OREGON CITY, NOVEMBER 30, 1908

THE CITY ELECTION.

On Monday, the 5th of November, Oregon City will elect a new set of city officials.

At present the principal interest is centered in the candidates for mayor. This can be accounted for in the speeches made by the candidates in accepting their nominations. They promised, if elected, to carry out exactly opposite policies. Their language was plain and unmistakable and showed both gentlemen to have the courage of their convictions. The only thing left is for the citizens to decide which policy they wish to be governed by.

Mr. Latourette took the ground that "the city should be provided with amusements with a due regard for the protection of the youth, so it will not be necessary to go elsewhere for amusements." That is certainly subject to but one construction—vicious amusements are the only ones from which the youth should be protected.

Now, as to his financial policy, "Oregon City is prosperous and no rigidly policy of government should be favored, but one with a view to the growth and prosperity of the city." This is similar to the policy pursued prior to 1897, and under which the annual increase in the city's debt amounted to about $800. The taxes must be increased to make it less now under a similar form of government. At present our taxes amount to 40 mills.

Let us turn our attention to Mr. Koerner and his policy as outlined by himself. "If elected, I will carry on the affairs of the city on the same lines as my predecessor, free of extravagance and licentiousness of every form."

Any schoolboy can understand that. There is no equivocation or evasion to catch votes. We all know the policy pursued during the past two years by which the city was rid of excessive vice and the floating debt was materially reduced. The election of Mr. Koerner means a still further reduction of our city debt, and consequently reduced taxes and a continuation of our present frugal and economical expenditures along the line, and consequently increased taxes.

The taxpayers and fathers of our city are masters of the situation and can and will say by their votes which policy is to be adopted. This is no personal matter between the candidates, but one solely regarding the good government of our city. There is no middle ground. Fathers, mothers, taxpayers, how will you decide?

Salem is running in debt at the rate of $10,000 a year. Wherever the office seeking spirit is uppermost that place is more likely to incur debts which will be difficult to pay—Salem Sentinel. Oregon City had a similar experience from 1892 to 1896, but the election of Mayor Canfield and the adoption of the economical and moral policy, the system has undergone a complete change. The city's debt was materially lessened during the past two years.

The nominees for councilmen are all young men, full of ambition. Mr. Straight, the present incumbent, has conducted the affairs of the office in a highly satisfactory manner in the past and if elected will continue along those lines. Mr. Hyatt is an untired man in public office, but has held many social positions, performing the duties with fidelity.

Mr. Koerner has been chairman of the finance committee and by his care in supervising the expenditures of the city funds has gained the reputation of being "the watchdog of the treasury." He is entitled to much credit for the reduction of the city debt.

Are the city taxes too high? Koerner is pledged to reduce them. Are the city taxes too low? Latourette is pledged to increase them.

ACTIVE SOLICITORS WANTED everywhere for "The Story of the Philippines" by Murat Halstead, as Official Historian to the War Department. The book was written in army camps at San Francisco, on the Pacific with General Merritt, in the hospital at Honolulu at Manila, in the insurgent camps with Aguinaldo, on the deck of the Olympia with Dewey, and in the rear of battle at Manila. Contains a series of beautiful original pictures taken by government photographers on the spot. Large book as large as the Bible. Freight paid. Credit given. Depositions, affidavits, legal books, Oath books, Address, F. T. Barber, Sec'y, Star Insurance Bldg., Chicago.

LOGAN. Good weather is past and we must accustom ourselves to gloomy days and long dismal evenings. Thanksgiving was observed as usual by the good people of Logan, and many were the turkey dinners.

Mr. and Mrs. Eichhoff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bivers and W. Austin spent Thanksgiving day very pleasantly at Mr. Hutchins'. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Salisbury, the late bride and groom of Gladstone, spent several days last week visiting their uncle, M. H. Rishhoff.

Mr. and Mrs. Hampton came to their home last Wednesday. We bid them welcome. Harding Grange is preparing a fine program to be given Saturday afternoon, December 3. A good time is expected as Logan can boast of peculiar circumstances to make their ability known.

Quite a number of young people visited the literary and debate at the Hatchery school house last Saturday evening and spent a very enjoyable time. Much interest was shown by the young people of the district, which adds so much to the success of the evening. Rev. Nutley, of Portland, preached to a very appreciative audience last Sunday at the Baptist church.

MOONLIGHT. Thanksgiving was a beautiful day and your correspondent feels thankful for that if he had no other cause for thankfulness, but one can enjoy life when their surroundings are just such as they are content with.

Mrs. E. Dodge and son, Ross, made a flying trip to Liberal last Sunday. They went to see Mrs. Dodge's grandsons, the Graves twins. John Welch has left us and gone to the Santiam country, where he will make his future home. Mr. Frank is moving away from our vicinity.

Elmer Mayville, of Liberal, is working for Ephraim Dodge in the shingle mill. Arthur Forbes went hunting Thursday. He thinks this a good place to hunt in, but the finding is not so good as the finding of a game. The Maple Lane Literary Association was almost drowned out last Friday night, but they expect to swim to light.

MILWAUKIE. Another of our lodges entertained about 50 guests from Portland. What is the matter with our new professor? He wears a long face and says he is misquoted. Miss Ross reports her sister improving.

Several new men have been able to get to the East Side Railway Company's list. F. O. Paine has departed for Eastern Oregon on a pleasure trip, after which he will visit his home in the East. A very nice party was given to Miss Rose Scott last Wednesday evening by her friends. An elegant supper was served by experienced and witty waiters. All expressed a delightful time and wished Miss Rose many happy returns of this pleasant occasion.

W. Shank is taking a few days outing. Some of the ladies of the lower part of the city are planning to think this through the street for the car barn about $30 every morning. Cap. has been out fishing, please leave orders for fish. Lovel Royal and Thompson Melrinn have returned from a two weeks' outing. They brought back a couple of deer as compensation for their trouble.

Miss Alzo Watkins, of Portland, is visiting Miss Edna Ross. November 26. COLTON. We hear no complaints about dry weather around Colton.

The Colton Debating Club is having very lively discussions this winter. The next question for debate is Resolved, "That the Red Man has been Badly Treated." J. Gorbett was chosen as leader on the affirmative side and P. Gabriel on the negative. The society will give an entertainment and basket supper on the evening of December 28.

Wm. Hannon, hatched a fine lot of hogs last Tuesday. A. L. Bell and family have moved on the Jackson place. Bert Palmer and Gus Gotthard are cutting logs for Timostat and Hanson saw mill, which is running at full blast. J. Gorbett is putting up a new picket fence, which will greatly improve the looks of his farm.

Frank and Susie Arnett are home from the Columbia, where they have been employed for some time. Frank Robson and Pres and Dell Bannery returned from the mountains yesterday with a fine deer. The people of Colton will endeavor to build a hall this winter. We hope they will succeed as this part of the country is greatly in need of a place for public meetings without disturbing and causing disorder among the school boys.

The citizens of Colton and joining neighborhoods held a meeting last Saturday for the purpose of forming a co-operative system, with the view of purchasing a portable saw mill to be used for the benefit of our already impassable roads. J. Harrison made a flying trip to Portland last week. November 26.

BEAVER CREEK. The Beaver Creek Literary Society meets every Tuesday evening at 7:30 sharp at the first Presbyterian church. On Tuesday, December 9, we are going to have a pumpkin debate. The question is, Resolved, "That the Man that Plants the Seed Owns the Crop." The side that wins in this debate gets the pumpkin for their Christmas pie, the other side paying for it. Adam Herman was chosen leader on the affirmative side and Chas. Forbes on the negative side. There will also be a good program. November 26.

ELWJOD. It has been raining here almost steadily for the past two weeks, but the rain has ceased and the weather is much cooler, the ground freezing at night and thawing during the day, which will be hard on the fall soan grain. Jack Wallace and brothers and Ames Harington of Hestwood, returned home from their hunt. They must have had good success by the number of deer they took to Geo. H. Koerner to have tanned. S. Baker has also returned from his hunt, but did not have much luck, as he and his party only got two deer and were out a week.

Foster Catman is having trouble with his eyes and W. Henderson is doctoring them, for which purpose he goes to Mr. Henderson's quite often. That is right, Foster, but Mr. Henderson has a real good looking daughter. About two weeks ago Ed. Park went to Oregon City, not telling his parents but what he would be home in a few days, but when they heard from him he had hired to an English vessel for a six months' trip. We are sorry to have him go, but wish him success.

Mat Park and sister spent Thursday evening with G. Kerans. A. J. Grimshaw must be expecting cold weather by the way he is getting up wool. November 26. NEXT. SPRINGWATER. Springwater is prospering. Thanksgiving was quietly, but pleasantly spent here.

Clifford Ship, recently from Easton Washington, has returned to our town. Misses Tennis and Zora Myrdell were the guests of Mrs. B. Tucker last Thursday. Mr. Albright's new residence will soon be completed. We welcome him to our district, but what is our gain is L. O.'s loss.

Dr. Wallen, who has been away from Liberal several weeks, has returned. Master George Lewallen spent Thanksgiving with his uncle, Mr. Hale, of Curriamville. Our farmers are still hauling dried fruit to Portland, where they command the best prices.

There is Sunday school every Sunday at the Presbyterian church, with Wm. Cornett as superintendent. Young people's meeting is held at 7 o'clock p. m., Sunday evenings at the church. The members of the Athletic Amateur Society, which meets Friday evenings at Wm. Lewallen's hall, manifest their interest in the work by the active work taken by each.

Messrs. Livermore have purchased a new chop mill, with which they are doing good work. They will soon have their new saw mill in running order. November 26. AS OREGONIAN. LIBERAL. The ball given at Liberal hall on November 23 was well attended and all report having had a very pleasant time.

Many of the people from Liberal attended the basket social at Malino last Saturday evening. There were quite a number of baskets and all sold well. Edward Young arrived home last Thursday, having spent the summer in Eastern Oregon and Washington. We are all glad to note his return. Miss Blanch Dyer spent the Thanksgiving holidays at her home in Oswego.

Mrs. L. W. Deeth made a flying trip to Oregon City and Portland last week to visit her daughter, Miss H. Brown, who is quite ill in Oregon City. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gerbuser are rejoicing over the arrival of twin girls. All are doing well. November 26. SUNDRAM. VIOLA. Messrs. Hamilton and Walker have built a new fruit dry.

There was a dance given by Mr. Harvey and Bert Mattson on Thanksgiving night. Those present report having had a pleasant time. Some of the neighbors spent Thanksgiving last Sunday evening by leaving orders for fish.

Messrs. Brooks, Allen and Tenny with their families spent their Thanksgiving at Mr. Hankin's at Redland. Mr. Miller killed his pet bear last Wednesday for the Thanksgiving dinner. November 26. GREENLEAF. OAK GROVE. The ball at Liberal Wednesday evening was attended by some of our boys and they report having had a good time.

Mrs. Dan Graves and the twins were visiting at Phil Graves' last week. Our school well has been walled with brick and a new pump put in. This shows that the school board has the interest of the school at heart, and their efforts to make this a convenient and healthful school house should be appreciated by all its patrons.

Otis Morris is working for Mr. Dimick, of Canby. The roads are getting very muddy and the river is rising rapidly. Our school observed Thanksgiving by rendering a short but appropriate program on Wednesday afternoon. The program, though no time had been given to practice, went off well and nearly every one took part. At the close of the exercises Mr. Heinz, the chairman, gave a short talk for the benefit of the teacher and pupils. School was then dismissed for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Most of the farmers here have finished their fall plowing and sowing, and nearly all the wheat is up and looking well. Our teacher, Wm. Hayhurst, has decided to stay on this side of the river during the rainy weather. He is stopping with L. E. Armstrong and family, where he expects to remain this term. November 26.

PEACH HILL. The people of this neighborhood often express surprise that the local newspapers are not reported for the Press. Concluding it was purely due to a lack of energy, and having an energetic streak, we constructed the following batch of news notes. Peach Hill is a beautiful little settlement, situated on the summit of the lofty green mountain that stands just south of Willamette Falls, or about six miles west of Oregon City. It is one of the most lovely spots this side of nowhere. The people of this vicinity can look out over the great valley to the north and south and tell what their far off neighbors are doing without gossiping around his busy friends asking idle questions. The people here have excellent health and enjoy the pleasant breezes that are symbolic of this country.

Mr. Antonio Huffman has accepted a position in Mr. Mink's saw mill. Mr. Krel has contracted to make 400 cords of wood, and now can be heard the song of the saw and ax almost day and night. M. Shuler & S. n are doing a flourishing business getting wool. The old man says he is cutting young again.

Messrs. Pollard and Shuler Jr. made a flying trip to Portland the first part of the week with a four-horse team loaded with sauer kraut. John Kegel had the misfortune to lose his old sword more this week, caused by a shot gun. The neighbors sympathize with him in his bereavement.

Business is progressing, wheat and fall crops are all sowed and wool clipping is the work of the day. The religious people of this community are attending the Baptist conference at Stafford this week. We are glad to see the smiling face of Mr. Eller, the painter, in our section again.

Mrs. Sarah Weber, of Portland, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shuler, the past week. Thanksgiving was passed in the usual old fashioned way by the people here, toasting their skins by the fire while the turkey was baking. Should these items pass perhaps we may try again, for the old saying is, "if at first you don't succeed just keep on sucking." November 26. SUSANNAH. DAMASCUS. Married in Portland, on the 24th inst., by Rev. F. H. Fraint, of Rockwood, Miss Lina Borges, daughter of Carl Borges, and Carl Matthias, son of Fritz Matthias, of Damascus. Mr. and Mrs. Matthias will reside in Portland. Christian Heiser is reported seriously ill.

The masquerade ball in Hillary & Feathers hall on the 24th inst., was a grand success. The farmers of this neighborhood have been tending off their produce and are somewhat behind with their fall work. Fall wheat is looking well. The grain acreage will be about an average, little clearing having been done. November 26. STONE. Not having seen any news from Stone and we wish the many readers of these columns to know there is such a place. So thought we would send you a few notes of our city and its citizens.

Stone is situated, well just as around. We have the suburbs of Springtown, Lower Logan and a very small corner of Damascus. The principal business is Salmon hatching and farming. Any one wishing to know more of the city can call or write. W. Munroper is slowly recovering. His health after a severe sick spell. S. W. Watts wears a very broad smile these days. It is another girl.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Dier, of Molalla, Mr. E. S. Sprague and family spent Thanksgiving with Grandpa Sprague at Redland. Ray, the 2-year old son of L. D. Munroper, is very low with whooping cough and fever. Grace is also quite sick from the same trouble.

The wives of the two Germans, who live on the place formerly belonging to J. Rowan, arrived from Germany last week. School is progressing nicely under the management of Miss McLaughlin. Mr. Hanson, lately from Nebraska, has been taking advantage of the rainy weather while the ground is soft to grub stamps. It takes the Nebraska to rattle things in this country.

Thanksgiving was very quiet in our burg. Some few attended the masquerade ball at Damascus and report a good time. Last Wednesday, while Mr. and Mrs. Dan Griffin were absent from home, their dog and a goose were shot and some chickens taken. Have a good time boys, but be careful of the gun, and would advise you when you leave the city again to go hunting to make yourselves scarce around Mr. Griffin's.

The Literary and Debating Society met at the Hatchery school house last Saturday night. Grant Munroper was elected president, Fred Rishhoff vice president and Miss Mable Byers secretary. The question debated was Resolved, "That Circumstance Rather than Natural Ability Determine Success in Life." Fred Rishhoff was leader on the affirmative side and Wm. Rishhoff on the negative side. After the debate a short literary program was rendered, consisting of songs and recitations. The society will meet every two weeks. November 26. TOXA. HIGHLAND. Highland is still in the lead. Our farmers are most all through putting in fall crops, and all are enjoying the fall rains of wetness. Charles Welch has erected a new building lately.

Eugene Ogden and Miss Mary Manning, of Malmo, were the guests of William Mayhew on Thanksgiving day. Mrs. James Parrish, who has been very ill, is slowly recovering. School is progressing nicely under the management of Karl Elliott.

We hear that John Parrish calls at Geo. Lee's, of Clark, quite often. How about it John? All the Highland school teachers, which comprise the energetic girls of the district, are away teaching their respective schools. We wish them success. November 26. FROM DAWSON. Dr. M. C. Strickland, on Saturday the 26th inst., received a letter from Henry Pusey, dated at Dawson, October 20. The letter had no postage stamp on it, the postoffice having been destroyed by fire a few days before. The postoffice stamp was sufficient to get it through. The loss by the fire is estimated at a half million dollars. B. B. Pusey was commenced at once although his worth is $500 per thousand feet Dawson has a population of 20,000 and all are preparing for the winter which is closing in. The river has commenced to freeze and the boats have quit running. There is sufficient provisions there to last the people three years, the only articles that are scarce being butter, St. Charles cream and tobacco, but nearly everyone has a winter's supply stored away.

A laundry list and restaurant bill of fare were enclosed to give an idea of prevailing prices. Edowing in a few laundry prices: White shirt $1, collar 50 cents, cuffs 50 cents, socks 25 cents, underclothes $1, lace curtains $2.50 to $5, bedspreads $1.50, skirts $1 to $3, aprons 25 cents to 50 cents.
