POLITICS

The campaign is getting warm and no doubt the readers want to know the situation of affairs. As we said before we will be fair and give the matter justice.

Some are lead to believe that Bryan and Roosevelt believe in the same system of government. This is not a fact. Bryan advocates free trade, Roosevelt a protective tariff; Bryan believes in the free unlimited coinage of silver, Roosevelt does not; Bryan would dispose of our Pacific possessions, Roosevelt would not. But, the question now is Taft and Bryan, Taft is a believer in the Roosevelt system of government, while Bryan does not, if he did he would not be a candidate for president because it would be useless for him to start a campaign for the presidency without advocating some reform. The people of the United States are not looking for a change unless they believed it would be a benefit.

Both men are good sound business men, and, no doubt, either would do all in his power to advance the welfare of the people, but it is the system of government, which system would most benefit the laboring man of the country? With open ports the American laborer would be obliged to compete with the slave labor of the Orient, again, with free trade our goods, such as are not manufactured in the pauper labor districts, would reach a wider market and would benefit the manufacturer.

PEACE, PEACEFUL PEACE

The European press is talking very piously of disarmament in one-column and in another one can learn of a fine battling being built of sufficient strength to withstand, for several hours, the heavy guns of an opposing fleet. The Hague Peace Congress, translated into modern English means decidedly the reverse. The wine cup supplants the dove of peace and after a heated evening session, frequently interrupted by the "health" of some country, and without considering the question at issue, a very profitable business session closes.

Nevertheless the navy of the world is growing larger, the armour-plate is becoming thicker, and the land force increasing in numbers. With all this activity going on in the armies of the world it is possible that any civilized power is considering peace?

There is one solution, and that is for some government to build a fleet of 100 or more modern battleships and plant the flag of peace before every nation.

It is a strange fact that there are always some smart Alecks who no matter where they are or where they go, they always make it unpleasant for others. If they are on the road you must poke along and take their dust or run horses with them. If you are on the street you must listen to their filthy remarks, if at church or in a place of amusement, then you must put up with the noise of their brilliant thoughts delivered in a stage whisper. In society their wit and puns must be endured. We imagine that our readers have met all this genio and with us will say they are about as great nuisances as the Creator ever clothed in flesh and endowed with the spark called life.

Oregon communities as represented through their commercial bodies and other agencies for advertising, should commence at once to take advantage of the one-way colonist rates which will be in effect from Sept. 1st to Oct. 31. No state in the Union has received greater benefit through these colonist rates than Oregon and at no time in the history of the State were more people expressing a determination to come here to make their permanent home.

District Supt., R. E. Dunlap will conduct quarterly meeting at the Methodist Church Sunday evening. Regular morning services at 11 o'clock by Rev. G. A. Gray.
