ENLARGED HOMESTEAD ACT

Bill of Senator Bourne as Amended by Committee.

Sometime ago Senator Bourne introduced a bill in the senate, amending the Enlarged Homestead Act as applied to Oregon. The senate committee on Public Lands reported an amendment there to making the Utah law apply to the State of Oregon.

The bill as amended has passed the Senate, and it should become a law, sec. 6 which follows will apply to lands in this state.

Sec. 6, whenever the Secretary of the Interior shall find that any tracts of land in the State of Utah or Oregon, subject to entry under this act, do not have upon them such a sufficient supply of water suitable for domestic purposes as would make continuous residence upon the lands possible, he may, in his discretion, designate such tracts of land, not to exceed in the aggregate two million acres, and thereafter they shall be subject to entry under this act without the necessity of residence: Provided, that in such event the entryman on any such entry shall in good faith cultivate not less than one-eighth of the entire area of the entry during the second year, one-fourth during the third year, and one-half during the fourth and fifth years after the date of such entry and that after entry and until proof the entryman shall reside within such distance of said land as will enable him successfully to farm the same as required by this section.
