SUBSCRIPTION
One year, by mail, $1.50.

The Gold Hill News has again changed hands and now James D. Fay, formerly of Medford, is in charge of the helm.

Medford's Magazine is a new creation in the journalistic field of Rogue River Valley. A. Brown, formerly advertising manager on the Mail is the proprietor and editor. The first number is neatly printed and profusely illustrated. Mr. Brown, in his bow, says that he will give the true unvarnished facts about the valley. The magazine is well supported by the business men of Medford who feel the need of a periodical of this character. Success to Mr. Brown and his new enterprise.

We wish to correct an error that appeared in the last issue of the Post. In the article giving the proceedings of the city board appeared the statement that the ground on which the grand stand, at the ball park, was built is a part of E street and that portion of E street was vacated by the board of trustees. In fact there are two streets passing through the ball park which were vacated and there appears to be some doubt as to whether E street was mentioned in the ordinance vacating these two streets. We do not wish to take up the fight in any way, but in all fairness to the city in general we may say that, inasmuch as the city donated two whole streets for the benefit of the ball park it is only just and fair that that portion of E street occupied by the grand stand should be vacated. This park was built for the benefit of the city by private capital and is only paying interest and taxes. There is no harm in playing ball on any day in the week. The man who labors industriously all week should have the privilege of going down to the ball park on Sundays and expanding his chest and inhale the ozone of this glorious climate. Run, jump, skip-the-rope or play ball or such other games that will benefit the human anatomy. We do not mean by this that a man should go to the ball park in preference to the church, but there is ample time to attend both. For the benefit of mankind let us have more recreation parks. Let the girls have a park where they can spend a few hours at leisure, so that the coming generation will stand out healthy and vigorous as was the case in the days of our grandparents. Fit these grounds up with tennis courts, croquet lawns, and such other games beneficial to the weaker sex.

An Improvement Association
While all the towns around us are forming associations of their business men for the purpose of improving the towns, what is the reason that our town can not have one? It will cost nothing to meet once in two or four weeks and talk over the situation. While it might not do much to boom the town, yet we should get better acquainted with one another and with one another's wants and wishes. A community of spirit creates an enthusiasm which is very apt to display itself in some direction. The old saying that everything comes to him who waits, may have been true in the old time, but under the spirit of the present age if a person wants a thing he must go after it. We believe there is a go-ahead spirit enough in town to carry an improvement association through to good results if it were only started; and we also believe that after it was fairly started the good effects of it would be felt immediately. Perhaps not as some cities have done in getting great branches of industry to settle here, but in plans for beautifying and improving what we have, and in being ready to embrace opportunities, if any should come. An association of this kind, it seems to us, would be pleasant and profitable, even if not much in the way of "boom" came from it. Will not some of the business men make a move in the matter?

Some Good Advice
Foolish spending is the father of poverty. Do not be ashamed of hard work. Work for the best salary or wages you can get, but work for half price rather than be idle. Be your own master, and do not let society or fashion swallow you individually—hat, coat and boots. Do not eat up or wear out all you can earn. Compel your selfish body to spare something for profits saved. Be stingy to your appetites, but merciful to others' necessities. Help others, and ask no help for yourself. See that you are proud, too! Let that pride be of the right kind. Be too proud to be lazy; too proud to give up without conquering every difficulty; too proud to wear a coat you cannot afford to buy; to proud to be in company that you cannot keep up with in expense; too proud to be stingy.
