Fred Hesse, of Portland, was calling on Oregon City friends Thursday. Lester Matthews, of Butteville, was the guest of T. P. Randall this week.

Only high grade sewing machines for $25 at Bellomy & Busch's, on easy terms. Rev. Oberg attended the Epworth League meeting in Woodburn last week.

A Mason & Hamlin parlor organ cheap, at the Oregon City Auction House. Chas. Duncan, wanted in Albany for horse stealing, was arrested here Monday.

J. R. Cole and two sons, of Molalla, were in Oregon City Monday on business. Mr. and Mrs. Muzzy, of Minneapolis, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Doolittle.

Miss Nora Conyers, of Clatskanie, is the guest of her sister, Miss Mary Conyers, this week. Miss Rose Morgan, of Hillsboro, is the guest of Miss Edna Tabor, at Mt. Pleasant this week.

Miss Mollie Holmes returned Friday from Salem, where she had a clerkship during the legislature. Miss Edith Trewavis, of San Francisco, is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Eady.

Mrs. De Parco and children, of Portland, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Cowing, jr., the first of the week. The Christian Endeavor Society of the Baptist church will give an entertainment and social this evening at the church.

Krauss Bros., the boot and shoe men, have inaugurated a slaughter sale to last 20 days. See notice in another column. Mr. and Mrs. B. Tabor arrived in Oregon City Tuesday from Peoria, Ill., and will visit Mr. Tabor's parents at Mt. Pleasant.

Jake (Little) Rueck, of Barlow, was taking in the sights at the county seat on Saturday. Little grain has been damaged in his section. Herman Betke, who was engaged in the butcher business in this city for several months, moved his family back to Oswego last Thursday.

Mrs. J. M. Lawrence and daughter returned to Portland Saturday, after spending the past week with Mr. and Mrs. C. O. T. Williams. A candy kitchen has been opened on lower Main street opposite the Armory. Everything is new, neat and clean, and candy is made fresh every day.

Mrs. Geo. Shipley, of Portland, formerly a resident of this city died Monday after a short illness. She will be buried in the Oswego cemetery. There will be a basket ball game this evening between the business men of the Y. M. C. A. of this city and a like team from the Portland Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. Harry Moody and son have returned from McMinnville, where they have been residing for several months. They will remain with Mrs. Moody's sister for the present. The little son of Grant Olds was severely burned about the hands and head last week. The child got some matches and lighted the flames spreading to his hair and clothing.

Arrangements have been made by the Ladies' Auxiliary for a lecture to be given about the first of next month by Lee M. Travis, an Oregon boy, who participated in the first battle at Manila. J. E. Marks was in from the ranch last week. He does not think fall grain was injured by the cold weather. He has over 100 acres in wheat and while the ends of the plants were nipped, the roots were not injured.

The basket ball game on Friday evening between the Y. M. C. A. team of Oregon City and the Willamette University team was again a victory for the local team, the score being 14 to 9. Case Williams, and Montgomery threw the goals for Oregon City. T. W. Clark returned Sunday to Bandon, after visiting in Oregon City and San Francisco for the past two months. Mr. Clark says there is every prospect that this year will be a good one for the manufacturers.

Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject for Sunday, February 26, "Man." Sunday school at 12:30. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all who desire to attend these services. Representative Geo. Knight, of Canby, was an Oregon City visitor Monday. Mr. Knight states that members of the legislature are only getting in to the ropes when adjournment came. The process of law making is very intricate. "You tickle me and I'll tickle you."

Bachler & Shadel, of Oregon City, have leased for three years the building that has been occupied as Mills' billiard room and will manufacture therein soda water and cigars. The soda plant has arrived and operation will soon begin. One of the families has rented the C. L. Ogle house opposite the schoolhouse.—Woodburn Independent.

Ed. L. Shaw, our night watchman, has been confined to his home this week and Thos. M. Miller has been looking after the peace of the city during the dark hours. Few people appreciated the hardships attendant on being out all night in all kinds of weather and the constant danger one is in from criminals and drunks. The life of a night watchman is certainly not a happy one. If you don't get a letter or paper on the day you expect it, have the postmaster look through all the boxes and down the cellar all also. It ought to be there somewhere and he likes to hunt for it just to please you. If your friend don't write, ease the postmaster. He is to blame. If he tells you there is no mail for you, put on a grieved expression and say, "There ought to be some." He is properly hiding your mail for the pleasure of having you call for it two or three times a day. Ask him to look again.

The funeral of the late C. P. Thore on last Thursday was largely attended both by Oregon City and Portland people. Mr. Thore has been here for the past nine years and during that time was one of the most active business men and promoters of enterprises in the city. He was also interested in mines in the southern part of the state. The floral offerings were beautiful. The services were held from the residence of Mrs. S. Chase, Rev. A. J. Montgomery officiating.

Miss Wilhelmina Joehoke arrived home Saturday from an 18 months' visit to the Hawaiian islands. Miss Joehoke was in Honolulu at the time the Oregon volunteers stopped there enroute to Manila, and took a prominent part in helping to entertain the boys during the time they were there. She was also there when the islands were annexed to the United States and participated in the celebration. Miss Joehoke speaks very highly of the people and country.

Chas. K. Spaulding & Company, who furnish the paper mills at Oregon City with what balm and white fir logs that they use in the manufacture of paper, are rushing the logging business for all there is in it. In an interview with Mr. Spaulding on the boat last week, while on the way to Salem, the publisher of this paper gleaned the following: The company have camps on the Santiam river and Luckamuck, where they are now getting out logs. They had, up to last week, out between eight and ten thousand logs. The company now have the Grey Eagle and the Valley Queen towing logs. The latter boat toting to Newberg. The company is making a perceptible depletion in the forests along the upper river.—Dayton Herald.

Lecture to Woodmen. On Friday evening, February, C. W. Wheeler, grand lecturer, will deliver an address in Weinhard's hall on Woodcraft. There will also be other speakers present and selections by a good orchestra. The Woodmen lodge in this city has a membership of about 250 and is in a flourishing condition.

Fruit Trees Injured. Fruit men who have made a thorough examination of their trees report that many have been killed. The theory is that the warm weather in January started the sap up. The tops of the trees were not frozen only the trunks. Late apples were not affected, pears are injured some and peaches seem to be completely ruined. Theo. Kilen, living near Needy, reports considerable damage in his section.

Probate Court. J. C. Bates, B. A. Benson and C. I. Benson were appointed appraisers of the estate of Christian Morlock. Bartholomew Sullivan was appointed administrator of the estate of Michael Lowell. The estate was valued at $100. Wm. J. King was appointed administrator of the estate of James King, deceased, with bonds at $300. Elizabeth Shey, was appointed guardian of her parents, Silas and Abigail.

THE COUNTY COURT. On Friday the county court met pursuant to adjournment. No business appearing, an adjournment was made until Saturday. On Saturday the board met and made an order that Judge Ryan procure a certified copy of the new commissioner bill. The clerk was ordered to advertise for bids for all county and legal printing. The court made an order that the county officers be authorized to procure any printing or supplies they may need at present.

The Bicycles. The bicycle business is opening up early this year. Burmeister & Andresen report having sold 100 wheels so far. This enterprising firm sold 60 last year and anticipate selling at least 100 this season. Huntley Brothers are handling the Crescent and Cleavelands, making a leader of their chainless Crescent. Chairman Company will handle the Columbia, Hartford and Vidette wheels. Pope & Company will show a line of Imperials. Burmeister & Andresen have the agency for the Victors, Stearns, Rambler, Ideals and Golden Eagles. They have some 40 wheels in stock.

Hoboes in Excess. The country seems to be overrun with tramps from California points. They are in evidence on all sides. Housekeepers have frequent requests to feed them and pedestrians are "braced" for the price of a meal or bed. Several holdups have been attempted, but none were successful. A few have been cleaning Main street. Others will be given an opportunity to clean cross walks and do other old jobs for the city. The performance "What Happened to Jones" at Shively was well attended and enjoyed by those present.

The Candy Kitchen

Fresh Candy Every Half Hour. John Pechacek, Prop.

The Humane Society. The Clackamas County Humane Society has perfected organization and is in a position to do good. The laws of Oregon are especially favorable to work along this line and no trouble will be experienced in securing convictions. The penalty is quite heavy and the first offenders caught will be made examples of.

Following are a few articles of the constitution: ARTICLE I. The name of this society is the Clackamas County Humane Society. ARTICLE II. The object of this society is for the prevention of cruelty to every living creature by all proper means, including humane education.

Section I. Any person may become and continue to be a member of this society by signing the constitution and paying 50 cent annually in the treasury. ARTICLE III. Marriage Licenses. The following marriage licenses have been issued by County Clerk Dixon: Mrs. A. Perrett and Geo. Tacherson on the 15th. Laura M. Knight and W. A. Bair on the 15th. Emma McGeechie and R. Freytag on the 15th. Minnie J. Commer and W. A. Osterhout on the 21st.

MARRIED. FREYTAG-M'GETCHIE—In this city on the 19th inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McGeechie, Miss Emma McGeechie and Richard Freytag, Rev. A. J. Montgomery officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Freytag are well and favorably known here and have many friends. Mr. Freytag is one of Oregon City's enterprising young merchants. They have gone to housekeeping in the house owned by Mr. Freytag on Main and Fourteenth streets.

DIED. PRATT—At Maple Lane, on the 16th inst. Mrs. Pratt, aged 77 years. GILTNER—At the family residence on Church street, Salem, on the 18th inst. Mrs. E. F. Giltner. Mrs. Giltner was a sister of Judge T. A. McBride and United Senator Geo. W. McBride. ROSS—In Portland, on the 18th inst., Dr. Hiram W. Ross, aged 77 years. Dr. Ross was born in Pennsylvania in 1822, and began his study of medicine in St. Louis and afterwards attended the Rush Medical college, where he graduated. He was married in Iowa, and in 1865 came to Oregon. For eight years he practiced his profession in Oregon City and then moved to Portland, where he remained until his death. His death was caused by paralysis, complicated with other diseases.

During my absence I have placed in charge of my office Dr. W. T. Lyons, whom I can recommend to my friends and the public in general, as a skillful and reliable dentist. L. L. PICKERS.

A Gem. The following interview with Hon. L. L. Porter, regarding the county commissioners bill that retires Judge Ryan, appeared in Monday's Telegram. It is a gem and should be framed and hung up by every farmer and republican in the county: "We who had these measures passed have been working for the best interest of the county. But I fear we are being misjudged, even by our constituents, in some instances. The reason the present judge was retired from the chairmanship of the board of commissioners was in order that we might have a man appointed from out of the corporate limits of Oregon City. Clackamas county is not like Multnomah county. Here the greater part of the taxes are paid outside of the city. So those outside voters claim, and reasonably, that they should be represented more than they have been. This has been the cry for years. * * * The people will see that these measures are at their best interests. We cannot afford to antagonize or ignore the rights of the citizens in this county. I have been supported in these changes by representatives of an entirely different party in politics because they know it is for the best."

OLD FRIENDS. There are no friends like old friends. And none so good and true. We greet them when we meet them. As roses greet the dew. No other friends are dearer. Though born of kindred mold, And while we prize the new ones, We treasure more the old.

There are no friends like old friends. Whose we dwell on roams. In lands beyond the ocean. Or near the bounds of home. And when they smile so glad, Or sometimes frown so gloom, We fondly wish those old friends Were always by our side.

There are no friends like old friends. To help us with the load. To help us bear our journey. 'O'er life's narrow road. And when unrequited sorrows The weary hours invest, The kindly words of old friends Are always found the best.

There are no friends like old friends. To calm our fretful fears. When shadows fall and deepen Through life's declining years. And when our faltering footsteps Approach the great divide, We'll long to meet the old friends Who wait the other side. —David Banks Siskie.

Serving a Hot Spell. The man who has spent a good deal of his time in political life remarked: "Nobody is satisfied with his lot in this life. A man's hopes and desires keep constantly shifting. I can remember the day when I thought that if I could only reach my present position in the world I should be perfectly happy. "And what do you yearn to be now?" "The driver of an ice wagon."—Washington Star.

So Thoughtful. Helen—Oh, yes; he always thought the world of me. Before we were married he used to say that he was willing to die for me. Nellie—But he didn't. Helen—Of course not. He was so thoughtful, you know. He said that he did not dare do it lest I should be unable to replace the loss.—Boston Transcript.

The Ultimate Consumer. "Ah, I see," exclaimed the wandering harper, as the medieval baron helped himself to another horse which wasn't his, "you are making a name for yourself." The feudal lord shook his head. "No," he replied, "not for myself. For some American heiress, yes."—Detroit Tribune.

Evadne, after failing many times to reach a desired goal, arrives at this conclusion: "Just do a thing and don't talk about it. This is the great secret of success in all enterprises. Talk means discussion, discussion means irritation, irritation means opposition, and opposition means hindrance always, whether you are right or wrong."—Heavenly Twins.

The oldest lock in existence is the one which formerly secured one of the doors of Nineveh. It is a gigantic affair, and the key to it is nearly 3 1/2 feet in length and of the thickness of a four inch drain tile.

JIAL QUEEN. "Who would ever believe that she is the mother of five children?" These were the words that caught the ear of the Woman Reporter as she moved among the throng at a fashionable reception. Just before her stood the hostess, a young-looking, handsome woman receiving her guests with that air of hearty vivacity and enjoyment which all the world considers as the special prerogative of youth. There was sparkle in her eyes, a soft clear natural color in her cheeks; she had a firm and rounded form, and that steady, easy poise of the whole body which betokens strong limbs and healthy nerves. It was the Reporter's business to be curious; moreover, she was a woman; and receiving gracious permission to call on the following day, she duly presented herself armed with a hundred such questions as only a woman can ask. "Yes, I have five children" said the hostess, with a tone of earnest happy pride; "hope I'll have five more. I love every one of them. They are good children too, a comfort to me all the time." "You can't understand it of course, and my friends wonder that I keep my health and strength and do my work; but that I take care of myself is the reason. I never used to be strong. I was thoughtless and careless. After my first baby came I was all broken down and prayed that I might never have another, but I have learned better and I am stronger now than I ever was in my life." "Women break down because they go without the little extra help they need to tide them over hard places. When a woman expects to become a mother she ought to be at her very best. But that is exactly the time when most women feel weak and sick and miserable. They grow melancholy and anxious as the time approaches and when it comes they have no strength or stamina of body or mind to go through the ordeal." "No wonder they suffer and nearly die sometimes, and are all broken down for months or years. If they would take the right care of themselves and strengthen themselves in a natural way, they would never suffer as they do; and instead of needing to have children they would welcome them as a real blessing." "It is simply a case of a 'stitch in time saves nine' or rather nine hundred. A little natural reinforcement at the time when baby is expected will save months, perhaps years of suffering and weakness. At such a time I always take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; it invariably gives me the strength and healthy nerve-power which a woman needs to bring her baby into the world safely and comfortably." "It is the most wonderful thing in the world to build up a woman's nervous system and strengthen the special organs of motherhood. It gives you the recuperative power that a woman cannot get in any other way. It carries you through the nursing time beautifully; it helps you to nourish the baby and make him hearty and strong too. My four younger children are the sturdiest youngsters you ever saw. This one grand 'Favorite Prescription' has made me the healthy, happy mother I am." "I can tell you of a dozen women who have had almost the same experience as mine. I saw a letter written by Mrs. Jennie J. Jackson, who lived at Ferguson's Wharf, in the city of Washington, Va. These are her own words: 'I have enjoyed better health since taking Dr. Pierce's medicine than I have since I have been married. I can work hard all day and sleep well at night. I was almost gone when I wrote to Doctor Pierce three years ago. I had a terrible trouble very badly, but thank the Lord, I am very well now. My doctor did not have any faith in 'patent medicines,' but he says, 'something has done you good.' I tried many different medicines and got no better until I tried Dr. Pierce's medicine. The first bottle gave me ease. I have taken six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and I feel as well as ever in my life, and can work hard all day and do as much walking as I ever did. It was nothing but a skeleton. I was so thin in flesh that it hurt me to lie down." "I think Dr. Pierce has done more toward making healthy, happy women than any other man in this country." "If you want a heavy cloth-bound copy of the book, like this one, picking up and exhibiting to the Reporter a large beautifully bound volume) send 3 stamps, and address World's Dispensary Medical Association, 65 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y."
