

LOCAL NOTES.

FOUND—A door key. Call at this office.

Lewis Ulrich and wife visited last Thursday at Medford.

George L. Davis was a visitor at Medford last Thursday.

GIRL WANTED—At the Taylor House, Jacksonville. Only first class waitress need apply.

Have your scenic work done by Hull, at Hull's Art Studio, Hubbard building, Medford, Oregon.

Mrs. Louise Caughthran left last Sunday for Pacific Grove, Cal., to visit her son for a few days.

K. K. Kubli, a former Jacksonville boy, is a candidate for the Legislature from Multnomah county.

A. B. Cornell, the genial and pleasant life insurance agent of Grants Pass, was in this city yesterday.

J. B. Daly and crew of lady solicitors, representing Twenty-Mule-Team Borax, is in Jacksonville this week.

Attorney E. C. Smith and wife of Medford visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay C. Sexton last Sunday.

Everything new in postals at Hull's Postal Shop. All the latest designs. Hubbard building, Medford, Oregon.

Death to squirrels. Wakelee's poison. 30 cents a can.

Nunan-Taylor Co.

W. I. McIntyre has been appointed agent for Brooks & Son, nurserymen of Carlton, Oregon. Give him your orders.

Will the party who took my stove-pipe shears last Monday Mar., 9th, kindly return them at once?

A. D. HOUSTON.

Of course you can get other things at the Boss, tobacco, cigars, etc., but CANDY—pure home made candy, no adulterations, is the main feature.

FOUND—A gentleman's gold watch chain. Owner can have same by calling at this office, proving property and paying for this advertisement.

The new school house bell has arrived and can now be heard daily calling the youngsters to their duties, learning arithmetic or throwing spit-balls at the teacher as the case may be.

The temperance meeting at the court house last Tuesday evening was well attended and the address of Mr. Knodell was highly appreciated. Norling's band furnished music and the Medford Quartette sang.

The Jacksonville and Medford baseball teams will cross bats at the Medford grounds Sunday afternoon. A special train will leave at 1:15. Dick Gaskin will probably be in the pitcher's box for Jacksonville.

Attorney E. E. Kelly of Medford was interviewing his clients, Charles Walsworth and son, at the county jail Thursday. The Mankins murder case will be the first on the docket of the circuit court which convenes next Monday.

The Jacksonville Shoe Parlor, Smith & Molony, proprietors, is now open to the public. They have one of the most up-to-date stocks of shoes in this portion of the state, carrying every make, quality and kind of shoes that can be asked for, including fancy cow boy boots, miners' shoes, mountain shoes, vici kids, patent leather, Oxford ties and buckle, slippers and everything in their line. They have so arranged their store so that it presents a very neat appearance, indeed, and the people of Jacksonville will no doubt welcome their advent to this city with open arms. J. T. Phlegar, an excellent shoe salesman, is already doing a good business. That they will be successful there is no doubt.

Lemons, the good kind, 30c a dozen at the boss.

Hon. B. F. Mulkey visited in Ashland the first of the week.

M. C. Anderson was over from Phoenix last Monday.

Mrs. Ed. Pottinger visited friends in this city last Saturday.

Judge P. A. Deisch has returned from a short visit to California.

Miss Marian B. Towne visited relatives in Phoenix last Sunday.

John S. Orth and wife visited relatives in Jacksonville last Sunday.

M. Hanley of Butte creek was a business visitor in this city last Saturday.

Fred Rowley of Portland was transacting business in this city this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Reames returned from their visit to Berkeley last Friday evening.

E. Sims and wife of Oklahoma visited at the home of County Clerk W. R. Coleman last Sunday.

Attorney C. W. Skene of Portland was at Jacksonville this week in the interest of the S. P. Ry. Co.

Deputy District Attorney C. L. Reames went to Gold Hill the first of the week to prosecute a tramp for burglary.

A ladies' cape, military style, was lost in or near Jacksonville recently. The finder is asked to kindly leave it at the office of the Post.

P. H. Daily is now confined in a sanitarium at The Dalles and is reported to be getting along splendidly and on the road to health.

D. H. Miller, ex-county treasurer, was shaking hands with old friends in this city last Saturday. He has been absent from Jackson County nearly a year.

Mrs. Annie Broad this week sold her property in this city, consisting of one block, to J. H. Thorndyke of Medford. The consideration was $2000. Mrs. Broad has not yet decided whether she will remain in Jacksonville or not.

The Jacksonville third baseball team will play the Central Point "Kids" at the Neuber & Taylor grounds next Sunday. "Jack" Coleman will be in the pitcher's box for the home team. The game will probably be more interesting than the one last Sunday.

Ulrich Bros., the enterprising merchants, have a half page in this issue. This firm are now opening their spring stock of furnishing goods and certainly they have an excellent line. Their motto is: "Money back if goods are not satisfactory," and they live up to their agreements.

D. B. Russell's confectionery store opening was a great success. Norling's popular orchestra furnished sweet music for the occasion while the sweet-toothed citizenry of Jacksonville swarmed in and out of the store until a late hour. Mr. Russell is more than pleased with the outlook for business at this point.

T. L. Masters and Harold Watson of this city and J. B. Treznor of Medford have leased the old "C. Street Cafe" and will conduct a restaurant therein. Mr. Masters, whose reputation as a caterer is well and favorably known, will act as chef. The Post bespeaks success for these gentlemen. The restaurant will be known as the "Booster."

Blain Klum, the cartoonist, was in Jacksonville Sunday. Mr. Klum has recently installed a stereotyping plant and is already turning out advertising cuts. He will make any kind of cuts other than a half tone, in short order and merchants desiring anything along this line would do well to patronize him. Some samples of his work will soon appear in the Post.

Oranges, Oranges, Oranges, 30 and 40 cents a dozen, at the Boss.

Mrs. Jesse Applegate came over from Ashland last Saturday on a visit with relatives.

Geo. W. Taylor, county fruit inspector, was a business visitor in this city last Wednesday.

Miss Flora Thompson came up from Woodville last Friday to visit over Sunday with her parents.

D. B. Grant went to Ashland last Monday to attend an important session of the Masonic lodge.

$3500—In Sams Valley near Moonville, 20 acres orchard, 7 acres alfalfa. Let us show you this.

DAVIS & SEXTON.

The friends of Jos. McDaniel are glad to know that he is once more able to be upon the streets after a severe attack of pneumonia.

A. T. Lundgren left yesterday evening for the Illinois river in Josephine county where he will transact some mining business.

Capt. F. L. Evans went to Ashland last Thursday to confer with some capitalists of that city relative to the proposed electric line for the valley.

Robert Bond, who is extensively engaged in the chicken business on Forest Creek, was in Jacksonville on business one day this week. He makes a specialty of raising the White Leghorn chickens.

Postmaster Miller has received instructions from the postoffice department to collect for box rent by the first of every month. Ten days before the last day of each quarter a bill must be placed in each box, and if the box holder fails to remit promptly by the first of the month, the box shall then be closed and offered for rent and the mail placed in the general delivery.

If you want to go to a good country, come to Oregon. Write to us for your wants.

DAVIS & SEXTON.

If you want PURE candies, no glucose, no poisonous matter, just candy, then try the Boss.

$2500—Will buy 160 acres, 13 miles from town, 4 1/2 acres in orchard, about 25 acres in cultivation.

DAVIS & SEXTON.

The petition of the anti-saloon league calling for a vote on the question of prohibiting the sale of liquor in Jackson county, was filed with the county clerk Tuesday.

R. B. Dow is the latest aspirant for political honors, he having filed his intention to become a candidate for the nomination of assessor on the democratic ticket.

FOR THE LENTEN SEASON—Columbia river salmon bellies, codfish middles, mackerel in kits, genuine French sardines, Underwood's sardines in mustard, canned salmon, canned oysters, canned clams.

NUNAN-TAYLOR CO.

Harry Hodson of Butte creek was brought to Jacksonville the first of the week charged with a statutory crime. He was given a hearing before Judge Dox and was bound over to the circuit court. He could not furnish the $1000 bond and is now in the county jail.

Another business house will soon be opened in Jacksonville. J. F. D'Erville and wife of Chehalis, Wash., and H. O. Roundtree of this city have rented one of the Ryan buildings on California street, opposite the U. S. hotel, and are putting in a lunch counter and restaurant. It is their intention to serve oysters, etc., and they will conduct a first class establishment. This is something that has long been needed here and the Post bespeaks success for them in their undertaking.

The City Lunch Counter

Will Open Monday, March 23, 1908

To serve the public with what they want
Chicken Tamales, Chili Con Carne
our specialties. Clam Chowder like Mother Used to Make, and several other delicacies that will tickle your palate. Give us a call, see for yourself.

H. O. Roundtree & D'Erville, Props.

... H. M. CAKE ...

Candidate for the Republican Nomination for U. S. Senator

Will address the people of Jacksonville on the issues of the coming campaign as relates to Statement No. 1, at the : : : : : :

Cour' House Auditorium
Saturday Evening, March 28

Music by the Jacksonville Juvenile Band and the Booster Quartette

Everybody Is Invited to Attend