The public of this city is respectfully invited to express their views on the water question through the columns of the Post. Make the items short but explain your position clearly. Hand the copy in as early as possible to insure publication in the next issue. We already have a few expressions which will appear in the next issue.

An old and respected newspaper man was in this city recently and expressed surprise at the well equipped plant of the Post. He was shown a piece of job printing and could not believe that such work could be turned out in the state outside of Portland, and very few offices in Portland can do this class of work, as he expressed it. The people of this city appreciate high-class work, and this is the only office between Portland and San Francisco where high-grade printing can be had. Get our prices. If you are contemplating a catalogue, pamphlet, circular, letter head, bill head, cards, in fact anything, just telephone us we will send a man who has held high positions in some of the largest printing houses in the United States to figure with you and assist you in preparing the copy if necessary.
