

JOLLY UNCLE JOSH

Great Generosity Toward Newly Wedded Niece.

A real live Jacksonville Romance
---Business men are leading characters---No terror to old bachelors now---Find an Uncle Josh and wade in.

"Miss Summers--Polly--I--er--dare I--" But the speaker took a header over bashfulness, only to hear a sweet "Yes, Charley."

"Can I aspire to--er--to--that is--" Again a fapse into silence, followed by an encouraging "Yes Charley."

"Oh, if I might only hope to--er--to--"

Another failure of language. It was seemingly a hopeless case, and might have been, only for a demure--

"Charley, I have said 'yes' twice, and if you mean it, I mean it, too, and--"

And to this day that young man will insist that he popped the question.

All this happened away "down east," and it wasn't long before there was a wedding. Not much longer before there came a letter from Polly's Uncle Josh, out here in Jacksonville, who wrote effusively of his "delight" at her exhibition of what he called "grit," and he proposed that if the young people would locate at Jacksonville he would start them up in life, as a wedding gift. Of course, they accepted, and were soon bidding their friends adieu.

The first of this week a travel-stained party arrived in Jacksonville. Our friend, Uncle Josh, was in charge, and he led the party straightway to a hotel. "The United States," said he, "is a typical American hotel of the best class. I have known Messdames Finney & Brown the proprietors for years, and they are mine host after mine own heart, endowed with that delightful intuition that makes a guest feel at home, contented, and in mighty good luck. While the cuisine is all that a superior chef and unlimited orders on the market can make it. I have engaged rooms here until your own house is in readiness."

"After breakfast," said the old man, "I am ready to go buy your outfit. To expedite matters I have ordered a carriage from W. P. Bailey, our enterprising livery man." When the handsome carriage, with elaborate trappings and prancing horses drew up in front of the hotel, Polly declared it the "finest turnout she had ever seen."

"Yes, Sir-ee," replied Uncle Josh, "the three S's, 'Speed, Safety and Style,' is Union Stables coat of arms. So, young folks, when you want to take a drive, either for business or pleasure, go to him for a rig every time. His wedding, party and funeral equipments are unsurpassed."

"Where to?" asked the polite driver, as the trio entered the conveyance.

Uncle Josh looked askance at his wards.

"Oh, goodness knows; there's lots to buy," remarked Polly. "Then suppose we buy 'lots' first," quoth Charley, without turning a hair. Uncle Josh saw the point and started for Lutz Collins real estate office, remarking on the way:

"I can always depend on them for bargains in real estate, as they never hold out false lights to induce people to buy. What they tell you about property, may be set down as solid facts. They control a large list of desirable residences as well as ranch properties, their judgment on the good things is par excellence."

The party was not long in making a detour for a nice house in Jacksonville and a ranch, which Charley considered a splendid investment.

"By the way," exclaimed Uncle Josh, with a paternal air, "the next thing to look after is the lumber for those improvements which are absolutely necessary. Come with me, and I'll introduce you to F. J. Fick, who is principal dealer here. He can furnish you everything from the sills for the foundation to the shingles for the roof, including doors and windows, mouldings, etc. It is pleasant to deal with him, for his greatest aim is to give satisfaction to every customer. In a few minutes Uncle Josh had made all arrangements for the building material plans and wall paper.

"Having provided you with a cage for the bird," said Uncle Josh, "now the first thing we'll look after will be the furnishings for it." Hereupon Polly energetically declared that she had heard so much about T. L. DeVore that she had decided to go there. The result was that they were ushered into a bewildering display of furniture that the girl was at first at a loss how to select. But she soon yielded to the seductiveness of a magnificent parlor suit, a bedroom set in oak, antique finish that would do credit to old Antiquity himself. To this she added an easy rocker for Uncle Josh, and didn't forget a most convenient and ornamental writing desk for "hubby" Charles.

While Uncle Josh was pondering where to go next, Polly suddenly asked: "Uncle, where can I find the leading millinery establishment?" "Just a few doors further on at California St.," replied Uncle Josh, "and we will visit Katharine Chapman, who by the way, has on hand one of the completest stocks of millinery to be found in the city. You can get what you want there, the latest styles and lowest prices being her motto. Years of experience guarantees that when you have purchased of her you have the thing according to fashion and a satisfaction that your work has been done by a competent artist." In a few hours there never was a happier girl than Polly, for her spring hat was a perfect dream of loveliness. She has the latest effects in the R. & G. corsets the latest in town.

"I would like to make you acquainted with Dr. T. T. Shaw, my dentist friend, too," said the old man. "His office is right upstairs, and if you ever have to supplement your natural teeth--" "Ugh! Don't you mention false teeth to me!" cried Polly. "I'll never carry 'pearly-lies' in my mouth if I go toothless." "Oh, as for that," laughed Uncle Josh, "if you'll only consult a good dentist in time, you can save the catastrophe. Dr. Shaw, for instance, is a wonderfully expert in saving natural teeth, and he has the skill and every mechanical appliance necessary to do his work with the least discomfort to his patrons. His anaesthetic for painless extraction is a wonder, and works like a charm."

After this visit Uncle Josh suggested a resort to some place of refreshment. At the table the old man waxed philosophical. "Never neglect your larder," said he. "That important adjunct to housekeeping controls masculine temper. To that end you must patronize a grocer on whom you can depend for honest goods. In every transaction I have found Ulrich Bros. perfectly reliable. You will find them careful dealers, always fully stocked with every possible thing in the line of staple and fancy groceries, fresh and first-class, no shelf-worn goods there, while the prices are down to brass tacks. To keep peace in this family, get all your groceries of Ulrich Bros."

"By the way," remarked Uncle Josh, as they reached the street, "I must run over to the Farmers & Fruit-growers bank and get another check book. Come along with me and get acquainted with Benj. M. Collins, the cashier, for of course you will do business with them, and it is always more pleasant to be personally acquainted with the people you do business with. This bank is as solid as the base of the universe, and has a strong working capital and surplus of $500,000. You will find them ever ready to extend any accommodations compatible with business principles. Your savings, deposited there, will return you a fair rate of interest. It wouldn't be a bad idea, either, to rent one of the Farmers & Fruit-growers bank's safety boxes in which to keep your valuables."

"And in the matter of insurance," continued Uncle Josh, "that is of importance. You want a Polly-icy on your new house of course, and my old friend, D. W. Bagshaw, not only has lines of the solidest and best companies, but he is an expert and trustworthy underwriter, he has a large number of companies, all of which belong to the old reliable category, being well known for their prompt and satisfactory adjustment of losses. It's better to be safe than sorry, and [you'll surely be safe in the St. Paul agency."

"Law sakes!" suddenly exclaimed Uncle Josh, "all this trading and shopping round town has caused me to forget one of the greatest essentials to future existence. I have heard it said that newly married folks could live on love and scenery, but an old man of experience knows better--your table would look slim without bread; it's the 'staff of life,' you know. Polly, you must meet B. Wetzel. His bread, pies and cakes and nick-nacks are conceded by all to be the finest on earth. Remember, Charley, there is no use of your 'ootsy tootsy' bothering hereif much about baking, so long as there is a good baker in town like Wetzel. When you give your reception, call on him for the fancy cakes and other good things."

"Yes and while we are on this important topic of gastronomy, we must not forget meat. It goes hand in hand with bread. Now to locate a meat market where you can get fresh, wholesome meats at all times. John Daminon is the man to supply you. This is the boss meat market in the city, and is popular with everybody who is particular to have the best. The reason for this is all because he is very careful in the selection of stock, and gets the freshest of everything, and keeps nothing but the very best. To keep your 'hubby' in good humor, Polly, trade at the city meat market every time."

Upon summing up the wonderful events of the day, Polly began to volubly express thanks. "You have bought us every thing," she exclaimed. "Only one thing missing," remarked Uncle Josh, "you can never keep house without the Jacksonville Post, and as it is the favorite newspaper in Southern Oregon, I'll just step in here and subscribe."

Lion Fondles A Child.

In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the hand that a child thrust into his cage. Danger to child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through Colds, Croup, and Whooping Cough. They slay thousands that Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. "A few doses cured our baby of a very bad case of Croup," writes Mrs. George B. Davis, of Flat Rock, N. C. "We always give it to him when he takes cold. It's a wonderful medicine for babies." Best for Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Asthma, Hemorrhages, Weak Lungs. 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. ### Baseball.

Sunday, May 15, the Cubs will cross bats with the boys from Hillcrest. The Hillcrest boys play good ball, and a good game is assured as the Cubs haven't lost a game this season. Ike Coffman will be in the box, with Shaffer as receiver. This will be the best game of the season, so folks to n out and root for the home team.

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, purify the stomach, liver and blood, helping the system to do its work naturally. Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by All Dealers.
