A civic religion, that shall be worth while, cannot come to pass until men place public welfare above every private interest.

No machinery will do the work of civic reform or supply the want of civic religion.

Before and beyond all nomination and election reforms, important though these in truth are, is needed the ceaseless and unwavering consecration to the civic good of the citizen and the patriot.

Pinchot's Accusations.

Following is the gist of Ex-Forester Gifford Pinchot's accusations against Secretary Ballinger, as laid before the Ballinger-Pinchot congressional investigating committee Saturday afternoon.

Ballinger entered his office with the determination to make short work of the policy of keeping the natural resources of the country out of the hands of monopoly.

He made to the president an explanation of his conduct that was "essentially false."

Ballinger has been "unfaithful to his trust as the guardian of public property of enormous value."

In the Cunningham coal cases he

He "deceived the president and was disloyal to him."

Congress should "get rid of an unfaithful public servant."
