R. R. V. TRAIN DELAYED

The Jacksonville-Medford jerk water met with the usual delay Thursday night, only this was more usual, when the engineer-fireman-brakeman-president-machinist-conductor-section boss-office-boy-official started out with a gallon of water, and a few sticks of wood and a broken injector to make the round trip to Medford, he found that the S. P. passenger from Portland was late and there was not sufficient water in the boiler to make the round trip and wait on the late S. P. train, but nevertheless the start was attempted from Medford. After traveling about a mile the engineer noticed that the water was very low in the boiler and attempted to start the injector, but the old faithful injector worked as it has off done before (worked the engineer.)

The engine was backed down, by gravity, to a residence, the fire pulled and the boiler filled by buckets. By this time the boiler was cold and several long minutes passed before the steam was raised. When the beautiful iron horse and palace car entered the city another unexcusable stop was made in front of the court house, and there the Rogue River Fast Mail stopped for the night—for want of steam. Several passengers became disgusted with the thing and walked to this city.

Considering the fact that this is the quietest month of the year in the banking business our banks have more than held their own with deposits. G. L. Davis of the bank of Jacksonville said that on the date of making the bank statement the deposits were smaller than they have ever been before. The next day the deposits jumped from $41,000 to 44,000. If the showing in the next six months equals that of the past six months which is quite probable, our financial institutions will show an increase equal to that of any bank in the state. The Beekman Banking House, one of the oldest in the state publishes its first statement, under the new law, in this issue of the POST. The stability of our banks is not questioned in the least, and are conducted along conservative and business lines.

Jacksonville is on the verge of a building boom which promises to be of no small proportions. Mrs. M. M. Taylor has started on her new residence. About four new residences will go up on Lungren's addition to the city this summer. Stella Levy has just finished a nice residence near the court house.

What is Best for Indigestion?

Mr. A. Robinson of Drumquon, Ontario, has been troubled for years with indigestion, and recommends Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets as "the best medicine I ever used." If troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. They are certain to prove beneficial. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Sample free at Robinson's City drug store.
