HOW LEWISVILLE GOT ITS NAME

A week or two ago I drove thru Polk and Benton counties. I stopped at a prosperous looking farm house and asked the proprietor how far it was to Lewisville. "It's just over the hill, what there is left of it," he answered. We fell into talk and he told me his name was Francis Marion Lewis, and that he was born on that farm on February 5, 1847. "My father, D. R. Lewis, came here in '45," he said. "He was in the same train with Captain English and Sol Tetherow. Our place is on the old emigrant road to Roseburg. Father gave Mose Apple and Abe Wing five acres from his donation land claim to start a town here. They called it after father's native city, Louisville, Ky., only they spelled it as we spell our name, Lewis, so that it was named Lewisville.

"Gaston, a lawyer from Jacksonville, started the first railroad in the Willamette valley and interested a lot of the settlers in it. They wanted to come to Lewisville but some of the old settlers around here tried to hold them up for right of way, so the road passed Lewisville by and that settled its fate. It is a good site for a city but the shortsightedness of some of the well-to-do people around here killed the town."—Fred Lockley in Portland Journal.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. MISS LIZABETH M. COSPER HONORED

The announcement of the appointment of Miss L. M. Cosper as chairman of the art committee of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs was a matter of congratulation at the Women's Civic Club Monday afternoon. Miss Cosper is a recent addition to club membership and her appointment by Mrs. Chas. M. Castner, president of the Federated Clubs, gives Lebanon a place in the Federated year book on an important committee. Until recently the chairmanship has been filled by Mrs. Alice Weister of Portland, an acknowledged authority on the subject. Miss Cosper has as her assistants, Mrs. Alice Dodd of Salem and Mrs. Calista Dowling of Portland. Miss Cosper's appointment came unsolicited, but she brings to the task an enthusiasm for work and a love for art in which she received valuable training in her former home, Tacoma, under Mrs. Alice D. Engley Beek. Mrs. Beek spent 14 years in Paris studying art and is recognized as a teacher of great ability. Miss Cosper specialized in China painting and water colors and was awarded two medals for her work at the Alaska-Yukon Exposition.—Lebanon Express.
