OUR NEXT PRESIDENT

The next occupant of the white house must be a man of courage one who can keep up the pace set by Roosevelt—not hot-air courage. Bryan supporters claim that he is a Roosevelt democrat, although Roosevelt don't claim that he is a Bryan republican. The question is simply this: Will the country develop more under a democratic administration than it would under a republican?

The mills and factories throughout the entire country are working now. Should the form of government be changed would they continue to operate? Bryan opposed every plank in the republican platform in 1900, when Roosevelt was the vice-presidential candidate, and now his supporters will tell that he is a Roosevelt democrat. Quite changeable, I think, for a man qualified to occupy the chair of president of these United States.

The Hearst Independent Democratic party will materially damage Bryan's chances, and it is quite probable that Bryan will not poll the vote he did in 1900.

Dear voter, don't be deceived by paid politicians, but cast your vote as you see fit. A great many stump speakers are only machines—that deliver speeches written by men whom they have never met.

After all there is a good deal in talk. Let a man talk dull times and it is infectious, everybody talks dull times. Instead of rustling around to take care of what business there is, they all go sit down and mope over dull times. If a customer does happen to drop into one of these "dull times" stores he actually gets frightened out of one-half as much as he expects to buy, because this look so blue. He catches the spirit of the store and resolves to hang on to all his money with a death grip, even if his business goes to pieces on account of running short of goods to fill up the empty shelves. The bag-bear of hard times should be sat down upon. It is doing more to kill business than anything else. Tell a man he is sick, keep it up, and you will eventually hound him to death.

What is Best for Indigestion?
Mr. A. Robinson of Drumquinn, Ontario, has been troubled for years with indigestion, and recommends Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets as "the best medicine I ever used." If troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. They are certain to prove beneficial. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Sample free at Robinson's City drug store.

The Emerick serves meals at all hours. Everything neat and clean, prices reasonable. 11-17
