MR. SPILKINS' NEW YEAR RESOLVE.

MY life has been the queerest one that ever man has seen. I do not think in all this world its like has ever been. No matter what I try to do, in spite of all my wit, The thing that truly happens is its very opposite.

If I sit down to write a verse that's brimming o'er with glee It turns out to be serious, though why I cannot see, And if, upon the other hand, my musings would be sad My readers read it and they smile as if it made them glad.

WHENEVER I meet a woman who is bright enough for kings And try to talk I cannot think of aught but stupid things, But when I have a vis-a-vis at dinner dull and slow I make the wittiest remarks, though she would never know. When I was but a baby I had not a baby face. I looked the most all knowing kid of an all knowing race, But as I neared maturity a change came over that, And now I look as innocent as any pussy cat.

AND people, when they see me anywhere, are not impressed With the idea that I've a mind that's different from the rest Of ordinary minds they meet, wherever they may be. But that is not the thing that's most distressing unto me. The thing I hate the most in all my weary span of life Has happened to me since I wed my tender little wife. She's tender, and she's pretty; but, by jingo, in my house She rules the whole establishment whilst I'm nixumarouse.

NOW, why is it, I wonder—what accursed freak of fate Has settled me in this extremely mortifying state? Why is it that, whatever I try to do, despite my wit, The thing that truly happens is its very opposite?

There's but one remedy for me, and now that it is here, This very first of all the days of all the glad new year, I'm going to try it; I'll swear off essaying far to do The things I think I ought to and try what I oughtn't to.

There is talk of asking Cannon to resign as Speaker, says the Toledo Blade. So soft and low, however, that you cannot hear it at all in Washington.

And so the alleged plot to kidnap Mr. Rockefeller was all a false alarm. And Mr. Rockefeller did not even need the advertising.

A bank president and lumberman of Washington, wants to succeed Piles in the senate. His name is McCormick, and we suspect that he is one of those patriots who want to revise the tariff that way again.

A HARD STRUGGLE.

Many a Jacksonville Citizen finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching. With distressing urinary disorders. Daily existence is but a struggle. No need to keep it up. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Jacksonville people endorse this claim: Jesse Freeman, living at Sterling Mine, Jacksonville, Ore., says: "I actually believe that Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life. I suffered from kidney disease for a long time before I realized what it was. I thought at first the symptoms would pass away, but instead they increased in severity until I was suffering untold agony. I was treated by physicians and used many remedies but found no relief. My worst troubles were pains in my back and limbs and irregularity of the kidney secretions. I was unable to rest or sleep well on account of the pains and was so stiff and lame at times as to be unable to get about. At one time I was laid up for several weeks and unable to work. I finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and as they were so highly recommended, I procured a box at the City Drug Store and began using them. This remedy seemed to be just what I required, for in less than two weeks the beneficial results were apparent. I continued using the remedy, improved steadily and by the time I had used seven boxes I was better than I had been for years. I am now absolutely free from any symptom of kidney trouble and give the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills."

Plenty more proof like this from Jacksonville people. Call at The City Drug Store and ask what customers report.
