

LOCAL NOTES

List your property with the Bank of Jacksonville.

Dr. Hargrave of Medford was in this city Thursday.

Correct clothes for gentlemen at the Toggery Medford.

Mrs. G. H. Gillett of Central Point visited in Jacksonville Wednesday.

John Loudon and wife of Buncom were Jacksonville visitors this week.

Miss Edna Sutherland of Weed, Cal., visited at the Epperson home this week.

C. E. Wolfolk of Grants Pass was a visitor in this city the first of the week.

Adolph Schulz attended to some business matters in Medford last Tuesday.

Attorney G. W. Trefren of Ashland was a business visitor in this city last Monday.

Chief of Police C. A. Simonds of Ashland attended court in this city last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McPherson of Griffin creek visited Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Epperson Monday.

Capt. J. E. Thornton of Ashland attended some legal business matters in this city last Wednesday.

Mrs. C. H. Veghte has returned to her home in Ashland after having spent the greater part of the fall in this city.

Chester Kubli has returned from Squaw Lake where he has been rounding up cattle. While in that region Chester succeeded in bagging three bears, an old one and two cubs.

Chester Knighten received a painful wound in the hand by the accidental discharge of a 22-rifle last Sunday. The bullet passed through one of the fingers, but it is thought that amputation will not be necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rodgers were in town Thursday on the way to their home at Sterling from Grants Pass, where Mrs. Rodgers has been in the hospital for several weeks, but has recovered sufficient to return home.

D. B. Grant has returned from Ashland. He states that at the municipal election held in that city on the 17th, the prohibitionists won out by 81 votes. Mr. Grant was defeated by M. F. Eggleston for the office of city recorder by a large majority.

D. J. W. Robinson returned last Thursday from several weeks' visit at Portland. Mrs. Robinson and daughter will remain at the metropolis for a month or more, while Miss Dorland pursues her studies under one of Portland's best artists.

Al. Steele returned from Goldfield, Nev., the first of the week. He states that conditions are deplorable in that state owing to the trouble existing between the Western Federation of Miners and the mine owners. He will remain here this winter.

S. D. France and wife of Weiser, Idaho, were visitors in Jacksonville last Monday. They are looking for a location and say that if they find the country to their liking, a great many homeseekers from Idaho will locate here. Mr. France likes the country around Jacksonville much better than the valley lands.

Larkin Reynolds received a message on Tuesday of this week stating that his father had died Sunday, Dec. 15, at Culesac, Idaho, at the home of his daughter. Mr. Reynolds was about 75 years of age, and had been in feeble health for some time, having received a stroke of paralysis a few years ago from which he never fully recovered. He was a resident of Jackson county, having spent the greater part of his life in the Meadows precinct where he owned a large tract of land.

Miss Leona Ulrich visited in Medford last Saturday.

Fruit farms of any size for sale by Bank of Jacksonville.

Mrs. T. M. Tungate has returned from a visit to Grants Pass.

John Harr and daughters passed through Jacksonville Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Flagely of Medford visited S. J. Bossum and family this week.

Mrs. M. Peter visited Mrs. Marion White of Medford last Saturday and Sunday.

J. Tucker of Trail creek transacted business at the court house the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Lindley of Medford visited at the home of T. C. Norris last Sunday.

No adulterations at the Boss. When you buy candy there you can rest assured that it is CANDY.

Remember, the Firemen's ball will be held on the night of Dec. 31. Dance the old year out and the new year in.

Mrs. C. L. Reames has gone to North Bend where she will visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. G. Gale.

Mrs. Irene Eaton has gone to the Braden mine where she will visit until after the New Year with her daughter, Mrs. Jos. Pope.

R. H. Robinson and family have gone to Junction City to visit for several days with Mr. Robinson's mother, Mrs. S. A. Robinson.

F. L. Evans, local representative for the Equitable Saving & Loan Association, went to Grants Pass last Monday on a business visit.

Miss Gay Webb closed a successful term of school on Thompson creek this week. She was a visitor in this city on her way to her home in Medford.

Word was received here this week of the death of Charles Warner, who last year was an employee at the Opp mine. A mother, father and two sisters survive him.

George W. Nelson and family left last Wednesday for Summers, Arkansas, where Mr. Nelson will try his hand at farming. Mr. Nelson has sold his residence property in this city to P. J. Ryan.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris J. Kenney returned last Saturday evening from Detroit, Mich., after having spent their honeymoon visiting friends and relatives in the East. They will soon occupy their residence on California street.

District Attorney A. E. Reames, returned last Tuesday evening from Portland where he has been assisting in unraveling the meshes in which the Oregon Trust and Savings Co., have become entangled. He will probably return to Portland again shortly.

Wm. Bybee's ranch property was sold at Sheriff's sale last Monday to satisfy a mortgage held by Benton Bowers, the Ashland capitalist. This leaves Mr. Bybee with nothing left of his former large holdings, excepting his Antelope ranch. Mr. Bowers bid the property in.

Old Hickory Camp, No. 9917 Woodmen of the World of Jacksonville is being consolidated with Medford Camp No. 6013, Medford. There are 26 members in the local camp, but for some reason they have been unsuccessful in making a strong organization, so that a consolidation with the larger camp at Medford was necessary.

Eleven thousand dollars worth of Jacksonville school district warrants have been sold at a premium of 3½ per cent. $7000 worth sold to local people, while $4000 worth were purchased by outside investors. That the investment is a good one there is no doubt, as there is $640,000 worth of taxable property behind the warrants.

15 to 25 Per Cent Off

On all Jewelry. The Entire Stock goes at this Reduction until after the Holidays ...

J. W. Hickel Jeweler

Dr. R. T. Burnett went to Ashland last Tuesday on a business visit.

Miss Osa Saltmarsh has gone to Squaw Lake to visit with friends.

Timber lands for sale.
BANK OF JACKSONVILLE.

Don't forget that the Firemen will give a grand ball on New Year's Eve.

Dr. Bowersox of Ashland was a business visitor in Jacksonville the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barnum expect to leave next week for a few weeks' visit at Portland.

County Coroner A. E. Kellogg of Gold Hill, transacted business at the court house last Monday.

Benton Bowers, the capitalist, was down from Ashland last Monday on business at the court house.

Attorney C. D. Briggs and Court Reporter F. M. Atkinson came down from Ashland last Monday to attend circuit court.

FOUND—A gentleman's gold watch chain. Owner can have same by calling at this office, proving property and paying for this advertisement.

Editor Putnam of the Medford Tribune appeared before the grand jury last Monday as a witness in the case of the State of Oregon vs. W. S. Barnum.

Will Ireland, the Grants Pass real estate man, was at Jacksonville the first of the week making arrangements to have some assessment work done on his claims in this district.

Frank Hull, the Medford photographer and post card vendor, came up last Monday to photograph Buccioni, the Greek, who assaulted a fellow laborer at Steinman last fall. His victim is dying in a Portland hospital, it is stated.

The decision in the case of DeRoboam vs. Augustine Schmidling has been handed down by the supreme court in favor of Schmidling. The controversy was over the ownership of the U. S. Hotel in this city. Mr. Schmidling states that he will dispose of the property.

Gus Newbury, the entertaining and brilliant attorney, this week received a consignment of pear and apple trees which he is planting on his ranch east of this city. He is setting out 10 acres of pear trees and 10 of apple trees. He has also sent 500 apple trees to his Applegate ranch.

C. A. Norton now has his wood saw in operation and is prepared to do custom work in any quantity. He has a fine outfit, and the fact that his home is here, not to mention that he is a cripple, having lost both feet, entitles him to all the local patronage. Read his prices in his advertisement in this issue.

C. W. Conklin was up from Medford on a brief visit last Thursday.

$31,000 will buy a stock ranch of 2000 acres. See the BANK OF JACKSONVILLE.

Try our Laxative Cold Tablets for that cold. Our own special formula.
CITY DRUG STORE.

If you want PURE candies, no glucose, no poisonous matter, just candy, then try the Boss.

Try our Laxative Cold Tablets for that cold. Our own special formula.
CITY DRUG STORE.

Have you any property to rent. We have calls for both town and farm properties.
BANK OF JACKSONVILLE.

We will pay your car fare to Medford and return for every $10 or more spent at The Toggery—Medford's Fashion Store for men.

School was dismissed last evening for two weeks, if the new school building will be completed within that time, three, if it is not.

Miss Emma Wulf, who has been visiting friends at Red Bluff, Calif., for a few weeks, returned to her home in this city last Monday.

Dr. Robinson wishes to announce that he will be in his office at the City Drug Store in the future where those desiring his professional services may find him.

It is intended for those who appreciate quality, for those gentlemen who enjoy a thoroughly matured, rich Old Kentucky liquor - I. W. Harper whiskey. Sold by E. H. HELMS.

C. N. Martin and L. B. Moore of Roseburg were in this city the first of the week. They were summoned to appear before the grand jury in the case of the State of Oregon vs. S. P. Ry. Co.

Mrs. J. W. McDaniel of Williams creek died at the Grants Pass hospital last Sunday at the age of 80 years. The remains were shipped to Jacksonville last Thursday and were laid to rest in the Jacksonville cemetery. Mrs. J. McDonough and Miss Margaret Doran of Anaconda, Mont., nieces of the deceased, were in attendance at the funeral. Messrs. M. T. Galvin, Martin Angel and Oscar Knox accompanied the remains from Grants Pass.

Jim Rogers, blacksmith and all-round man at the Sterling mine, who was in town last Wednesday stated that he shot a grain thief the other night, but was unable to identify him in the darkness. All that remained was a spot of blood and a yell. Thieves have been quite busy lately carrying off grain from the barn at the mine, and Mr. Rogers "laid" for them one night with the above-mentioned result.