

In Society

BY VIRGINIA SOUTHERN

With election week bearing the same interest for milady as for the sterner sex, there has been little time left for formal entertaining, however several small groups of maids and matrons have gathered informally for a cosy chat over the issues while sipping a cup of tea. Hal- lowe'en, which left in its wake a golden glow of happy memories was pleasantly reviewed too while needles flew in and out of some bit of fancy work.

The Tuesday Evening Club furnished free "movies" to their friends in their new social hall Tuesday evening and thru special telephone service election returns were flashed on the screen. A cafeteria luncheon was also served to a large crowd.

The Christian Ladies served dinner to a large crowd of election fans in cozy quarters on C street last Tuesday. Special wiring kept the diners posted with the election counts.

KILL KARES PLAY.

The rooms of the Swope home were a burst of golden color, with chrysanthemums and Hal- lowe'en decorations, when they entertained members of the Kill Kare Klub last Friday evening. The evening was devoted to whist, Mrs. Hattie Henkle being the club's guest. A delectable luncheon concluded the evening.

OWENS TO DEPART.

A general feeling of regret is expressed that the J. E. Owens will soon leave to reside in Camas, Wash. Mrs. Owen is prominently identified with the club and church activities of the city and her presence at social functions is always a pleasant addition and her going away is deeply deplored.

OWLS OUT.

The Owls participated in a "Beaver" dinner Monday evening after which they kept watch at the charming Word Butler home until a late hour. Many games of whist were played with enthusiasm and the Butler hospitality furnished a delightful evening.

WILLIAMS ENTERTAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Williams were hosts to the Klose Tillkums last evening. The attractive home was beautified with autumn flowers and foliage for the initial event of this club for the season. Merry players circled the tables and enjoyed several games of 500 a delightful luncheon closing the pleasures of the session.

ATTRACTIVE WEDDING.

A wedding charming in its simplicity and solemn in its impressiveness was that of Miss Minnie Dell Wunder to Mr. Charles Kenny which was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wunder of Monmouth Heights last Thursday at high noon. The rooms of the home were attractively arranged with a beautiful arrangement of huge white feathery chrysanthemums intermingled with lacy ferns, while a large wedding bell fashioned of the same beautiful blossom was suspended over an improvised altar, where the marriage vows which included the ring service, were read by the Rev. Fisher of Monmouth in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the young couple. The bride was beautiful in her soft, shimmery wedding gown of white crepe de chene, her bridal bouquet was of white chrysanthemums and ferns. Following the ceremony a splendid wedding breakfast was served amid a shower of congratulations. Mrs. Kenny has a host of friends who admire her for her real worth and womanly traits. She is a sister of Ed Wunder of this city. Mr. Kenny is a prosperous young business man of Grass Valley. The couple motored to the Dalles and will include Washington and Idaho cities in their wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Kenney will be at home in Grass Valley, Ore., about the middle of December.

MISS EDDY HOSTESS.

Miss Irene Eddy entertained the K. K. K. girls and their young men friends at the attractive Eddy home last Saturday evening amid a charming setting of autumnal beauty. Tables were appointed for 500 which was merrily indulged in for a time, and then dancing furnished further amusement for the guests. At a late hour a dainty repast was served.

CARRIES FIFTY DOLLAR ROLL AND BEGS FOR BUN

Sam, the Silver Lined, Receives Free Meals For Ten Days For Vagrancy.

New York.—A shabby figure recently plunk up to Detective Cava of the First branch, at Second avenue and Houston street.

"Say, cal," it wheezed, "and you spare a few pennies to buy a bun and a cup of coffee. I'm out of work and I can't find a bite to eat for thirty-six hours, and my wife be awful sick and"

"Sure. Come along," Cava said, showing his badge. "I'll put you where you'll get three squares a day and never have to spend a cent."

"A stingy man like you ought to starve to death," the detective added later when he had driven from the beggar's pockets a bank book showing deposits of $813.82 in bills, 200 pennies and 40 cents in silver.

Magistrate Nolan sent the man, who said his name was Samuel Horowitz, to the workhouse for ten days.

Relatives In One Company.

Mount Gilead, O.—When Company A, Cardington, of the Fourth Ohio regiment, went to Camp Wells it had eleven pairs of brothers, two pairs of fathers and sons and fourteen men over six feet in height. Company A is the youngest in the state, having only been mustered into service June 8, eleven days before the mobilization call. It has 100 members.

Three Thumbs Too Many.

Arlinson, Wis.—Three thumbs were too many, so Johnson Kotras, an Italian of this city, had one of them amputated recently. Kotras' extra thumb had grown out from the second joint of the thumb on his right hand and was as well formed as the other two.
