

JACKSONVILLE POST

Official Paper of the City of Jacksonville, Oregon

A weekly newspaper published every Saturday at the county seat of Jackson County, Oregon. D. W. BAGSHAW, Editor.

Entered as second-class matter June 22, 1907, at the post office at Jacksonville, Oregon, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1910

SUBSCRIPTION: One year by mail $1.50. Advertising rates furnished on application.

Elsewhere in this paper appears a call for a special election to vote upon the question of issuing $30,000 worth of bonds for constructing a system of gravity water works. The bond issue voted last year were found to be unsaleable, owing to certain restrictions as to time of maturity, etc. and the amount of the issue voted is deemed insufficient to construct a proper system, hence the council believes it necessary to call a special election for submitting the matter to the voters of the city. It will be noticed that the ordinance calling this election also repeals Ordinance No. 125, under which the former bond election was held and therefore annuls all authority of the council to issue the $25,000 worth of bonds voted at that time. The election will be held August 1st. and of the result there can be no doubt. Let there be a full turn out at the polls and a unanimous vote for water and progress.

The assemblyites of Jackson County held another meeting at Medford last Saturday, but as only three precincts were represented [and they were Medford ones] the managers adjourned until to-day when another effort will be made to secure delegates to the state assembly at Portland. A good chance for anyone wishing to represent himself [but not the republicans of this county] at Portland, is offered. Who wants the job?
