JACKSONVILLE, JACKSON COUNTY, OREGON, OCTOBER 1, 1910

NO. 22

THE PRIMARY

Anti-Assembly and Direct Primary Candidates Win in Most Cases.

The anti-assembly men are the winners as a rule in the contest Saturday, Bowerman for Governor, and Benson for Secretary of State, being about all the assembly candidates nominated for state offices.

For congress, in the first district Hawley, assembly candidate wins over Mulkey by about 2000, but in the second district Lafferty, insurgent, defeats Ellis, assembly candidate by about 4000.

In this county the only contests were for State Senator, Representative, and Commissioner. Von der Hellen defeated Cambers and Colvig for Senator, Westerlund and Eggleston won over Mears for Representative, and Davis defeated Patterson for Commissioner.

Taken as a whole it was the most apathetic election ever held in Oregon; the average voter not seeming to care whether he voted or not. In many of the counties not more than 50 per cent of the registered voters attended the election.

MOCK ARRESTED

On Little Applegate Saturday Morning. Now in County Jail.

Julian A. Mock, the man who stabbed and killed Jesse Smith at Medford last week, was arrested on Little Applegate, early Saturday morning and lodged in the county jail at this place Saturday afternoon. The arrest was made by Deputy Manning of Talent, and was accomplished without difficulty Manning having been notified by telephone of the presence of Mock at the house of James Trask. Mock's story as told by himself is to the effect that the murder was unintentional and not premeditated; that he has never been in any trouble before, of any kind, that he was under the influence of liquor when he killed Smith; that he has tuberculosis of the lungs and could not live long anyway, and was on the way to give himself up to the officers when arrested. He denies making his escape with a horse and cart, but says that the trip was made on foot.

It is evident that the want of food drove Mock to the dwelling of the Trask's and not the desire to give himself up as stated above.

MASTER MARINER DIES AFTER YEAR'S ILLNESS

Alameda, Sept. 8.—After an illness of more than a year, Captain Henry Clay Killman, a master mariner, died Tuesday night at his home, 1701 Willow street. After a voyage to Africa about a year ago, Captain Killman returned to New York, where he underwent an operation from which he never recovered. Unable to partake of any food, his strength rapidly declined, and since February, when he was brought home from New York in a special car, his life has been despaired of.

Captain Killman was a member of Oak Grove lodge of Masons, with which he had been identified for many years. He was widely known in shipping circles. Deceased is survived by a widow, Mrs. Sophie M. Killman. He was 62 years old and a native of Stockton, Maine. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Masonic Temple. The flag is at half mast on the temple. (The above article is from a San Francisco paper of recent date and will be of interest to many of our readers. The mariner, Capt. Killman was a brother-in-law of our fellow townsman, W. E. Deneff.)

PIONEER REUNION

Held in this City Last Week —Next Meeting to be in Ashland.

The annual reunion of the Southern Oregon Pioneers and their descendants was held in this city, Thursday of last week. As the weather was exceptionally fine, a large number of the old-time residents of different parts of the country and many of their descendants were present.

The program was carried out substantially as announced in a former issue of the Post. Singing, speech-making and feasting were the main features.

The address of welcome was delivered by Hon. C. C. Beekman, the pioneer banker of Southern Oregon, and one of the earliest residents of Jacksonville, and was specially appropriate to the occasion. The regular oration delivered by W. H. Johnson of the Applegate valley, a native son of Oregon, was a masterly effort and was received with marked attention by the audience. The orator referred in a touching manner to the self-sacrifices of these early pioneers and to the effect upon the present and future generations.

Since the annual meeting last year, nine members have gone to that country from which none returns; memorials of the following departed ones were read by the secretary:

Silas J. Dav. Clayborne Neil, H. K. Hanna, William T. Freese, A. B. Helman, Robt. J. Cameron, and Rial Benedict.

The music under the direction of Miss Carrie Beekman was fine and deserves especial mention. The banquet, served by Native Daughters, was excellent and was thoroughly enjoyed by the three hundred persons partaking thereof.

An election of officers resulted in the choice of C. K. Klum of Ashland as president, and C. C. Beekman of this city as secretary. Ashland was selected as the place for the next meeting.

Dairying in the South

Dairying is growing in popularity among the farmers of the southern states. They are learning that the dairy cow can do for the cotton grower of the south what she has done for the wheat grower in the north, i. e., increase the fertility of the soil in addition to making most satisfactory returns for labor and money expended for feed.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has been giving particular attention to this question in the southern states the past few years and a great service has been rendered. A great impetus has been given to the dairy movement until now there are thousands of influential dairymen singing the praises of the dairy cow and demonstrating by several experiments that dairying is the salvation of that section of the country.

Certain politicians, in order to create an issue by which they might retain office, have greatly retarded the development of the dairy industry in the cotton growing states by creating the impression there that the interests of the cotton grower are opposed to those of the dairymen. It has been brought about in this way: Cottonseed oil is used in the manufacture of some kinds of oleomargarine. This has been used to prejudice the cotton producer against any and all kinds of legislation which in any way regulates or restricts the sale of oleomargarine. A careful estimate compiled from government reports shows that through the sale of cottonseed oil which was used in the manufacture of oleomargarine last year, the cotton growers of the south actually received one and one-half cents for every acre planted to cotton!

For every dollar's worth of cottonseed oil used last year in making oleomargarine, one hundred and seven dollars' worth of butter was produced in those same cotton growing states.

These are facts which every cotton producer should consider before lending his support to any movement which is intended to retard the growth and development of the dairy industry in the south.

FRUIT DISPLAY

Fine Assortment of Apples, Pears, Peaches and Grapes at Bank of Jacksonville.

Mr. Harry Luy of the County Seat Real Estate Co. has collected and placed on exhibition at the Bank of Jacksonville, a fine assortment of fruits all grown in territory immediately adjacent to this city, an inspection of which will convince the most prejudiced observer that all the fine fruit is not grown at Medford.

The collection includes Crawford peaches; Tokay grapes; DeAnjou, Comice, and Winter Nellis pears; and Jonathan, Spitzenberg, and Newtown apples. The specimens on exhibition cannot be surpassed for size, shape, or coloring by any fruit grown anywhere and it is well worth while to stop and inspect them.

In addition to the fruit mentioned above, the bank has several fine specimens of potatoes, grown near this city.

HOUSEHOLD CARES

Tax the Women of Jacksonville the Same as Elsewhere

Hard to attend to household duties. With a constantly aching back. A woman should not have a bad back, and she wouldn't if the kidneys were well.

Doan's Kidney Pills make well kidneys. Mrs. J. H. Baussum, living Cor. Twelfth & C. Sts. Medford, Ore., says: "I suffered so severely from kidney trouble that I was unable to do my housework. My kidneys were very irregular in action. My back pained me severely when stooping or lifting and sharp twinges would shoot through my loins. I ran down in health and at times felt very miserable. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention, and I procured a box. They helped me from the first, I continued taking them and was entirely cured. I have often recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to other sufferers."

Plenty more proof like this from Jacksonville people. Call at the City Drug Store and ask what customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, Sole Agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's, and take no other.

To the Lover of Good Coffee

We wish to advise you that we have installed in our store a new Royal Electric Coffee Mill, which is being placed on the market by The A. J. Deer Co., of Hornell, N. Y. This machine is equipped with steel knives which cut the berry into uniform clean cut particles, instead of grinding and crushing it, as by the old method.

All Coffee Mills heretofore used will only crush the berry, mutilating the minute oil cells, allowing the Coffee Oil to evaporate, thus impairing the strength and flavor.

By this new process the little oil cells remain unbroken, the essential oil (food product), can not evaporate and the coffee thus retains its fine, rich, aromatic flavor in its full strength.

This is one reason why a pound of coffee cut in this mill will make from twelve to fifteen cups more of full strength coffee than will any coffee ground the old way. The Lover of Good Coffee finds here a richness of flavor never found in Coffee ground in the ordinary way at any price.

Another feature about this Mill is that you may have your Coffee cut as fine as the finest sand and it will still be practically free from that fine dust which is produced by the old method of grinding. You will, therefore, always have a clear cup of coffee instead of a muddy effect—a result of using the old style Mills.

Royal Cut Coffee is also adaptable for percolators or French Drip Coffee Pots.

Try a pound of our coffee cut on a Royal Mill and we know you will be pleased with the results.

Yours truly,

Ulrich Brothers
