..Plants..

What Kind?

Early Cabbage Early Cauliflower Early Tomatoes Where?

ASK

Wm. B. Barnett

INDEPENDENCE

J. L. Hanna is in Salt Lake

Harold Klepper has enlisted in the army.

Several of the "L" boys were Hewett, Cooper Bldg. home over Sunday.

Wanted-Pasture for two colts. J. T. Hart, Rt. 1.

Miss Louise Davis is employed in the telephone office.

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Eldridge were in Portland this week.

Miss Grace Jones was a passenger to Corvallis Wednesday.

Mrs. W. S. Kurre left Wednesday for a visit at Cottage Grove.

Max Goldman buys and sells all kinds of wood.

Mrs. Susan Jones and daughter, Grace, motored to Corvallis

Scott Leonard will build a new barn on his farm south of Inde-

"Quit the advertising; the cow is sold," writes Mrs. M. J. Norton to the Monitor, Dr. J. B. Grider, dentist, successor to Dr. Allen, Cooper Building, Phone Main 1021.

Albert Kullander has been in Portland this week taking the examination for the army.

GET A KODAK Without Letting

NO. 3 PREMISE NO. 3 BROWN

NO. 24 BROWN

Your Pocket Know It.

Ask us for a Kodak Bank and see how easy it is to get a real Camera withspare dimes.

Craven& Walker

Dr. R. E. Duganne, dentist, National Bank Building.

O. E. Martin has gone to the astern part of the state.

Riley Cooper was visiting his of absence. prother, J. S., this week.

Dewey Hill was a Portland caller the first of the week.

Abe Becker has answered the roll and will join the army.

Eyes scientifically examined and glasses fitted. Dr. F. G.

P. H. Drexler is behind toe counter at Calbreath & Jones'.

Mrs. Bolton of Salem was visiting Mrs. P. R. Alexander Mon-

"Cut out the ad, sold all the baled hay" phones Sam Muhle-

A treat with every ticket next week for five acceptable news

W. T. Hoffman intends to plant ten acres of beans on his ranch.

The city council failed to legislate Wednesday night.

Two good tent houses for sale at a bargain. Inquire at Dickson's Meat Market.

A son was born to Mr and Mrs. Levi Burbank of Pedee last Friday.

Shaler Eldridge departs tomorrsw for Frisco where he enters the navy.

Verd Hill was the first Independence man to subscribe to the Liberty Loan.

J. S. and Riley Cooper went to Elk City Tuesday with their fishing tackle.

R. W. Veatch, formerly of Independence, was married at North Bend last week.

If you are going to have a wedding or a swell dinner, don't forget to complete the menu with Pugh's Loganberry Juice. Sold everywhere.

Two dandy looking hogs were received Tuesday night by express for J. A. Wood.

Rev. W. S. Stewart attended the state Sunday school convention at Newberg this week.

Larry Fitzgerald has accepted a position in the First National Bank, succeeding Shaler Eld-

Let only an expert do all your printing. The Monitor has the expert.

B. F. Swope, Lawyer Cooper Bldg.

Mesdames W. H. Walker and Hattie Henkle were in Salem yesterday.

Mrs. Lottie Hedges McIntosh will present her pupils in public recital June 1 at the M. E. church.

Wanted, a good girl to do tailoring, writing and answer telephone. George Alassari, tatlor, Monmouth St.

Jee Oberson has returned from the job soon.

The Presbyterian ladies will birthday Saturday afternoon by enjoyed and the farmers are giving a party for a number of cutting hay. his school mates.

from a ten days' jaunt thru Thursday afternoon and indulged Montana. He says he much pre- in a few pleasant hours of handifers the Willamette valley.

Dewey Broadwell, one of Uncle Sam's navy boys, now stationed on Puget Sound, arrived home last night on a four day's leave

For Sale-a thoroughbred Jersey bull, 2 years old, dark brown color. Price $40. R. H. Mc-Carter, 7 miles southeast of Independence. 40tf and Mrs. Ella Hart, treasurer. visited several days.

Aunt Tilda

on fur another fo'ty ya'rs.

who pays a dollar fur a ticket an' hits dat prize makes $24."

least speck in lottery, an' I won't buy an' he sells dem hundred tickets, an' pawson's ole plug bat, an' Aunt Deborah Wilson, who is cross eyed, done

de drawtn' an' polled out ticket No

22. Dar was three shrieks an' a clap-pin' o' hands, an' ole Mrs. White shouted out dat it was her ticket an' she was gwine to buy liniments fur her rheumatism wid de cash turned ober left all de money home, but would gin

de lucky old lady her cash next day

Dis would 'a' gone off right if most o' de people hadn't called out fur de job to be finished right off. Dey said dey would go home wid de pawson an' longer he hesitated de mo' determined growed de people, an' he had to go wid us. Mo' dan 200 people follered along to his cabin, an' a dozen or mo' entered de house wid him. His

He hemmed an' hawed, but de see de money paid.

De pawson announced dat he had de drawin' takes place in de church.

But de pawson he goes right out.

All de tickets was placed in de

A good pair of reading glasses for $1.00 at O. A. Kreamer's.

Abe Bennett, the evangelist, hold a Springtime bazaar and who conducted services at the food sale on June 2. Interesting Christian church last summer, was in Independence yesterday. He just came from California Billy Irvine celebrated his sixth where summer weather is being

O. A. Macy returned Monday at the home of Mrs. Crosby Davis refreshments were served to the guests.

Ross Nelson is to become a specialist in unique vegetables and plants. He has sent to Luther Burbank for all the freak Salem where he had his appendix varieties the wizard has in stock removed. He will be back on and will devote all his time between reels to their cultivation.

The Needlecrafters gathered work, amid the charming hospitality of the hostess. Light 28

Salem Capitol Journal: Mrs. I. L. Patterson, who has just returned from Washington as a delegate of the Daughters of the American Revolution, visited the been retained for next year. Red Cross headquarters and the surgical dressing rooms yesterday. She said that the work of The Rebekahs elected the fol- the Salem Red Cross compared lowing officers Tuesday night: most favorably with that of the Mrs. Lena Hewitt, noble grand: larger cities of the east and Miss Mable Stevens, vice grand; especially with that of Minne-Mrs. Hattie Henkle, secretary; apolis where Mrs. Patterson

She Tells About

The Church Lottery

De black folks am jist as much chillen as dey was fo'ty

About ten days ago de pawson of our church walks in yere

"You know wery well what I mean. When any body hears ya'rs ago, an' it looks to me as if dey was gwine to keep right an' sez to me, "Aunt Tilda, I has had a call." 'Did somebody call you names?" I axed.

bout a hundred dollars to make repairs to our meetin bouse. It's a shame an' a disgrace to our people. Dar hain't a hull pane o' glass in de winders, an' de bats fly in an' out as dey please. De call tole me what to do. I's gwine to git up a church lottery. Dar won't be anything sinful 'bout it. It's fur de cause of religun. I sell 100 tickets fur a dollar aplece in dat lottery.

Dar may be a feetle mite in a church festival, but it's shore dar hain't de

"Dar hain't no religion in a lottery, an' you can't make me believe it

De prize am $25 in cash. Dat leaves me $75 to make de repairs. De puss teachers in the High School have

S. E. Carver of Independence, an old man, was committed to the asylum the first of the week. At the depot in Dallas Monday afternoon while waiting for the train for Salem, he attempted it is Locatized in every community. suicide by stabbing himself with a knife. He was not seriously injured.

E. F. Black receives a letter each week from his son, Arthur, who is in the navy. In his last letter the young man stated that he was getting along well but had been a little lonesome for a Gen. Gibson No. 42, W.R.G. few days because Johnny Nash had been temporarily transferred to another ship.

Wednesday but did not exhibit, thus saving our people a number of half dollars which might have been handed over under the impression that the exhibition might be worth it. While this bunch, calling themselves the "Virginia Minstrels" had a tent, they did not put it up, but tried to get in at the Isis. Their

Stylish Shoes for that Young Lady

We know the pride which is maturing in the heart of that daughter of yours, which prompts her to desire shoes "like mother's". And we have provided in the

The same and the first parties and the same land and the same land the same

For Summer Wear, New Fancy and White Hats for Ladies

UTZ & DUNN CO. SHOES FOR GROWING GIRLS

Just the shoes to please her and you. Mother's shoes will appear no more stylish on her feet these pretty new designs on daughter's. There are styles for dressup and every day -each one correctly designed to make her feet grow right. That's the secret of perfect,

CONKEY & WALKER

Straus All-Wool Suits for Men and Boys - Red Fern and Warner's Corsets - Black Cat Hosiery

Antaliakateitek lateliak ateliakateitek ateliak ateliakatek 🗸

"Civilization" at the Isis May

Airlie tonight.

A number of the present

Mesdames Lena Hewitt, Ella Hart and Lena Jones have been elected delegates to Rebekah Grand Lodge which meets at Eugene next week.

A nigger show came to town reputation proceeding them, the owners of the Isis had no desire to bilk their patrons and refused The Girls' Glee Club will pre- to let the blacks in, especially sent their entertainment at when it was desired to charge 75 cents.

Butter Wraps $1.00 per 100 Monitor Office

Yamoreg Monthly Bulletin Published by the

Yamoreg Collection Agency MCMINNVILLE, OREGON

The only credit rating available and Gives a history of every case coming into our hands and shows the debtor's attitude toward his obligations.

NOTICE

of Independence

Have a membership contest on, This contest will end the 30th of May 1917. All loyal women are invited to join our Corps, who have reached the age of 16, and pledge ellegiance to our flag and to the republic for which it stands. It is the oldest organization of this kind, and all patriotic women could not find a more deserving organization to aid our Union in caring for our veterans and their dependent

It is the patriotic duty of every citizen of Independence to subscribe in accordance with his or her means to

The Liberty Loan of 1917 United States Government 31 per cent Bonds

THE INDEPENDENCE NATIONAL BANK offers its services without charge to any individual or corporations wishing to subscribe to the $2,000,000,000 United States 31 per cent Bonds now being offered by the United States Government.

"Dar Wasn't No Hundred Dollars!"

ole wife sot dar in a rockin' chair, an' when she seed de people cum flockin' in she screamed right out an' fell off de chair in a faint. De pawson tried to drive us all outdoahs, dat he might hold de camphor her nose, but no one would go. When he had put it off as long as he could be took down an ole coffeepot an' put his hand inter it to pull out dat hundred dollars. It was what de white folks call a tragic moment. Dar wasn't no hundred dollars in dat coffeepot! Dar neber had bin: De pawson had bid it somewhar else. When we begun to shout he said dat de rats or de robbers had cum an' stolen de money while he was at church. o an' de ole woman was sittin' right dar all de time to keep watch!

Dar was an awful row, of co'se, an' dar was talk of tar an' feathers. but de pawson premised to find dat money de next day, an' dey let him off. When de next day cum he was missin', and he am missin' yet. He hain't gone for good, but be is waitin' to let de excitement die down. Den he will cam back an' have anodder call, an' instead of any church re o pairs he will bloom out in a new suit of clothes an' will buy his winter baron by de piece instead of by de pound

Hul Don't tell me dat de cull'd folks ain't a cataleptic, consanguine, congestive, commodious, confirmation, consarned lot of idiots an' ought to have white men to act as deir guardians! M. QUAD.

Copyright, 1815, McClure Newspaper Syndicate.