does not begin its season's work with much eclat but gradually breaks out until it reaches its zenith. The Poison Oak Club scratches the word "exclusive" from its portals. Its membership is very democratic and each individual has a feeling of pleasantry that is quite noticeable even to outsiders. This year promises to be as promising as those in the past.

Without knowing that Bill was in the wagon, the hired man pitched on a load of manure, hitched on Tom and Jerry and hauled it out to the field to dump. Bill's presence was discovered when the hired man stuck the pitchfork into him when he commenced to unload.
