The Medford Charter Upheld by Court's Decision--Jacksonville
Remain Wet

The circuit court room was not well represented by either faction yesterday when court was opened in the Medford charter case. The judge made permanent the temporary injunction granted last week restraining the county court from declaring the result of the election in Medford. Judge Hanna, in rendering his decision said: "I have been unable to find a parallel case on record." After going over the brief filed by W. M. Colvig, for the prohibitionists, and reciting passages of the enactments of the legislature the judge rendered the decision making permanent the injunction.

Judge Hanna held that the people could not enact laws conflicting with the laws enacted by the legislature.

The county was voted on "as a whole" and not by precincts consequently the county court is restrained from declaring the result of the election in the county as a whole. Therefore all precincts voting against prohibition at the election will remain wet until the decision from the supreme court is handed down, which will be in September, and, it is very likely that the decision will be sustained.

Attorney W. M. Colvig filed a demurrer which the judge held until this morning to act upon, but it is probable that it will be overruled owing to the decision handed down yesterday, when an appeal will be taken to the supreme court.

-NEW CASES.

Gertie M. Olsen vs. Ole A. Oleson; suit for divorce.

J. E. Watt vs. John W. Johnson et al; suit to remove cloud of title.

A letter was received by the sheriff Monday, stating that a skeleton of a human being was found about 1½ miles north of the California line near Coles station. The coroner was notified but up to the time of going to press no verdict was reached. It appears that the bones have been there over a year as they are pretty well scattered.

Last Monday a fight occurred between two unknown men near Medford. One was a deaf and dumb man, and his opponent was likewise dumb for about three hours. The deaf man was handcuffed and placed in the county jail awaiting the results of his victim who was taken to Medford for medical treatment. It was thought that a murder had been committed, the Medford authorities telephoned to that effect.

Captain Evans moved his family to Astoria where Mr. Evans has charge of the construction work of a new electric line running from Astoria to the coast.

R. R. MANAGEMENT

Saturday afternoon, ye editor was standing on the little weather beaten platform of the little coop called the depot, a dignified rail road official shouted out "Hey I've got a bill against you I want to collect." Of course this was no surprise because the company quite often collects before the goods are delivered. In this case a demand was made for the goods and they were unable to deliver them, although the goods were in Medford for two days. This is rail road management. That is Rogue River Valley rail road management.

With a well managed rail road between this point and Medford and a reasonable fare, say 5 cents, our city would be the home city of Southern Oregon. Many business men of Medford would move their families here because the weather is more pleasant and the scenic view one of grandeur. But, under the present management of the rail road, what inducements can we offer? Jacksonville has one recourse, until the electric line is completed and that is through the rail road Commission. It was thought by some that the commission has no jurisdiction over this line, but a decision handed down last Friday in Salem, in the case of the Selwood electric line, eliminates all doubt as to the power of the Commission.

One of our giddy youngsters of the male persuasion recently decided to make a formal offer of his heart and hand to one of our representative ladies to whom he had been paying some attention for a time. He cautiously prefaced his declarations with a few questions: "Did she love him well enough to live in a cottage with him? Was she a good cook? Did she think it a wife's duty to make home happy? Would she consult his tastes and wishes concerning her associates and pursuits of life. Could she make her own clothes." The young lady said that before she answered his questions she would tell him of some negative virtues she possessed. She never drank, smoked or chewed; never staid out all night playing billiards never lounged on street corners and ogled giddy girls; never "stood in" with the boys for cigars and suppers. "Now," said she, rising indignantly. "I am assured you do all these things, and yet you expect all the virtues in me, while you do not possess any yourself. I can never be your wife," and she bowed him out and left him on the door steps to silently meditate over his venture, a wiser man.

PEACE AND PLENTY REIGN IN OREGON
While Cyclones And Floods Seem To Exist Everywhere
Else

While cyclones and floods are visiting the South, East and Middle West, and the rising waters are destroying millions of dollars worth of farm and city property, Oregon is enjoying beautiful weather, delicious fruit, and looking forward with the confidence inspired by assured crops this fall.

On June 24th Portland business men will be the guests of Eugene. A special train will leave for the University town at seven in the morning and the party will participate in the opening of the new depot there, will attend the commencement exercises at the University and be entertained at a reception tendered by the Eugene Commercial Club.

The Oregon Humane Society have in Portland installed nine ornamental drinking fountains at various points. In addition to the regulation drinking cups, places are provided for dogs and horses. Eight of these fountains were presented by citizens of Portland, while the ninth is the gift of the National Humane Society of New York, who are presenting similar fountains to different cities in the United States.

The daily rose show in the lobby of the Chamber of Commerce draws thousands of visitors, while at the Commercial Club huge quantities of perfect blooms are furnished each day by different members of the Club for the decoration of the rooms. Oregon City has occupied the center of the stage during the last week with an especially successful Rose Show and Carnival.

Secretary C. H. Marsh, of the Pendleton Commercial Association is enthusiastic over the future of his city and Umatilla county, and advises that his soliciting committee will not cease their efforts until they have secured $8,000 to give publicity to the resources and advantages of the county.

Base Ball

Central Point failed to make good on the local diamond last Sunday. The local second team proved too heavy for the Pointers, in the last game, defeating them 7 to 2. We have a third team that would like to cross bats with Central Point. Don't laugh, just accept the challenge, and we will produce the goods.

Sunday's baseball game was won by Medford from Ashland by a score of 10 to 9-Tribune. Central Point-Phoenix-Medford combined to defeat Ashland's regular team. Sayles, Ashland's pitcher, was sick and unable to control the ball or the score would have been decidedly different. McIntyre, of the champions, pitched six innings for Ashland and allowed only one run due to an error of the catcher. Medford scored nine runs in the first three innings.

Grants Pass, assisted by Pernoll of the Portland League team, defeated Roseburg at Grants Pass, Sunday.

The Champions have challenges from several California teams, and will probably accept most if not all of them. Chico has a very strong team and with Harry Corbet in the box Jacksonville might have a hard game with this aggregation.

Jacksonville will play Ashland at Ashland July 4. This will be a good game and a good drawing card. The local team is composed of home players and Ashland will not play an all-county team.

Low rates to Newport and Yaquina for the coming season. Excursion tickets to Newport and Yaquina and return June 1st to Oct 15th the S. P. Co. will sell round trip excursion tickets to the above named points good for six months at $10.00 Full information at the depot.

Have your scenic work done by Hull, at Hull's Art Studio, Hubbard building, Medford, Oregon.
