The bank, therefore that guarantees deposits must guarantee the credit of depositors. It is preposterous; it is impossible.—Ex.

For Chronic Diarrhoea.
 "While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W. Miles, of this place, persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale by City Drug Store.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus. It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. PRICE, 25c. LARGE SIZE, 50c.

There are hours which come into the lives of some when every impulse of the heart is buried under its weight of sorrow. We would not be so forgetful as to fail to give expression to the gratitude which comes from our hearts as we remember the kindness of those who gathered about us during our recent bereavement.

We wish to thank those who sent beautiful garlands of flowers and the friends who have endeavored to lessen our sorrow by their kind words of sympathy.

OBITUARY

Mr. Stoughton P. Jones was of lineal Welsh descent. He was born at Tunkhannock in the state of Pennsylvania May 25, 1831 and died at his home in Jacksonville Oregon Oct. 26, 1908, aged 77 years and 5 months. When but a mere lad he came with his parents to Sycamore, in the state of Illinois, where they located. When a young man stirred with the spirit of a pioneer, which moved so many to come out to this coast in that early day, he found an opportunity to cross the plains in company with others. He first came to California and was at Yreka for a time.

In 1856 he came to Jacksonville, Oregon, where for the most part he has since lived.

On Oct. 16, 1856 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Vandercok Twogood and his married life closes with his death on the very morning of the Anniversary day of their wedding, a united married life of exactly 42 years. To this union three children were born, Belle H. now Mrs. Davies of St. Paul Minn., Emily T. who died when but 5 years old, Louise J. living at the Jacksonville home. Mr. Jones has one sister still living at Sycamore Illinois, his four brothers having passed on into the unseen world before him. Mr. Jones was a man of intelligence and the possessor of many commendable traits of character.

He was a kind husband and father, a good citizen, an unshaken believer in christianity and a future life beyond the grave. Weeks before he passed away his excessive sigh and talk was of going home.

His funeral took place on the afternoon of Oct. 27. The services were conducted by the Presbyterian minister of Jacksonville and were largely attended. The sepulture was in the beautiful cemetery of Jacksonville where the remains of so many pioneers have found their last resting place. His remains were laid to rest beside the sleeping dust of his little daughter who had preceded him to the spirit world.

Civic Improvement Club

Thursday evening at 8 o'clock a meeting was called to order by Mrs. Alice Ulrich president protem, to organize a club to be known as The Ladies Civic Improvement Club.

Mrs. M. Rose presided as secretary to take the minutes of the meeting. The following officers were elected: President Mrs. A. Ulrich, vice president Mrs. W. Barnum, treasurer, Mrs. Mary Miller, secretary, Mrs. May Rose.

A committee consisting of Mesdames Hines, Shaw and Herbaugh, to draft a constitution and by-laws for the society, were appointed by president Ulrich.

The club decided to give a dinner on election day, next Tuesday, to be served in the basement of the I. O. O. F. hall from 12 noon until 10 p. m. at 25 cents a plate, to which all are cordially invited to partake.

A resolution was adopted asking all the ladies of Jacksonville to join the club, then the meeting adjourned with a membership of twenty to meet again Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Jackson.

Martha S. Stunkard, Plaintiff, vs.
 Matthew Stunkard, Defendant.

To Matthew Stunkard, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the above plaintiff in the above entitled court, now on file with the Clerk of said Court, within ten days from the date of service of this summons upon you, if served in Jackson County, Oregon; but if served in any other county in the State of Oregon, then within twenty days from the date of the service of this summons upon you or if personally served on you out of the State of Oregon, then within six weeks after the date of such service; and if served by publication thereof, then within six weeks from the date of the first publication; and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, as hereby required, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for relief demanded in said complaint, namely, for a decree dissolving the marriage contract existing between Plaintiff Martha S. Stunkard, and defendant Matthew Stunkard, and for the costs and disbursements of this suit to be taxed.

Under and by virtue of an order made by the Hon. J. K. Hanna, a judge of said Court, dated on the 8th day of Oct., 1908, this Summons is served on the defendant by the publication thereof for six consecutive weeks in the Jacksonville Post, a weekly newspaper printed and published at Jacksonville, Jackson County Oregon, and the defendant by said order is required to appear and answer within six weeks from the date of the first publication hereof.

Date of first publication Oct. 10, 1908.
