

Local and General.

Hay, Oats, Lime and Cement a Harris' Grocery.

Do not be afraid to inform your local paper of the little events at your.

Fresh, reliable grass seeds at bottom prices. Harris' Grocery.

A Spanish proverb says "women and rather are not to be trusted."

Fine Kimball organ for sale cheap, at the Oregon City Auction House.

John Babich, who was arrested for trying to kill Edmund Kinney by shooting him in the back of the head, had a hearing Saturday before Justice Jesse, at Barlow, and was bound over to appear before the grand jury in the sum of $500.

Girl Waste—For housework in a small family. Apply at this office.

The members of the legislature of this county came down from Salem Saturday returning again Monday morning.

The Oregonian is kept on file at this office for the benefit of our patrons.

Frank Jagger, who was arrested for driving a threshing engine over a bridge, will have a hearing next week.

Only high class sewing machines for $25 at Bellomy & Busch's, on easy terms.

John Barth and J. N. Harless had a hearing Monday before Justice Schnabel charged with driving a threshing engine over a bridge.

Highest cash price paid for second-hand household goods, at Bellomy & Busch's.

Geo. Blahn, a native of Canada, was admitted to full citizenship on Tuesday last week.

A fine line of Suvaina rugs has just been received, at the Oregon City Auction House.

Max Schmitt, a native of Germany, was admitted to full citizenship on Saturday.

Genuine Java, roasted coffee 20 cents per pound; Arabica coffee 10 cents per pound at Harris' Grocery.

Chas. T. Toose has been permitted letters of administration of the estate of Christian Swartz, deceased, the estate being valued at $1500.

Sugar has advanced again, but we are still selling 20 pounds light brown for $1.00. Harris' Grocery.

The heavy rain of the past few days has raised the river about 2 1/2 feet, which makes the water now at a good boating stage.

A Mason & Hamlin parlor organ, with double set of reeds for sale on easy terms at Oregon City Auction House.

The receipts in the clerk's office for the month of September were $288 and for the same month last year $287.50, and in the recorder's office were $128.80 and for the same month last year $140.80. There has been 55 dead, 33 mortgages and 27 cancellations recorded.

A big line of all-wool ingrain carpets just received, at Oregon City Auction House. Goods sold cheap. Easy terms given.

On Monday evening the annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church was held. J. W. McKay and A. Muir were elected to succeed them.

A Hindu meeting will be held in the Salvation Army barracks on Wednesday night, October 5. Hindu costumes will be represented, and Captain Barbe will give a talk on the Salvation Army work in India.

Deputy Sheriff Jack attended the Butte Creek fair held at Marquam on Friday and Saturday. The exhibits were the best ever placed on show, but the attendance was not up to the average owing to the wet weather.

The Arizans entertained a large number of invited guests at a very royally Friday evening. After the rendering of a very extensive program oyster soup was served in an able manner.

Miss Ida Birkenier commenced a term of school at George this week.

Our school is doing well under the direction of Prof. Young. He has about 40 names on the roll. Through the attendance is not so regular now it will be later on when the older pupils come as they will not be kept away by stormy weather.

Mrs. E. B. Ritz returned from a visit with her mother last week.

From this on we will not have to pay a man to drive the street sprinkler. Thus we are cutting our expenses down.

John Barth went to Oregon City Monday. As he has a steam thrasher it is probable that he went down to learn how to act and be prepared when his turn comes.

Casper Weismandel is digging and hauling his potatoes. He believes in selling when he can get a good price.

Charlie Harnack and Harrison Bair are having trouble over some hogs. Harnack had five hogs stray off, so did Bair. Ingram, of Barlow, took up five and Bair had him butcher them and ship them to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. VanWay, of Oregon City, are back at Marquam renewing their old acquaintanceship. Mr. VanWay is fixing up his house here, and it is to be occupied by Mr. Eby an exister, of Molalla.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

MARQUAM.

Marquam is a lively burg these days. We are surprised that our new pastor should cause such a commotion.

On Thursday Rev. Shulze tied his horse and buggy to a hitching post on the main thoroughfare of Marquam and when Skirin Bros. feed chopping outfit blew their whistle at 12 o'clock, the horse became frightened and tore loose from the post and started down the street and was caught by Ed. Young, when about 5 miles from Marquam. The buggy was badly smashed, but the horse escaped unhurt.

Hardly had the excitement from Rev. Shulze escapade subsided when the Marquamites were again aroused to an intense degree of excitement by the approach of a team of horses, unaccompanied by a guide, coming at a terrific pace, here again the noted horseman Young, assisted this time by Drake, distinguished himself by stopping the runaway, which proved to be a team belonging to John M. Teisen. Julius came in about 20 yards behind, there by securing second place. Who says we lack excitement in Marquam.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. VanWay, of Oregon City, are back at Marquam renewing their old acquaintanceship. Mr. VanWay is fixing up his house here, and it is to be occupied by Mr. Eby an exister, of Molalla.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

MOLALLA.

Molalla is a lively burg these days. We are surprised that our new pastor should cause such a commotion.

On Thursday Rev. Shulze tied his horse and buggy to a hitching post on the main thoroughfare of Marquam and when Skirin Bros. feed chopping outfit blew their whistle at 12 o'clock, the horse became frightened and tore loose from the post and started down the street and was caught by Ed. Young, when about 5 miles from Marquam. The buggy was badly smashed, but the horse escaped unhurt.

Hardly had the excitement from Rev. Shulze escapade subsided when the Marquamites were again aroused to an intense degree of excitement by the approach of a team of horses, unaccompanied by a guide, coming at a terrific pace, here again the noted horseman Young, assisted this time by Drake, distinguished himself by stopping the runaway, which proved to be a team belonging to John M. Teisen. Julius came in about 20 yards behind, there by securing second place. Who says we lack excitement in Marquam.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. VanWay, of Oregon City, are back at Marquam renewing their old acquaintanceship. Mr. VanWay is fixing up his house here, and it is to be occupied by Mr. Eby an exister, of Molalla.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

BARLOW.

Barlow is a lively burg these days. We are surprised that our new pastor should cause such a commotion.

On Thursday Rev. Shulze tied his horse and buggy to a hitching post on the main thoroughfare of Marquam and when Skirin Bros. feed chopping outfit blew their whistle at 12 o'clock, the horse became frightened and tore loose from the post and started down the street and was caught by Ed. Young, when about 5 miles from Marquam. The buggy was badly smashed, but the horse escaped unhurt.

Hardly had the excitement from Rev. Shulze escapade subsided when the Marquamites were again aroused to an intense degree of excitement by the approach of a team of horses, unaccompanied by a guide, coming at a terrific pace, here again the noted horseman Young, assisted this time by Drake, distinguished himself by stopping the runaway, which proved to be a team belonging to John M. Teisen. Julius came in about 20 yards behind, there by securing second place. Who says we lack excitement in Marquam.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. VanWay, of Oregon City, are back at Marquam renewing their old acquaintanceship. Mr. VanWay is fixing up his house here, and it is to be occupied by Mr. Eby an exister, of Molalla.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

MOLALLA.

Molalla is a lively burg these days. We are surprised that our new pastor should cause such a commotion.

On Thursday Rev. Shulze tied his horse and buggy to a hitching post on the main thoroughfare of Marquam and when Skirin Bros. feed chopping outfit blew their whistle at 12 o'clock, the horse became frightened and tore loose from the post and started down the street and was caught by Ed. Young, when about 5 miles from Marquam. The buggy was badly smashed, but the horse escaped unhurt.

Hardly had the excitement from Rev. Shulze escapade subsided when the Marquamites were again aroused to an intense degree of excitement by the approach of a team of horses, unaccompanied by a guide, coming at a terrific pace, here again the noted horseman Young, assisted this time by Drake, distinguished himself by stopping the runaway, which proved to be a team belonging to John M. Teisen. Julius came in about 20 yards behind, there by securing second place. Who says we lack excitement in Marquam.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. VanWay, of Oregon City, are back at Marquam renewing their old acquaintanceship. Mr. VanWay is fixing up his house here, and it is to be occupied by Mr. Eby an exister, of Molalla.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that figure.

The late rain has done a large amount of good, the ground is in fine shape for fall plowing and from the look of the surrounding country nearly every one is taking advantage of the excellent condition.

J. M. Austin is taking the lead this fall, and is putting in 40 acres of winter oats. He has at this time about half of them in, nothing like rustling.

Mrs. E. E. Mooly is in Oregon City visiting and assisting a sick friend. She is not expected home for some time.

The Marquam school will open for the winter term Monday, October 10. Mr. Eby, of Molalla, has charge this term.

It is reported around our town that Chas. Thompson is a regular fixture at the Marquam fair, and some people say he is responsible for the cold run during the fair. Charlie brought 300 pounds of ice with him and every one is curious to know why he did it.

Miss B. Hannon, one of Marquam's society leaders, will leave this week for parts unknown to the common public. Miss Hannon is a very beautiful singer and her intended absence from Marquam is for the purpose of completing her musical education.

Mrs. Larkins, Miss B. Hannon and Miss Eudine Larkins expect to visit the metropolis and see the exposition this week.

Hop growers in this vicinity are still slow about selling. As high as 15 cents has been paid, but a number are holding for an advance on that