March 2 is election day in Jacksonville.

An exchange says there are two reasons why some people don't mind their own business. One is that they haven't any mind, and the other is that they haven't any business.

"Snarl," is a despised dog, even among dogs. The human "snarl" is always shunned by his fellow beings, and has but little influence which always takes the form of a dark shadow—there is no sunlight in "snarl's" soul.

Following the close of the current session of the Legislature, Gov. Chamberlain will go to Washington, D. C. to assume his duties of U. S. Senator. But he will not let go of the office of Governor until he has been sworn in and seated as Senator. In the interim his office of Governor will be administered by his stenographer, Mrs. Shelton. Usually, a Governor appoints his Secretary to act during absence, but on this occasion the secretary had been appointed to the office of Circuit Court judge, an extra judge having been created by the Legislature, apparently to accommodate Mr. Chamberlain—certainly not to accommodate the people.—Grants Pass Observer.

WORK MAKES MEN

Work makes men. Luck usually fails. Pluck nearly always wins. To succeed in anything one must overcome obstacles. Force and fiber are built by hardships. Grit is as necessary in the making of a man as gumption. Hardships are not always handicaps. Often they are helps. You will understand this better in twenty years. Meanwhile permit one who has lived that twenty years and more to advise you in this. Hang onto your job until you are sure of a better one. Dependable boys are in demand. And no boy can be depended upon who does not finish the task he sets his hand to do. However disagreeable our work, do it thoroughly. Do it better than the average boy will do it. In that way you will come to be known as a dependable boy. And mind you this: Men everywhere are looking for capable, honest, gritty dependable boys. The sooner you let people know that you will get a better job. And don't be in a hurry to give up the work you already have. Be sure something better is offered. Wait awhile. Do your work well. Promotion will come. And do not envy the boy who has an easy time. You would much better pity him. He has a good time now, but some day he must "make good". With his flabby muscles and his easy habits and his many wants, he stands a far poorer chance than you. Remember above all young fellow, you are making a man of yourself.

PROUD OF CROPS

The question is asked by a Chicago newspaper, why not be proud of the great crops that are being raised this year on the farms? Of course the farmers are proud of their crops, and the tradesmen are proud of them, and the merchants rejoice and the manufacturers are glad. Proud of the great crops? Certainly. It is strange that one should ask such a question.

The crops are bumper ones this year. They will surpass those of 1908 by several millions in value. And the crop of last year was no small one—certainly not one to be ashamed of.

In all the world there is no country where such great, varied and valuable crops are produced as on the American farms. Markets are near every acre of this land. The railroads absorb the surplus and transport it to the market centers of the country or the world. And that which is left behind will not be sold for a cent less than what it could be sold for farther away; or, putting it in another way, nothing will be shipped away for less than it will bring at home. In other words good prices prevail everywhere. The good crop means an abundance of distributed new wealth.

The Cigarette Fiend

Our readers will pardon us if we use a little slang in expressing our views of the victims of cigarettes. Say, you young kid, you're a nice snipe with that cigarette under your nose, ain't you? You're the kind of a soft, pliable, flabby piece of a boy, all weakness and moral imbecility which the toughs take as apprentices and educate in the deep, dark mysteries of how to be bad. You are marked as a little fool by every decent man who sees you, and every time you indulge in the foolish and hurtful habit you are lessening your opportunity of being respectable. You want to be smart but you know it isn't smart, nobody thinks it is smart. If you go into a strange town your cigarette spots you as a little hoodlum and you will have to do a lot of good things before you can convince any one that you are worth having. It impairs your health and ruins your reputation and makes a contemptible monkey out of what might be a respectable boy. Your friends are ashamed of you, if you are far enough along in your habit you glory in your shame and stick to it through pure cussedness. You ought to be transformed, but your mother hasn't given you up yet and wants you near her as you are. Nobody respects you, nobody ought to. You are the blossoms that yield the fruit of idleness and shame; you are the sprout from which a worthless bum will grow in time. You ought to quit it and you know that you ought. Why don't you?

TO TRAVERSE LENGTH OF VALLEY

(Special Correspondence.)

Seven stalwart young Swedes arrived in Portland last Thursday, direct from their far-Northern home. They all came from one village, and in a great many cases their sweethearts had preceded them. A prominent society belle of this city was heard to say that she wished she was a Swede, that they had lots more fun than she and her friends.

The officers of the Portland Commercial Club are taking time by the forelock in making the announcement that during the session of the Legislature just closed not a single suggestion or request of any kind or character was put before Oregon law-makers by the Club.

Positive promises are made that Eugene and Portland, the two cities at the extremes of the Willamette Valley, are to be connected by trolley just as soon as men and money can do the work.

Someone remarked ten days ago that "The people of Oregon are as nervous as a drove of black ants on a hot rock"—the Legislature has since adjourned.

At no time during the history of Oregon was the state being so thoroughly advertised as at present. Business men of Portland are sending out leaflets which emphasize the statement "You can buy your ticket to ANY POINT IN OREGON just as cheaply as to Portland."

The Drain Commercial Club is reorganized and at work. The Elgin Commercial Club gave its first annual banquet last week.

A great many of the preachers and school teachers of Oregon are busily at work in an effort to get Eastern people to take advantage of March and April colonist rates. Appeals from the pulpit and teacher's platform are wonderfully helpful, and those in a position to aid in this way who are not doing it are neglecting a duty to Oregon.

One hundred and fifty Seattle and Tacoma excursionists were in Portland Saturday, bound South through Oregon and California. A trolley ride over the city, an informal reception and dinner at the Commercial Club, occupied their stay.

Others besides multi-millionaires can now eat the fruit of the Oregon hen.

Ask Yourself the Question.

Many Sleepless Nights, Owing to a Persistent Cough. Relief Found at Last.

"For several winters past my wife has been troubled with a most persistent and disagreeable cough, which invariably extended over a period of several weeks and caused her many sleepless nights," writes Will J. Hayner, editor of the Burley, Colo., Bulletin. "Various remedies were tried each year, with no beneficial results. In November last the cough again put in an appearance and my wife, acting on the suggestion of a friend, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The result was, indeed, marvelous. After three doses the cough entirely disappeared and has not manifested itself since." This remedy is for sale by City Drug Store.

OYSTERS

The Oyster season is now open and Luy & Keegan handles the famous Eagle brand of oysters. Take a can of these large Eastern oysters home to fry, stew or for cocktails.
