Town Booming Helps

I.—Cackle! Cackle! Cackle!

When Ambassador Choate went to England he made a reputation as a wit with one joke. He sat at the breakfast table beside a sprightly young lady. In England they serve soft boiled eggs wrapped in a napkin. The young lady fumbled, and the egg fell to the floor. "Oh, Mr. Choate," she cried in dismay, "what shall I do? I have dropped my egg!" "CAKLE, my dear, CACKLE!"

It's a mighty good thing to do a little CACKLING once in awhile. CACKLE about your business, about the town you are living in. Let all the world know what a good thing we have here, and our town will grow.

Whenever you have a chance to CACKLE about your town and boom it don't hesitate. Remember the fable of the old hen that observed that every time she CACKLED some one came and took the egg away. She thought it would be much wiser for her to hide her nest and keep quiet about it, and she did till a Sunday school picnic was organized. Her owner was asked to contribute, and he said: "Well, that old hen is not laying any more, and I guess she'd do first rate for a fricassee."

MORAL.
If you want to keep out of the soup pot, CACKLE.

THE TOWN THAT PUSH BUILT To the People of Jacksonville

I.—The Wise Workman

AND VICINITY. I have engaged the service of I. H. Baxter of Ashland, Ore., who is a first-class shoe and harness maker. All work guaranteed first-class and done on short notice. Give him a trial and you will not have to wear out one pair of shoes going after the pair left for repair.

HERE is a workman who is wise because each thing he needs he buys from local dealers who advertise. Whenever he gets his weekly pay he doesn't send the money away. But spends it here, where it will stay. P. S.—The local dealer who's up to snuff will always advertise his stuff.

OLIVER Typewriter

The Standard Visible Writer

The Oliver Typewriter is a money-maker, right from the word "go!" So easy to run that the beginners soon get in the "expert" class. Earn as you learn. Let the machine pay the 17 cents a day—and all above that is yours.

Wherever you are, there's work to be done and money to be made by using the Oliver. The business world is calling for Oliver operators. Their salaries are considerably above those of many classes of workers.

'An Oliver Typewriter in Every Home'

That is our battle cry today. We have made the Oliver supreme in usefulness and absolutely indispensable in business. Now comes the conquest of the home.

The simplicity and strength of the Oliver fit it for family use. It is becoming an important factor in the home training of young people. An educator as well as a money maker.

Our new selling plan puts the Oliver on the threshold of every home in America. Will you close the door of your home or office on this remarkable opportunity?

Write for further details of our easy offer and a free copy of the new Oliver catalog. Address
