JACKSONVILLE POST

Official Paper of the City of Jacksonville, Oregon

A weekly newspaper published every Saturday at the county seat of Jackson County, Oregon. D. W. BAGSHAW, Editor.

Entered as second-class matter June 22, 1907, at the post office at Jacksonville, Oregon, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1910

SUBSCRIPTION: One year by mail $1.50. Advertising rates furnished on application.

Efforts are being made to reorganize the Commercial club of this city, or rather to organize a new one on a better and more substantial basis, a permanent organization being particularly aimed at.

In this age of progress and advancement no thinking person will deny the power of united effort when properly directed, the effect is visible on every hand. "Many willing hands make light labor" is just as true in regard to town improvement and advancement as it is in building a railroad and if the people of this town desire Jacksonville to advance to, and maintain her place in the position for which she is so eminently fitted by her many natural advantages, let them one and all join the club now being organized, put shoulders to the wheel and push, along the road toward prosperity, both municipal and individual.

A good live commercial club has been the making of many towns which were "deader than a door nail" and did not have one half of the advantages of this city. A good live club will make this a town to be proud of. Are you going to help? Then get into the club and pull.

Because meats are so tasty they are consumed in great excess. This leads to stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation. Revise your diet, let reason and not a pampered appetite control, then take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be well again. Try it.
