

Do Your Xmas Buying at Max Goldman's

The Store that Undersells
Because it Sells for Cash

Bargains

in Shoes, Hats, Caps, Shirts,
Groceries and Notions.

PAY CASH AND PAY LESS

BREVITIES

Books and poems—popular gifts—at Craven & Walker's.

Mrs. Lee, from Tacoma, is a guest at the J. S. Cooper home. Large team for sale cheap. Inquire at this office. 17tf Framed pictures 25c to $4.00. Moore & Walker.

Shaler Eldridge will be home in the morning.

Lots of nice ties to select from at Kreamer's.

Games of all kinds for the kiddies at Craven & Walker's.

Mrs. Clara Taylor visited relatives in Benton county last week.

Buy furniture for Xmas. Moore & Walker.

Velma Whiteaker is home for the holidays.

Mrs. Art Baker is visiting her parents at Mill City.

Bracelet watches make fine Xmas presents. Go to Kreamer's for them.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Robinson, former residents, are holidaying in Independence.

The best $3.00 hat made, the Conqueror, water proof, for sale by Conkey & Walker.

A box of stationery will please anybody as a gift. Large stock at Craven & Walker's.

The J. E. Hubbards have moved back to town from their ranch.

Treat your lady friend to one of those beautiful lavallieres at Kreamer's.

Oxford traveling bags, real cowhide bags, for $5.75. Can you beat it? Moore & Walker.

American made toys—1000 different articles at Craven & Walker's.

One of the nicest Christmas gifts is a kodak. All kinds at Craven & Walker's.

Equity watches seven and eight dollars each, extra good for the money at Kreamer's.

Miss Lucile Craven, who is teaching near Hood River, is home for the holidays.

Red Cedar chests makes a nice present for the wife or daughter. Moore & Walker.

Leather manicuring sets make nice presents. See them at Craven & Walker's.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Mattison are here to spend the holidays with relatives.

All kinds of dolls and doll buggies for all kinds of girls at Craven & Walker's.

For a Christmas present give a good pair of woolen blankets. You can get them from Conkey & Walker.

There will be a special meeting of the Eastern Star tomorrow (Saturday) night at 8 p. m. Initiation.

We have a fine assortment of small Axminster rugs—just the present a woman wants. Moore & Walker.

For the Working Man—The Jomo work shoe, the best made for the price, at Conkey & Walker's.

Remember father or mother with a nice easy chair. We have over sixty designs to select from. Moore & Walker.

Give that little boy of yours a new suit for Christmas. You can get them from Conkey & Walker.

Mrs. Maurice Butler and little son, Marlow Dole, were taken home from the Salem hospital last Monday.

Good rain coats and slickers. Prices range from $2.50 up. Stop in at Conkey & Walker's and get them now.

Dr. L. Horn of Roundup, Montana, arrived in Independence to spend the holidays with his wife and baby. When he left Roundup it was twenty below zero.

The Isis picture paraphernalia was taken to Monmouth Tuesday night where "Jack and the Beanstalk" was shown at the Normal auditorium.

Mrs. Word Butler spent a few days in Portland with her son, Marion, before his departure for San Francisco where he will be assigned to the radio arm of the navy.

A good pair of warm woolen blankets would be a nice and useful gift for your friend or for yourself this Christmas. Go in and see them at Conkey & Walker's.

A number from here attended the recital at Dallas Sunday night given by the pupils of Miss Tartar. Independence was prominently represented on the program.

"Fighting Odds" starring Maxine Elliott, a Goldwyn picture, at the Isis next Wednesday and Thursday nights, Dec. 26 and 27.

How about that good suit or overcoat for you men and boys? You may purchase a good woolen suit from $10.00 up. For boys $5.00 to $8.50. Good wools and good patterns to select from. Go to Conkey & Walker's for them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. Small; Mrs. C. W. Irvine, Mrs. Sarah Young and Misses Gladys Irvine and Leona Hanna went to Salem Sunday night where they attended a musical event—the singing of the "Messiah."

John B. Knowles, a well known citizen of this section of the county, died at his home north of Independence Monday. At his advanced age of 80, he could not combat the dreaded disease, pneumonia. An obituary will be published next week.

M. E. Hulbert of Albany has been appointed manager of the Oregon Power Co. at Independence and is now in charge. Mr. Hulbert is a very pleasant man to meet. E. M. Blenis came over with him and introduced him to the office, machinery, etc.

S. W. Leonard will hold a public sale on next Thursday, Dec. 27, at which time he will sell five head of horses, 18 head of cattle, farm implements, furniture, etc. It will be the largest sale held in this section this year. After the sale the Leonard family will probably spend several months in California.

J. F. Currie, the Monitor's tried-and-true handy man, went to Portland yesterday being called there by a large printing company to superintend the printing of a very delicate job, one which evidently no printer in Portland felt competent to handle. Much work from Portland comes here "for Currie to do." He will return in a few days.

A Delayed Shipment of Ladies' Collars

50 to 75c Values

Special for Today 20c

We wish to thank the people of Independence and surrounding country for their liberal patronage

A Merry Christmas to All

Quartier's

5, 10 and 15c Store, - Independence, Ore.

Your soldier boy would like to read his home town paper. Either you send or let us send the Monitor to him.

THE POPULAR CHRISTMAS GIFT

The Electric Iron

Is the Practical Gift for Christmas

For the Stay-at-home—for the regular weekly wash.

For the Traveler—for those quick pressings of crumpled frills so necessary when dressing for dinner.

For the College Girl for those many little treasures she dares not trust to the laundry.

The Electric Iron has its uses at all times and seasons.

We wish a Merry Christmas to our many patrons.

Oregon Power Co.

"RELIABLE SERVICE"

All Ready for Christmas

Before you select all your Christmas gifts call and see my new line of very select Jewelry, just arrived from the eastern markets.

The very latest in beautiful Cameos, Lavalliers, Cuff Links, Ear Drops, Lingerie Clasps, Walderman Chains and Knives, Bracelets, Fobs, Locketts and Chains, etc. Can't name them all.

COME AND SEE.

It costs nothing to look and I am always pleased to show and give prices.

EVERYTHING GUARANTEED.

Watch and Jewelry
Repairing a Specialty

D. H. Phillips

First Anniversary

of the

THE BUNGALOW CASH GROCERY

About a year ago a CASH GROCERY was started in North Independence, the first store in that locality for thirty years.

It will be our aim to make this first anniversary one to be remembered by giving to the public an opportunity to buy groceries in harmony with the economical tendencies of the Times.

This will be headquarters for Santa Claus during the next few days for Candies, Nuts and Groceries of all kinds.

Holsum Bread, Crane's Patent Remedies.

A MERRY XMAS TO ALL.

Phone 7311 J. G. McIntosh Auto Delivery