OREGON CITY, NOVEMBER 16, 1898

Many articles get into print about the reckless slaughter of game birds by so-called pothunters of season, but not one word has been said about the "true sportsman" who goes out and kills 50 and 60 in two or three days hunt. The men that hunt out of season are usually farmers or their sons, who are compelled to feed the birds. Game birds need further protection by shortening the season and reducing the number to be killed. No hunter should be allowed to kill over 50 in one season. Many hunters now kill several hundred during the season and the birds are getting very scarce as a result.

A letter from Capt. Pickens in another column explains in full what he did with the funds entrusted to him for the members of Company I. This should set at rest any who imagined the funds had been misappropriated. After reading letters from Pickens, Campbell and others from some privates in the ranks one cannot fail to notice, that while the letters are very different in many respects, they confirm each other in regard to the funds. The privates who are most dissatisfied are those who cannot understand it at officers at a salary of $150 per month can live better than a private who relies upon Uncle Sam for his rations.

CORRESPONDENCE

A New Corps of Writers Give the News of the County—A Letter From the Model Village.

LOGAN.

We are enjoying lovely weather, the kind that makes some of the men think of the weather we had back East when I was a boy.

The farmers in this locality are very busy sowing fall wheat. The Literary and Debating Society has reorganized with A. M. Kirshen, president; F. Riehoff, vice president; Miss Wrigley, secretary; J. Sprague, sergeant at arms; Henry Reed, Annie Roudarm, and S. Kirshen, committee on program. The question chosen for discussion next Saturday night is, "Resolved, That the United States Should Own and Control the Nicaragua Canal." This is a question of great importance and should be well studied by all.

Marsh Freake has moved on the place recently vacated by J. Durial, who went to New Whatcom, Wash, with a view of locating.

It is reported that cupid is working on the hearts of two of Logan's young people. We hope to hear wedding bells soon.

Mr. Wells, one of Clackamas county's most enterprising young men, passed through this locality last Saturday.

Miss Lizzie Wilson left on Monday of last week for Sprague, Wash., where she will spend some time visiting her sister, Mrs. Folsome.

Fred Brown is again seen on the streets of Logan.

Reva, Willey and Helma of Oregon City, preached to a very attentive audience last Sunday.

MOONLIGHT.

Rev. Willey and Helma of Oregon City, preached to a very attentive audience last Sunday.

OSWEGO.

Hon. and Mrs. E. L. Mintie returned this week from Livingston, Mont., where they had been for several weeks visiting their daughter.

Last Thursday Wm. Evans and family moved from the old historic Portland House into one of Mrs. Lemery's houses in the new town.

We hear that the foundry is to start up soon on a big contract for new pipes.

Last Tuesday Mr. Habersham of Portland visited Oswego.

Mrs. M. Blanken, who has been ill for a long time, is slowly recovering.

Saturday evening a surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Henninger at their new home. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henninger, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gardner, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. Russel, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Garfield, Prof. and Mrs. H. T. Evans, Hon. and Mrs. G. W. Prosser, Mr. and Mrs. Gower, Hon. and Mrs. F. L. Mintie, Misses Nellie Younger and Ruth Rogers. A very pleasant time was spent with conversation, charades and music. As usual the ladies had provided a beautiful supply of delicious refreshments.

Miss Elsie Walling received several gold nuggets from Klondike this week.

Next Friday evening, Nov. 18th, the Patrons of Husbandry will have a grand entertainment at the Oswego Grange hall.

NOVEMBER 14.

The Christian Endeavor have elected new officers as follows: President, Miss Susie Maroney; vice president, R. Jonsrud; secretary, Edward E. Brunnes, social committee, Joel Jari; prayer committee, Mrs. J. N. Foster.

The Sandy Athletic Club held a very interesting meeting last Thursday evening. Social games were indulged in until 11 o'clock when a delicious lunch was spread. After the rendering of some very nice music by Miss Mable Miller and Miss Julia Wetzell, they departed for their respective homes.

Miss Elgiva Mullin, who is teaching at Barlow, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents at Milwaukie.

Mr. Burkemeiro was in Portland Saturday.

Mrs. Ross is in Portland at the bedside of her daughter, who is very ill.

Miss Edna Ross visited her sister Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos, of Arizona, are visiting at Mr. James'.

A large circle of friends gathered at the residence of Mr. Atwood, of Milwaukie, Tuesday to celebrate his birthday. An enjoyable time was had as Mrs. Atwood is a fine musician and the guests took advantage of their opportunity to hear some good music. Fred Rogers sang a very pretty solo, also Mrs. Campbell, and Mr. Crookshank and Sam Wilson contributed a duet.

A number of Artisans visited the Sellwood assembly Monday night and enjoyed the hospitality of their brothers and sisters.

NOVEMBER 14 WE'ENS.

The frosty weather has come again.

A company of hunters, consisting of Mr. J. and C. Marquam, J. Ross and Mr. Ose returned home from the mountains with two fine deer.

There is one of the items of the last week's paper, I would like to correct in regard to our social. It is to be Nov. 23, instead of the 25th.

Mrs. Johnson, of Washington, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. Garrett.

Former Jones made a flying trip to Silverton this week and on his return was met at the gate by his two children, who said there was a burglar in the house. Mr. Jones told the children to stay out side while he went and investigated and that if there was no more than seven bur-lars in the house he would fix them. Mr. Jones picked up an ax and ran to the door and stood ready with his weapon drawn, and out walked an old hog with its head in a yeast jar. This is the way Mr. Jones killed the seven burglars.

Prof. Boyles, of Willott, spent Sunday with his friend, Warren Gray.

Mrs. Ida Fellers, of Battoville, has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Garrett near Marquam, the past two weeks.

Rev. Sinsloe, of Marquam, while holding meeting at Molalla, was called upon to unite Miss Jennie E. Moore and O. E. Ely at the home of Mrs. Moore on Sunday at 10 o'clock. After a grand dinner and a pleasant time, Rev. Sinsloe and two daughters and Prof. Ely and bride returned to Marquam, where Mr. Ely is engaged in teaching school.

Roy Gray is making a short visit with his parents here to attend his father's bed-d, his father being very low.

NOVEMBER 13.

ELWOOD.

The weather is fine and the people of these parts are taking the advantage of it by getting their crops in while the sun shines. Most of the people have their potatoes dug, but they have not yielded as well as they did in former years.

School is progressing nicely in the new school house, with Miss Waldron as teacher. She is giving good satisfaction.

Morris Cadanow has returned home for a few days' visit.

James Kerens is working at Rocky Point in a saw mill. He expects to build an addition on his house.

Rev. John Park is still making shingles for a living.

NOVEMBER 11, '98. NEXT.

SANDY.

J. Maroney has returned from the toll gate, where he acted as gate keeper.

Jack Deuchler brought the bad news that the house of Mrs. Cooper and all her earthy possessions were consumed by the raging flames. As Mrs. Cooper and her little children are now in destitute circumstances a relief committee solicited for their aid, which was liberally responded to around here.

Dr. Chas. Pyffer was again arrested for being called Dr. without a license. This is the third time an effort has been made to deprive Dr. Pyffer of his title and prevent him from practicing. So far he has never been found guilty and it was only a heavy expense to the county on account of some timid being to satisfy his selfish propensities. Dr. Pyffer has never posed as a doctor and only attended people when compelled to in a case of necessity. The sympathy of every one here is with him and it is hoped that he will win his case.

Last Saturday evening a debating society was organized, with Alva Thomas as temporary president and R. Jonsrud as temporary secretary. The question for debate is Resolved, "That the Sign of the Times Indicates a Downfall of the Government" was selected and A. Thomas and Ed. F. Bruns were chosen leaders for the next meeting, which will be held on Saturday at 7 p. m., November 20.

John Welch expects to leave our vicinity soon. He has accepted Uncle Sam's gift of a home of his own. We wish him success.

L. A. Forbes made a trip to Newberg this week.

Eli Oriswell has moved out to his farm, and is now rustating in our vicinity.

Mrs. Collett is on the sick list. November 9. SCHOOL BO.

MEADOWBROOK.

The place is 15 miles southeast of Oregon City, four miles northeast of Molalla and three miles west of Colton. Here 20 years ago was Cuttingsville postoffice, on the old Cutting donation land claim, and for many years the old strip grist mill was a landmark to pioneers of the Willamette valley. Hon. Chas. Holman now owns this splendid property and Mrs. Holman is the postmaster.

There has been quite a good deal of improvements made in this vicinity during the present season.

Chas. Holman has built a fine granary.

Jas. Hall is erecting a new residence.

F. M. Maughit has added much to the beauty of his already cozy home by the erection of a new picket fence around his lawn.

Miss Laura Wright is visiting friends at Stayton this week.

Last Tuesday Wm. Timmer-tett met with a painful accident while pulling down on a heavy pry pole the pole slipped and crushed his nose quite badly. On the same day R. D. Wright met with a similar accident, except that the pole cut a deep gash on the top of his head.

On Monday the son of Frank Klinger, who was visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Comer, fell from the porch and broke his arm. Dr. Leavitt, of Molalla, set it.

This place has recently offered several sacrifices to hymen's altar. Miss Ada Trelinger has married an employe at Maddock's restaurant and bade adieu to this town, and Collins Williams grew weary of bachelorhood and wed the charming widow of the late Dave Callihan. On the 22d ult., F. E. Wright and Miss Grace Powell, of Molalla, embarked upon the matrimonial sea. How is that for a backwoods settlement?

In a few days Albert Durst, the genial and popular miller at Union Mills, will vacate his old stand and move to Clark's, to engage in the mercantile business. He also contemplates erecting a new roller mill. If he should we'll see him success.

The Colton Literary and Debating Society meets at 7 p. m. on Wednesday of each week. Brenton Vedder, principal of the Colton academy, is president, and the club has an eloquent staff of debaters.

NOVEMBER 12. PHOENIX.

LIBERAL.

Mrs. Deeth is on the sick list.

Silas Wright is putting up a fine wood-shed, which will add a great deal to the appearance of his already beautiful home.

Dan Graves came home on Sunday afternoon brought with him wife and two boys.

Mrs. Jas. Haunegan spent Monday and Tuesday of last week in Portland.

Some of the young people of Liberal and vicinity spent quite an enjoyable evening at Wm. More's on Saturday last, their being games for amusement and a very nice luncheon served.

Johnie Rhodes spent a few days last week in Portland visiting his sister, Mrs. R. Schultz.

NOVEMBER 14. SUNBEAM.

DAMASCUS.

Our little town has been unusually quiet along the line of startling events.

No literary society has been started yet, but have no doubt that that there will be one before long.

The Macabees seem very quiet just at present, do not make the noise they did at one time, but perhaps later in the season they will wake up.

The Rock Creek Sunday school is having well attended meetings. With the officers they have the school is sure to progress.

A very pleasant farewell party was given on last Friday evening to Lewis Dearlof and family, who intend moving in a few days to Mt. Tabor.

Mr. Barton is kept very busy lately. He has finished a large granary and now is constructing a neat woodshed for F. H. Feathers.

Ex-Postmaster J. C. Elliott went to Oregon City Monday on legal business.

F. M. Osborne and wife made a flying trip to the county seat Monday.

CAPTAIN PICKENS

Writes and Explains How the Money is Used.

The Men in Good Health and in no Need of Assistance—Quite a Fund on Hand.

MARIA, PHILIPPINES, Oct. 3, '98. Mrs. M. Jennie Sullivan, Treasurer Meale Corps Volunteer Auxiliary, of Oregon City, Or.—Dear Madam: I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of post office money order for the sum of forty dollars, ($40). Many thanks for the same. We did not need the money, as I have on hand nearly $270, and besides we have something over $60 in savings from our rations. We now get more food than we can eat, so we sell the surplus and make a fund of it for future use.

This money or fund, which has been furnished us by kind friends in this case of considerable annoyance to me. Some of the men think I ought to dish it up to them and let them spend it in having a good time. I have my own notions as to how it should be handled "and thereby hangs a tale."

Those kind of men think they are not getting what is their share. Yet all the fresh bread, fresh beef and vegetables to eat all the while we were in San Francisco was bought out of that money.

On the Sydney coming here I had to pay over $30 for meals for the sick.

In the company I have organized a hospital corps. The members are Sgt. Stillman, Privates Norris and Poindexter; this is for the men, who are ill enough to go to the hospital, but who need particular attention to feed, etc.

We have a large chest, (with a lock), an ink-keep, a good tin, such as bed tea in cans, soup, rice, crackers, eggs—anything in fact that we can find that is good for sick men.

One of the four men goes on duty as nurse each day, as here is never a day with no sick. So you can see that there is a little stream of good things going into the chest and out again all the time.

If I should let my money, which has been entrusted to me, be wasted, we would soon be without these necessities, and the Lord only knows when we will get out of this snarled, fever-buried lot, which mars our fair earth.

By the way, speaking of Rea Norris as one of the nurses, I want to particularly mention his name. He has the largest heart of any one I know; always looking out to do something for a sick comrade, and he does it like a professional; besides he is a thorough soldier down to his dirty, and when things come rough, he takes his medicine like the true soldier he is. Poindexter also deserves mention for care and kindness to the sick. With two or three exceptions, I am proud of all my boys. There are many, who will receive mention later.

Kindly tell all who wish to, that they can with perfect safety, send money to their friends by post office order, and if anyone wishes to send money to the relatives they can do so direct in their name just as safely as if they were in San Francisco.

It is very unkindly here, and we have 12 to 20 sick in the company nearly all the time. Six are now in division hospital mostly Albany, Or. men. All owe us getting well, but not one is dangerously ill now.

I think I have given you all the information possible as per your request. We are all delighted to know that so many at home think of us.

All the boys unite in saying that there is no place like Oregon and no people like Oregon people.

I also want to mention the fact that the story published in the New York Sun that derogatory to this regiment is a base fabrication, without one word of truth and a little piece of spite work on the part of Mr. Davis, the Sun correspondent. He talks about the discipline of the navy and among the regulars a simply "rot!"

I think our regiment very favorably compares with any in the Eighth Army Corps.

Again thanking you all for your kindness, I remain, very respectfully and sincerely yours,

L. L. PICKENS. Capt. Co. 12th Oregon U. S. Vols.
