

LOCAL NOTES

W. C. Deneff was a Medford visitor last Monday.

Ed. Binns visited in Medford the first of the week.

Dr. R. T. Burnett, wife and child visited in Ashland last Thursday.

T. O. Masters, the excellent miner, is down from the Blue Ledge district visiting friends.

Mrs. E. J. Kubli is having a well dug on her property on the corner of Pine and Third streets.

Ex. Sheriff Joseph Rader came down from Eagle Point the first of the week on a brief business visit.

Mrs. J. W. Opp and family moved over from Ashland this week and will make Jacksonville their future home.

Gus Newbery is building a cement sidewalk leading from his residence to the street. And thus does the good work go on.

Earnest Langley and wife have gone to the Crump ranch near Buncom to assist Carpenter Marsh in erecting Mr. Crump's new residence.

Mrs. E. J. Kubli, Mrs. E. B. Watson, Mrs. Howard Killiam and James Watson drove over to Ashland Thursday a la automobile to attend the Pioneer's Reunion.

An operation for a tumor was successfully performed upon Mrs. E. Hostetter at the Ashland Sanitarium last Monday. It is sincerely hoped that she will recover her health.

Judge E. B. Watson returned to Portland Tuesday evening after having spent a two week's vacation in the Applegate country. His family will remain here for a time.

Richard Gaskin visited Ashland last Saturday. He states that Charles Shultz is improving rapidly at the sanitarium, and that "Uncle" Billy Robison is also getting along well.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Crawford of Medford visited in this city last Wednesday. Mr. Crawford was deputy sheriff under Jos. Rader, but is now employed at the First National bank of Medford.

George F. Troutwine and associates of Clowersville, N. Y. purchased the Oregon Bell mine at Sheriff's sale last Saturday for $1168, and, it is stated, will soon begin operating that valuable property.

Mr. and Mrs. Biegel, and Mrs. Biegel's mother of Ashland, were Jacksonville visitors last Wednesday. Mr. Biegel and his partner, Mr. Schuble, have the contract for doing the plumbing and steam fitting at the new county poor farm.

Ed. Faucett, who has been the estimable superintendent for the Pennsylvania Mining Co., was in this city last Thursday. Mr. Faucett states that he is no longer connected with that property and that John Somerville, the mine manager succeeds him.

A. T. Lundgreen is down from the Blue Ledge district. Mr. Lundgreen has just completed a tunnel on the Blue canyon group of claims for Page & Green of Medford. He states that a number of new strikes have recently been made in the district, and that some new ledges have been discovered that will prove to be very valuable.

The Opp mine will soon be running full blast again, as John W. Opp, who was recently appointed receiver, will be at the helm in the future, and will, no doubt, make a success of the property. Mr. Opp thinks that the Opp Consolidated Mines Company will pay all their indebtedness in full, but whether such takes place or not, Mr. Opp will remain at the head of the mine.

Mayor Britt visited at Medford last Tuesday.

Everybody, more or less, will take in the circus today at Medford.

Mrs. Ed. Weston of Medford has been visiting Mrs. Maggie Bradford in this city.

LOST—A Laughlin self-filling fountain pen. Finder please leave with C. P. Briggs, City Drug Store.

John Devlin and wife of Applegate returned last Tuesday from a visit with their son, John, at Portland.

A. Throckmorton, the prosperous and progressive rancher of Ruch, was a business visitor in this city last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Reeves returned the first of the week from a couple of month's vacation trip on Williams creek.

Frank Robison and wife returned the first of the week from Cinnabar springs, as did also Gus Newbury and S. P. De-Roboam.

Mrs. John Rapp and children from Eastern Oregon are visiting with Mrs. Eaton and family. Mrs. Rapp is Mrs. Eaton's daughter.

J. W. Marsh and family have gone to the Crump ranch near Buncom where Mr. Marsh has a contract to build a residence for Mr. Crump.

P. D. Norton, A. C. Hough and George Durham, three Grants Pass attorneys, were transacting business in this city last Saturday.

Ed. Russell and wife of Forest Creek returned Monday from their vacation trip to Forest Grove. They have been visiting for a couple of months.

Mayor Reddy of Medford has telegraphed E. H. Harriman, inviting him to visit a short time in the Rogue River valley. He will probably accept.

After an adjournment of several weeks, the members of the order of Eastern Star will again meet at their lodge room next Thursday, Sept. 5.

Elmer Hoefs and Oscar Dunford returned last Saturday night from Newport. They report a pleasant time and say Newport is fast becoming a great resort.

George Davis returned Monday from Portland. Mr. Davis says the defunct Oregon Trust & Banking company's institution will pay its depositors dollar for dollar.

S. E. Dunnington, W. C. Deneff, et al returned last Sunday from their hunting and camping trip. They state that they would have stayed longer, but between the fleas and the hogs they had to seek other quarters.

Studies at St. Mary's Academy will be resumed on the 3rd of next month. We are informed that the attendance this season will be as large, if not larger than ever before. This institution enjoys a reputation to be envied by larger and more fastidious colleges.

It was rumored the first of the week that the Condor Water and Power Co. had sold its dam at Gold Ray and all of its holdings in Jackson and Josephine counties to the Gold Hill Canal Co. for the sum of $350,000, but Dr. Ray denies the story.

There were so many Jacksonville people who attended the Pioneer Reunion at Ashland Thursday that it is very probable that we have missed a few of them. Here are among those who left Thursday morning: C. C. Beekman and wife, Judge G. W. Dunn, Miss Mollie Britt, Mrs. A. Elmer, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hanley, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Taylor, Miss Josephine Orth, Mrs. Mary Berry, Gus Newbury, T. Cameron, Miss Alice Hanley, Miss Iessie McCully, Mrs. O. Harbaugh and Mrs. C. Prim.

Send your orders for sheet music to Singler's Music Store, Medford.

"In the good old summer time" is the greatest danger of fire. See Daily & Briggs for Fire Insurance.

Victor Plymale and Grace Loar of Medford were married at the court house last Saturday by Circuit Judge H. K. Hanna.

Miss Corinne Linn accompanied her brother, George Linn, to Eugene the first of the week where she will visit for a few days.

Mrs. R. T. Burnett, wife of the ever popular county recorder, returned last Saturday from Spokane where she has been visiting for several months.

L. J. Gay, vice president of the Cumberland Coal Company, of Seattle, left for his home last Thursday evening. Mrs. Gay will visit with her father, D. Linn, for a few days.

Mrs. Julia Manyon of Kentucky, cousin to Arthur and David Thompson, and her brother Joseph Brussler of Fresno, Cal., visited a short time in Jacksonville this week.

The Epworth League social that was advertised for last Saturday at the court house lawn failed to materialize owing to the inclemency of the weather. It has been postponed indefinitely.

A report comes from Butte Falls to the effect that the saw mill there has been closed down and the employes are looking longingly Canadaward where one of the principal owners went with the funds.

A number of old time citizens of Jacksonville went to Ashland last Wednesday to attend the Pioneer Reunion, among them being Silas J. Day and wife, Mrs. R. M. McDonough, Mrs. Elizabeth Kenney and Mrs. Mary Miller.

District Attorney A. E. Reames has been in Portland for some time and will probably remain there for several days. Just now he is busily engaged in trying to bring order out of chaos in the affairs of the defunct Oregon Trust & Savings Bank.

News comes from the Blue Ledge country to the effect that work on building the tramway from the Blue Ledge mine to Seattle B.A., the smelter site, has commenced. So it begins to look like the building of the smelter soon will be a sure thing.

I. D. Tower of Seattle, was in this city the first of the week. He was looking over the country with a probable view of locating. Mr. Tower visited W. I. McIntyre's orchard and stated that the fruit was the finest he ever saw. He purchased several boxes of peaches and shipped them to his home in Seattle.

The exchanging of school books run grade for grade. For example, an old third reader and 20 cents gets a new Wheeler's Graded Reader, and so on. This is strictly cash. Parents sending their children for books must send the cash. Positively no credit on school books. New Reader 45 cents each, etc.

CITY DRUG STORE.

Although Grants Pass rang in a few first team players on the Jacksonville second team last Sunday and endeavored by every hook or crook to defeat our aggregation of baseball wonders, it didn't work. Our boys were right there from start to finish. The score was three to four in favor of Jacksonville. It sometimes, most always comes that-a-way. Young McIntyre handled the spheroid last Sunday in a heart-breaking manner. They got only three hits off him, while our boys succeeded in knocking the everlasting daylight out of the ball for the Grants Pass kids five times. It is said that "Little Mac" will be a first team winner next season.

Mrs. Kate Hoffman and Miss Iessie McCully visited in Medford yesterday.

Campmeeting services will be discontinued after Sunday night, we are informed.

Henry Maury, one of the progressive farmers of the valley, visited at the county seat yesterday.

C. C. Pursel, the saw mill owner of Little Applegate, was a business visitor in Jacksonville yesterday.

Mrs. J. Nunan and grandson, Donald Russell, have returned from several weeks' vacation at Newport.

The new school books are in at the City Drug store and can be secured at any time now.

It is said that Al. Learned has employed a State Senator to drive his delivery wagon.

Frank Smith left last Thursday for Siad creek to do the assessment work on his group of claims.

Misses Daisy and Mary Wetterer went to Ashland last Thursday where they will visit with friends.

Dr. J. G. Shearer, S. P. physician at Roseburg, visited a few days with his Jacksonville friends this week.

Mrs. R. T. Burnett was quite sick for a few days after her return from Spokane, but is better at this time.

Thomas Lamb returned this week from Klamath Falls where he has been employed for the past two or three months.

The Southern Oregonian and Democratic Times comes to us this week as one paper, and it is stated that the Times will be discontinued.

BIG SNAP—A lot of 2x6's and vertical-grained flooring for sale cheap. You will find this a great bargain.

FRED PICK.

The name tells the story - everybody knows it; everybody likes it; everybody uses it - I. W. HARPER whiskey.

Sold by E. H. HELMS.

The new telephone line to the Sterling mine was completed Thursday evening, and now the wires are being kept hot with calls to and from the mine.

Antone Rose, who has been employed at the Sterling mine, returned to Jacksonville Wednesday. The mine has ceased operations owing to a lack of water.

Chris Ulrich and wife, and Fleta Ulrich and Mrs. Cook returned Wednesday from the huckleberry patch. They got all the berries they wanted—by buying them.

Hall, the "baseball man," Kelly, the "gas man," and Neuber, the "fish man," went on a fishing trip to Rogue River last Wednesday. Circuit court convenes next week.

Editor Putnam took charge of the Tribune last Thursday and while he is unable to devote a great deal of time to the paper at present, yet his initial issue is much better than the paper has been for several months.

Peter Deisch, who has been attending the Ann Arbor Law School, returned to Jacksonville yesterday. He is now a full fledged attorney, and his friends are glad to see him once more a resident of Jacksonville.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church, which has been having a month's vacation, will open its work again with a social meeting at the Parsonage next Thursday afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock. This Society has had a large constituency and it is hoped that all present and former members will come out. Strangers are especially invited; it is a good place at which to get acquainted, and strangers accepting this invitation are assured of a cordial welcome.